25 GOOD REASONS WHY PSYCHIATRY MUST BE ABOLISHED
by Don Weitz

1. Because psychiatrists frequently cause harm, permanent disabilities, death - death of the body-mind-spirit.

2. Because psychiatrists frequently violate the Hippocratic Oath which orders all physicians "First Do No Harm."

3. Because psychiatrists patronize and disempower people, especially their patients.

4. Because psychiatry is not a medical science.

5. Because psychiatry is quackery, a pseudo-science which lacks independent diagnostic tests, testable hypotheses, and cures for "schizophrenia" and all other types of alleged "mental illness" or "mental disorder".

6. Because psychiatrists can not accurately and reliably predict dangerousness, violence, or any other type of human behaviour, yet make such claims as "expert witnesses", and with the media promote the "dangerous mental patient" myth/stereotype.

7. Because psychiatrists have caused a worldwide epidemic of brain damage by promoting and prescribing brain-disabling treatments such as the neuroleptics, antidepressants, electroconvulsive brainwashing (electroshock), and psychosurgery (lobotomy).

8. Because psychiatrists manufacture hundreds of "mental disorders" classified in its bible called "Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders" (a modern witch-hunting manual); such "mental disorders" and "symptoms" are in fact negative, class-and-culturally-biased moral judgments for dissident ways of coping with personal problems and alternative ways of perceiving, interpreting or being in the world.

9. Because psychiatrists, blinded by their medical model bias, fraudulently pathologize and label people's serious life or existential crises as "symptoms" of "mental illness" or "mental disorder" such as "schizophrenia","bipolar affective disorder", and "personality disorder".

10. Because psychiatrists compound this fraud by falsely claiming, without scientific proof, that these "mental disorders" are caused by a "biochemical imbalance" in the brain, genetic factors or "genetic predispositions", despite the fact that there are no genetic factors in "mental illness".

11. Because psychiatrists frequently misinform their patients, families and the public by claiming that brain-disabling procedures such as the neurotoxins (e.g.,"antipsychotic medication" and "antidepressasnts"), electroconvulsive brainwashing (electroconvulsive therapy/"ECT"), psychosurgery (lobotomy) and other behaviour modification-mind control procedures are "safe, effective and lifesaving". The exact opposite is tragically true.

12. Because psychiatrists routinely deceive or lie to patients, prisoners, their families, and the public.

13. Because psychiatrists routinely and willfully violate the medical-ethical principle of "informed consent" by misinforming or not informing their patients about the numerous toxic, disabling and frequently permanent effects of the neuroleptics such as memory loss, tardive dyskinesia, tardive psychosis, parkinsonism, dementia (all signs of brain damage), and death.

14. Because psychiatrists routinely threaten, intimidate or coerce many patients - particularly women, children, the elderly, and prisoners - into consenting to health-threatening/brain-damaging "treatment" such as the antidepressants, neuroleptics, electroconvulsive brainwashing, and hi-risk experiments.

15. Because psychiatrists frequently fail to fully inform psychiatric inmates and prisoners about existing safe and humane, non-medical alternatives in the community such as survivor-controlled crisis centres, drop-ins, self-help or advocacy groups, diet, massage, wholistic medicine, affordable supportive housing, and jobs.

16. Because psychiatrists are sexist in frequently stereotyping women in crisis as "hysterical" or "over-emotional", blaming women whenever they voice real complaints and assertively express their feelings and emotions, prescribing massive doses of tranquilizers and antidrepressants to disproportionately large numbers of women, and in sexually assaulting women in their offices and institutions.

17. Because psychiatrists, particularly white male psychiatrists, are homophobic - the American Psychiatric Association (APA) once labelled homosexuality as a "mental illness" or "mental disorder" - and have used forced electroshock on lesbians, trying to coerce them into adopting a heterosexual life style.

18. Because psychiatrists are ageist in prescribing tranquilizers, antidepressants ("medication") and electroconvulsive brainwashing for disproportionately large numbers of elderly people - a form of elder abuse.

19. Because psychiatrists are racist in disproportionately incarcerating and drugging people of African descent, aboringal people, other people of colour and labelling them "psychotic" or "schizophrenic".

20. Because psychiatrists routinely violate people's civil rights, human rights and constitutional rights such as imprisoning innocent people without court trial or public hearing ("involuntary commitment"), and subjecting them to cruel and unusual punishments or tortures such as forced drugging, electroconvulsive brainwashing, psychosurgery, solitary confinement, "chemical restraints", and 4-point or 5-point restraints.

21. Because psychiatrists masterminded the mass murder of hundreds of thousands of vulnerable people including disabled children, the elderly and psychiatric patients during The Holocaust in Nazi Germany, and "selected" hundreds of thousands of concentration camp prisoners for death ("T-4 euthanasia" program) - historical facts still missing in psychiatric textbooks and histories.

22. Because psychiatrists have willingly participated in and administered mind-control experiments in the United States and Canada since the early 1950s - its chief targets have been poor patients, women, dissidents and prisoners.

23. Because psychiatry, particularly institutional-biological psychiatry, is based on the 3 Fs: Fear, Fraud,and Force.

24. Because psychiatry is a form of social control or punishment - not treatment.

25. Because psychiatry, particularly institutional-biological psychiatry, is fascist - a direct threat to democracy, human rights and life.

My Story

SPRING 2014 - Moscow, ID

Everything started while I was at University of Idaho. Spring 2014 was my final semester and I was taking a heavy course load (see Transcript). I was very stressed due to the intensity of my schedule, so I searched for a way to cope. I discovered meditation, which seemed to help, so it became part of my daily routine. As I learned more about meditation, I became interested in consciousness and our ability to affect it. | kept working on my meditation techniques and began achieving extreme states of consciousness.

This continued until I encountered another being through meditation. It happened one night in February 2014 and it was the most profound experience I've ever had. I was lying in bed meditating then suddenly left my physical body. I entered a space that was completely dark and had no awareness of my physical boundaries/orientation. | felt very peaceful there until a blue light began to approach me. As the blue light got closer, I realized it was another being. Once I was in the being's presence, I felt an immediate sense of wrongdoing. It felt like I was being told “YOU SHOULDN’T BE HERE!” J instantly conceded and felt guilty, then I began to distance myself from the being. This had an impact on them and seemed to change their mind about me. The moment I began to distance myself from the being, I became overwhelmed by a feeling I can only describe as unconditional love. During this part of the experience, our minds became connected and | saw that the being was female. I then began to feel the most euphoric, comforting, and blissful feelings | have ever felt. It was incredibly powerful and life-altering.

Next thing I knew, I woke up. I had tears in my eyes and I couldn't get out of bed. I felt a profound sense of loss like I had just lost someone close to me. It was very painful. A few minutes later, the experience left my mind (against my will) and

I went about my day. After that, | had no urge to meditate at all. Every time I even thought about meditation, the thought was stripped from my mind. When I finally did try meditating again, I was unable to achieve anything. I didn't think much of it at the time, but I knew it wasn't going to improve. Ultimately, I decided to give up on meditation and just focus on my classes.

The remainder of the semester became exceedingly easy for me. It felt like I had tapped into some kind of power. I was exerting no mental effort even though the classes had been extremely difficult before. I also began to have complex thoughts and a depth of understanding I had never reached before.

About a month later, I started interviewing at the graduate schools | had applied to. Shortly after the interviews were done, I started receiving offers. I decided to accept the offer from Baylor College of Medicine to work on a PhD in Human Genetics. I was very excited about the opportunity to work at such a prestigious university. The future looked bright and | couldn’t wait to get started.

Everything changed once I started the program. The moment I arrived, I could see flaws in every professor's research. My mind was so expanded that I could instantly understand the implications of entire research projects. Because of this, ! was able to see weaknesses in all the available projects. This caused me to become very concerned about what | was doing and I felt like | was wasting my time. | voiced my concerns to my advisor and he casually brushed them aside. He told me "Just have fun, it'll be fun". I kept trying to get motivated, but things continued to get worse. I started seeing flaws in the foundations of Genetics and other fields. It got to the point where I couldn't stop thinking about them. To make things worse, no one else seemed to care, which really bothered me. All these issues made it impossible for me to continue, so I decided to leave.

The day after I decided to leave, my life became a living hell. I couldn't sleep and my mind felt sapped. I was entirely at peace with my decision, so I knew something strange was happening to me. After a few days of this, two of the graduate students began reaching out to me. Eugene Lurie and Brandon Pekarek. I barely knew them, so it seemed unusual they would contact me. When I went to see them, they both kept pointing their finger at me saying “pew pew” like they were shooting a gun. They did this over and over and | kept wondering what their problem was. (Months after I left Houston, I was told that Eugene and Brandon were not human. They were tasked with making me into “the next school shooter” as they called it. | imagine this is why many of our school shootings take place.)

Anyway, things slowly improved after I stopped talking with Eugene and Brandon, but I was mentally exhausted. I tried to figure out what to do with my life, but I could hardly think. Eventually, I left Texas and started applying for jobs all over the country. A few months later, things took a strange turn.

OCT 2014 - AUG 2015 - CDA, ID

In Spring 2015, I finally secured an interview with a food company. I thought I was about to get something going with my life, but I was wrong. I couldn't sleep at all the night before my interview. I literally stayed awake the entire night, which had never happened to me before. I looked unrecognizable in the mirror the next morning and my mind felt sapped worse than it had in Houston. Needless to say, the interview didn't go well. I couldn't think and I had extreme difficulty with normal conversation. After the interview was over, I suddenly felt fine AND looked perfectly normal... I slept great that night then made my way to the airport the next morning.

This is where the story gets weird. On the plane ride back home, my seat was taken. I asked the flight attendant and she directed me to a new seat. Once I sat down, an older gentleman in front of me kept glancing back until he got my attention. As he kept looking back, my head began to hurt and tingle. The moment my head began to hurt, his lips curled up into this evil looking smile. The pain and tingling in my head continued for the rest of the flight and got more intense as time went on. Every time I felt it, the man would start taking notes in a notepad. About halfway through the flight, someone else in front of me held up a newspaper that said "Psychic Reading" for like 5 minutes straight. It was blatantly obvious they were doing something to me, but I didn’t know what. Once we landed, the older gentleman kept showing me his TracFone as if to say “Get one of these”.

I had applied to several government agencies before this happened, so | thought this might be their way of contacting me. Out of curiosity, I decided to go and buy a TracFone. | checked it every day to see if anyone messaged or called. About a month later, I got a text message from a man named John Padula. He invited me to come to church at The Altar. It seemed like a strange place to be recruiting for government jobs, but I went anyway. After I got there and went inside, something felt very wrong. I felt as if my life was in danger and I became so uncomfortable | had to leave.

A couple days later, I started receiving text messages from Tim Remington. At first they were innocuous bible messages, but then he started threatening me. He sent messages talking about 'their power' and other things. He did all of this through bible verses so it would not look suspicious. I ignored everything until he sent one final text message, which simply said 'angels'. I thought nothing of it until helicopters started flying around my house all day and all night. At this point, I knew I was in trouble. I knew I needed to contact them, so | made an appointment to meet

John Padula for coffee. Little did I know, he had no intention of meeting me.

After making the appointment to meet John, something very bizarre happened. I received the most unnatural erection I've ever had. It felt like someone was manually pumping blood into my penis. I don't know how else to describe it. Immediately after that, a song began playing in my mind. The lyrics went: "Sister sister, he's just a plaything. We wanna make him stay up all night." I had never heard this song before and 1 had no idea what it meant. I tried to ignore it and kept searching for jobs. A few minutes later, the song quit playing.

Nothing else happened until I tried to go to sleep that night. As soon as I got into bed, the song started again. "Sister sister, he's just a plaything. We wanna make him stay up all night." As it turned out, they weren't kidding. I got literally zero minutes of sleep that night. Every time I started to drift off, I was woken up violently then the song would play.

When the sun came up, I gave up on trying to sleep and got out of bed. I was relieved at first because the song had quit playing. I thought the torture was over until a voice entered my mind. The voice said: "You're going to be uncomfortable, all you have to do is breathe".] sat there wondering what this meant until the voice spoke again. It told me I was going to: "...be sacrificed like Jesus and get beheaded." This threw me into a complete panic. My heart began racing and | started to havea mental breakdown.

A few minutes later, some man knocked on my door. I answered and he gave me a pamphlet talking about “The Sacrifice of Jesus”. My mind started racing out of control and I became completely delirious. I thought for sure I was going to die. My thoughts shifted to my family, and all I could think about was seeing them again.

They were in Albuquerque at the time, so I decided to buy a one-way ticket there.

When I reached the Spokane airport, my panic subsided. Everything was fine until I got on the plane to Albuquerque. I sat next to this huge man who kept telling me (telepathically) that he was going to crash the plane. Every time after he spoke he would sniff emphatically. | didn’t know what to do, so I just sat there trying to stay as calm as possible. The ‘man’ became angry about this and started touching my leg. The second he touched me, I could feel him inside my mind. This caused me to panic until [was on the verge of causing a scene. Before I did anything, he told me to calm down and said: "You did a great job. You passed! Go enjoy your family. We have a job waiting for you when you get back." I thanked him and felt slightly relieved, but I had no intention of contacting him at all. My only thought was to get as far away from him as possible.

After getting off the plane, I headed to the baggage claim. A huge group of them surrounded me there. I watched them cautiously, then they all began sniffing at me. (The sniff is something they do all the time. I think it has something to do with dominance.) When I finally got my bag, I left the airport as fast as I could. My parents were right outside waiting to pick me up. I was so happy to see them again. I gave them big hugs and told them how much I loved them. This was my last happy moment in Albuquerque, however. They followed us everywhere we went after that. Whenever I saw one, they would sniff at me to let me know it was them. They would also smile, laugh, and stick their tongues out.

As time went on, they started coaxing me to go outside alone. I was scared to death they would kill me, so I refused. Eventually, they threatened to harm my family, which caused me to give in to them. I told them I would do whatever they want if they left my family alone. They responded by saying “Go to church.” I knew they meant The Altar, so I agreed to go when I got back.

When I went to The Altar for the first time, the people acted very strange. It was unhuman. As I walked into the sermon room, everyone stared at me and began sniffing emphatically. Needless to say, I was scared as hell, but I took a seat. When the service began, a man came and sat down next to me. After he sat down, I began smelling something. It was a smell] had never smelt before. The only thing I can compare it to is a reptile and vinegar. After smelling it, I] became very uncomfortable. I tried to remain calm and just sat there quietly until the service was over. When the service ended, they said: "You can leave now". After that, I knew I wasn't dealing with the government anymore. | realized that whoever I was dealing with was extraterrestrial, so I became very scared.

| received no further instructions from them after that, so I began applying for jobs again. Even though I had done exactly as I was told, they still followed me everywhere | went. As time went on, they started harassing me day and night. I began to hear voices more often and | began to hallucinate things that I knew weren't real. They also started playing with me sexually. Both the males and the females would play out their sexual fantasies in my mind. This came with random and uncontrollable erections as well as extreme anal stimulation. (See Brain &

Behavior & Martian Tech)

The harassment continued for weeks and intensified as time went on. I did my absolute best to maintain my sanity and tried to avoid them. This worked for a while, but eventually I had a huge meltdown. One day, I was in the bakery at Safeway when I got surrounded by a bunch of old men. Some of them looked at me and sniffed, so I knew it was them. They started stimulating my penis and anus simultaneously, then they spoke aggressively. They said:

“Humans are nothing more than the result of a successful genetic experiment.”

“You are a threat to the way these people think and you can no longer be free in society.”

“Your life is over”

"You are nothing but a toy. Your purpose now is to suck (their penis)."

They continued to say other explicit things that were so obscene I won't repeat them here. Before they finished talking, I became enraged. It took every ounce of willpower I had not to kill them. I left the store and tried to calm down but it only got worse. The rest of the night they continually stimulated my penis and I couldn't stop ejaculating. It got to the point where I was in serious pain. They finally stopped after I broke down and became completely distraught. I knew I couldn't take any more, so | attempted suicide. I filled a charcoal grill with lit coals, put it in my car and rolled up the windows. | reclined my seat, laid there calmly, then fell asleep. I should have died but they woke me up in an extreme panic, which caused me to get out of the car.

As I slowly regained consciousness, I felt very upset to still be alive. I had no clue where to go at that point, so I decided to check myself into the VA. They shipped me straight to the mental ward and | was admitted. Nothing improved while I was there. The medication they gave me did absolutely nothing. I just sat there surrounded by a bunch of psychotic people and became exasperated. I knew their goal was to ruin my life by making me into a crazy person. I became determined not to let that happen and I started fighting back.

After leaving the VA, everything I tried to do with my life was sabotaged. They didn't want me dead, but they also weren't going to let me live. In desperation, I went back to The Altar to ask them what they wanted from me. I didn't know what else to do...

(Before | tell you their reply, I need to make an important caveat here. | had endured so much abuse by this time that I was numb to them. The details of what they've done to me aren't essential to the story, so I won't include them here. If you want to know more about what I've been through, or more about them, write me. Just realize I've been tortured more than a POW.)

Their response was: "We want you as our sex slave." Thinking they were serious, I sat there waiting for them to do something. All they did was say: "Keep coming to church", so I did. After a few more services, | found myself talking to Tim Remington face to face. He was telling me that I should consider becoming a minister. We were in mid conversation when he suddenly revealed himself to me. | have no clue how he did it, but it looked as if his human face became his real face. It happened for only 1-2 seconds, but I was able to draw a sketch of what I saw. His eyes really stood out so they captured my attention. They were huge and bulging, the eyelids were darker green, and the irises were yellow/brown with slit pupils. After witnessing this, nothing else happened. I continued attending The Altar for a few more services waiting for them to do something. They did nothing except for tell me to "submit" and "surrender". I had no clue what they meant, so I left the church and never went back.

AUG 2015 - PRESENT TIME - CDA, ID

After leaving The Altar, they gave me some breathing room. They held back on their harassment and I began to recover. I decided to make one final attempt at a normal life by pursuing a career as a pharmacist. | started taking classes at NIC to finish up the pre-req's I needed. I also started volunteering at a local pharmacy. Unfortunately, they followed me to school. There were several of them in every class I took. They made it impossible for me to study, and they continually harassed me especially while I took tests. Even with all of this going on, I still somehow managed to get an A- in A&P during the fall semester.

Sadly, my success was short lived. The pressure this semester (Spring 2016) is FAR too intense. Every time I go to class, they start manipulating my brain until I go into a blind rage. Sometimes they suppress my brain until I begin to blackout. They also manipulate my heart rate and flood my body with adrenaline over and over again making me extremely uncomfortable. The females stimulate my penis when they are close, and the males stimulate my anus. It's incredibly exhausting.

I struggled to pass my tests so they couldn't blame this on me failing out of school. I want to continue, but I simply cannot. Every moment | spend in the classroom is absolute torture. The classes themselves are extremely difficult without all this added pressure. The worst part is I received an interview for ISU's pharmacy program (see personal documents). Since I cannot continue with the classes, there is no reason to go to the interview. My chance at a normal life has been ruined. They've also been depriving me of sleep, so I don't have the strength to continue.

I] was too smart for my own good, so they decided to remove me from society.

They were worried I might change the way other people think, which could lead to problems. Problems in the form of scientific revolutions. If we get much smarter as a species, we are going to become a threat to their existence.

If you talk to me in person, you will see that I'm not crazy at all. The Martians are just so good at hiding in plain sight that no one would know they exist unless they revealed themselves. They are able to fool us so well that what I'm saying sounds impossible. However, they are 100% real. Realize their technology is millions of years more advanced than ours. Think about that for a second. Think about the advancement we have made in the last 100 years. Once you've done that, try to imagine what millions of years of technology would look like.

The President is well aware of them, which is why I wrote him a personal letter. I hope he does something about it. I have done nothing wrong to deserve what's happened to me. I tried literally everything to find a job, and they sabotaged me at every corner. Initially, I thought the right thing to do was kill myself. After attempting suicide twice, it became clear they weren't going to let me die easy.

My last resort was to take actions to bring this to the public's attention. I hope something good comes of it. Just realize that I'm a good person, and I'm completely innocent. Also realize that the 'people' I killed are not what you think.

(Read Martian Technology to understand)

To make it very clear, Tim & John were NOT wild human beings.

Wild Humans = normal people like you and I.
Tim and John = minds were controlled from birth by Martians.

It's hard to imagine I know. Nonetheless, it's all true. Why would I give up a career as a pharmacist to do this?

I left out many details from my story. I] wanted to write only the most critical events in order to make it coherent. If you want to know more, like how I discovered there are multiple species of them, feel free to write me.

Why would aliens hide in a church?
Same reason terrorists hide in Mosques. If you're doing very bad things and you want to avoid getting caught, you will put up a front to make yourself look like a good person.

How do you know about their technology?
I have seen them use it, and they have talked to me about it. This was how | learned about their breeding stock of remote control humans. Physically, their humans are no different than us, they just lack a mind of their own.

Why would they tell you so much?
They value me because I'm smart. They were also very confident they could take control of my mind. Turns out they couldn't. Anyway, in the interim, some of us developed a personal relationship. They are very arrogant, so they told me much more than they should have. This allowed me to understand some of the things they can do.

What else have you seen?

| have seen them make things appear out of nowhere. One time I was sitting on a couch and a dollar bill appeared on my lap. Another time while driving, they made a paper bag appear in my passenger seat. They used random unsuspecting items so no one would think anything of it. I was alone both times this happened.

l'm pretty sure they can pop in and out of this dimension based on other things l've seen. I'm also pretty sure they can overlap our reality with an alternate dimension. I say this because I have gone into stores (where I know the employees) and suddenly there are all new employees who I've never seen before.

Some of the other things l've seen are so strange I literally cannot describe them. This all makes sense though. Their technology is millions of years ahead of ours, so it should be incomprehensible to us.

Why did they target you?

They started following me after I encountered the being through meditation. Since my mind was so expanded from the experience, they deemed me a threat to the rest of society. They thought I would change the way people think, so they decided to remove me from society.

I began to have profound thoughts about Genetics while I was at graduate school, which is another factor. If certain ways of thinking are allowed to exist, revolutions will take place. They could not afford for us to have a revolution in Genetics. If we did, we could eliminate diseases, cancers, and many other things that plague us. They need us to remain ignorant and continue struggling, otherwise we will become a threat to them.

(This will not make sense unless you are the President or one of his close friends. If this doesn't pertain to you, please ignore it)

Mr. President,

e | want to thank you for your sacrifice to this country.

e It’s very upsetting to hear you talk about the things they do to you. Why do you let them?

e | suppose you have no other choice.

e I've been struggling with them myself for over a year now.

e |had nothing to lose, so | chose this instead. | could never tolerate that much abuse.

e |hope you don't take any of their threats too seriously. Everything is a game to them.

e Realize they consider the entire human race a plaything, including you.

e They brag to me about what they do to you.....

e |'m sure you already know, but he doesn't love you. Their brains don't even work that way.

e l|don't know you personally, but they've shown me a lot about you. You're an amazing person.
e | hope you stop letting them humiliate you. Why be afraid to retaliate? Kennedy wasn't.

e It's time someone took a stand to end this nonsense. Can you think of a better legacy than that?
e What's worse: Having everyone know the reality of the situation, or watching some of our best and brightest become slaves?

| wish you the very best with the remainder of your presidency.
If you're still in there, stay strong!

others from Israel.

Too many to list.

This is by no means an all-inclusive list. Martians are ubiquitous. They exist at every level of society in every nation. Some have blue collar jobs, while others occupy positions of power. They control our government, our military, and Corporate America as well. They keep track of every 'wild' human on the planet and manage us like animals in a zoo. Our 'freedom' is a carefully crafted illusion.

Early Civilization & The Bible

Genetic evidence has shown that modern humans originated in Africa 200,000 years ago. Before civilization, we lived in tribes of hunter-gatherer's. The hunter-gatherer lifestyle dominated for tens of thousands of years. As our ancestors began to master their environment, they migrated out of Africa. They spread out into Europe and Asia, then began settling near bodies of water. Eventually, we discovered agriculture, which led to the formation of the first civilizations.

Around 3800 BC, there was an ancient Mesopotamian city called Ur. Ur was one of the most important city-states of the time period. It was located near the mouth of the Euphrates on the Persian Gulf. It was the southern-most Mesopotamian city, which left it exposed. This location on the outskirts of the ancient world made Ur an ideal place for Martians to visit. At least two species of Martians visited Ur, which was documented by its inhabitants. (I was contacted by both of these species as well) The two species are:

1) Amphibian-humanoids

2) Reptilian-humanoids

The humans living in Ur created figurines to document what they had seen. If you search for Mesopotamia, or Ur, you will find the sculptures these people made. Some of them depict amphibian-humanoids, others depict reptilian-humanoids. They also made many figurines of people with gigantic eyes. I'm not sure what the people with gigantic eyes are.

e I didn't have time to finish this document.
e The bible was inspired by Martians, not God. There is no god.

e They created religion to keep mankind divided.

God was a concept created by the Martians to control the minds of primitive man.

Read The God Delusion by Richard Dawkins if you need convincing.

Also check: www.godisimaginary.com

Jesus was a megalomaniacal fraud, a liar, and a jerk. He was no savior, and he certainly wasn't unique. During Jesus' time, many other people emerged claiming to be the savior of all mankind. The Martians saw this as a problem for their Jewish traditions, so they decided to use Jesus to their advantage. If they sacrificed Jesus as 'the messiah', then people would stop proclaiming themselves to be a savior. Voila, problem solved.

The only good thing religion ever brought us was traditions. Traditions bring us together as families, as friends, and as a species.

One more thing: God existing as a ‘trinity’ comes from the Martians. Write me if you want to know more.

Our Plight

I didn't have time to finish this.

"We are going to have peace even if we have to fight for it."
-Dwight D Eisenhower

"Peace is a daily, a weekly, a monthly process, gradually changing opinions, slowly eroding old barriers, quietly building new structures."

-John F Kennedy

Every president finds out that Martians are real. President Eisenhower warned us about them. President Kennedy stood up against them.

They're the reason we have so many languages and so many nations. They constantly pit nations against each other, which makes a lot of sense. If we are constantly at war with each other, we'll never make progress as a species. This is how they maintain complete and absolute control.

Have you ever wondered why a war zone is also known as "A Theatre"? It'S because war is entertainment! That's why.

Entertainment for whom? The Martians! They enjoy watching conflict, they enjoy watching us suffer, and they enjoy watching death. It's one of their most basic needs. When you know about their brain, this makes perfect sense.

They try to keep us in a constant state of fear by filling the news with horror stories. This is another one of their most basic control mechanisms.

They constantly stir up controversy to keep us divided: Black lives matter, violence against police, Islam vs. Christianity, immigrants taking our jobs, Zika, etc. (Yes, they can create viruses)

Some of the top officials in our government/military are their pawns. The Martian's rape them (sexually) and force them to do whatever else they want. Ask President Obama if you don't believe me.

To Martians, humans are nothing more than a plaything.

You might be wondering: Why do they do this to us? It's because we rejected them. Many times. In ancient Mesopotamia, they tried to live among us. It never worked out no matter how many times they tried. This caused them to develop extreme animosity towards us. Consequently, they have a vendetta against every wild human.

The actual Martians themselves have zero self-esteem. This is why they live vicariously as humans.

They can also take control of ‘wild’ human minds. I have seen them do this to multiple people, and they’ve done it to me as well. The only time they’re able to take contro] of my mind is when they wake me up in the middle of the night. They make me say extremely strange things and flail my body parts around like a puppet.

They tried to take complete control of my mind on multiple occasions while I was at school. They were never able to. This angered them severely, which is why they caused me to drop out of school. I have no options left. They have no intention of letting me live a life.

Martian Brain & Behavior

I've observed their behavior for almost a year now. Consequently, I've been able to make several deductions about them. The first deduction is based on their primary characteristics, which include:

1. They are hypersexual
2. They are hyperaggressive
3. They are fearful and paranoid

In the human brain, the amygdala is responsible for all of these characteristics. Therefore, Martian's must have an analogous structure, and it must be greatly enlarged. The morphology of their brain is also markedly different than ours. I know this because I've seen what the amphibian-humanoids look like.

The males are extremely aggressive. In their society there is only one thing, and that is power. Whoever is the smartest, biggest, and strongest wins. One time, I was talking to a young male who kept trying to intimidate/scare me. He saw that I was still confident in myself and immediately became discouraged. He stopped what he was doing and said "you think you're better than me", then hung his head and walked away. I told him that wasn't true but he wouldn't listen. After this, every time I encountered one of the males in public they would attack me (mentally) until they destroyed my self-esteem. They did this because they are scared to death of my intelligence. The only way they have the confidence to talk with me is if I'm scared for my life or completely despondent.

To the males, everything is black or white. There is no middle ground. They are power hungry megalomaniacs obsessed with control. If they are not 10096 in control of every situation, they panic. If something happens they aren't anticipating, they get very upset. They hate surprises. I know this because I was smart enough to trick them a few times.

To recap, the males are:
1) Megalomaniacal
2) Obsessed with sex
3) Extremely aggressive
4) Fearful and paranoid
5) Power hungry
6) Obsessed with control

Sound familiar? Who else do you know that has these characteristics? If you answered: God from the bible, you are correct. Martians are responsible for the God myth. Martians may have created humans, as they claimed, but they are certainly not Gods themselves. They are just another intelligent species that evolved on a neighboring planet. There is no God. There is no heaven. There is no hell. Earth is as close to heaven as we'll ever get, and we are letting the Martians ruin it. They are going to destroy Earth just like they destroyed Mars if we let them. Our survival rests in their hands for the time being.

Origins — Part 1

In order to talk about life on Mars, first we need to discuss where the solar system came from. Before our sun or any of the planets existed, our solar system was part of a giant molecular cloud. The birth of our solar system began when a gravitational disturbance occurred inside this cloud. As gravity took over, the mass of the molecular cloud began collapsing on itself, which led to the formation of our sun. As the sun formed, a huge mass of dust began collapsing around it, which flattened out into a protoplanetary disk. The material of the protoplanetary disk then began to accrete and coalesce. This process gradually led to the formation of the planets, moons, asteroids, and comets in our solar system.

During this time, the solar system was an incredibly hot place. The surface of the rocky planets (earth & mars) was molten. The early solar system was also swarming with comets and asteroids, which constantly bombarded the planets and their moons. The timescales of these events were massive, occurring over billions of years. In order to understand Origins - Part 2, you have to understand the fundamentals of cosmology.

Unless you have a firm grasp on cosmology, I highly recommend using the links above to broaden your understanding before continuing.

Origins — Part 2

Once you feel comfortable with the basics of cosmology, let's continue from where we left off. You'll recall that Earth and Mars were molten and being bombarded by asteroids. Earth and Mars developed from the same material, and they are positioned next to each other, so it shouldn't surprise you that their composition is similar. Both have iron cores and both have volcanoes. Because of this, it follows that mars developed an early atmosphere very similar to earths.

An atmosphere is one of the key requirements for biological life to exist. The other key ingredient is liquid water. As Mars began to cool down, it started to develop an atmosphere. Since Mars is further from the sun, its surface cooled much faster than Earths. Eventually, Mars cooled down enough that liquid water could accumulate on its surface. Once this happened, biological life began evolving on Mars. (This likely occurred before the Earth even had liquid water).

Before we talk about life evolving on Mars, it's important to understand the concept of convergent evolution. One of the best examples of convergent evolution comes from mammals. Mammals in Australia evolved into marsupials whereas mammals in North America evolved into placentals. This is an example of how two isolated populations can evolve similar traits even though they exist in completely different environments. With this in mind, let's talk about evolution on Mars.

Reptiles and amphibians evolved here on Earth, so convergent evolution tells us they should have first evolved on Mars. For whatever reason, the reptiles and amphibians of Mars developed intelligence while Earth's did not. By the time Dinosaurs evolved on Earth, the Martians were already a technologically advanced civilization. They were so advanced they survived their own planets demise and colonized the Earth. They also converted the moon into a home, and I'm fairly certain they caused the mass extinction of the dinosaurs. How else do you colonize a planet that is covered with giant monsters who want to eat you? Anyway, there is loads of evidence to back this up. Look into it. Look into the orbit of the moon, and the fact that it does not rotate at all. Look into the fact that the moon is hollow. Look into the fact that there are underground bases in mountains and under the oceans. They don't belong to us; they are inhabited by Martians. The truth is out there; it's just submerged in a sea of disinformation!

Martian Technology

"If you wish to understand the universe, think in terms of energy, frequency, and vibration."

-Nikola Tesla

Nikola Tesla was one of the most brilliant men of all time. He laid the foundations for modern society by inventing alternating current. If it weren't for his inventions, we would not have any of the luxuries we now take for granted. Tesla was lightyears ahead of his time in terms of his thinking. Not only did he create AC power, he also invented radio, discovered electrogravitics, and stumbled upon the waves Martians use to communicate. Sadly, many of his discoveries are forbidden knowledge so they have been hidden. The species who run this planet cannot allow us to have the same technology they do. If we did, we would become a threat to their existence. This is why Tesla's work was seized by 'FBI agents' immediately after his death. No one knows what happened to it. Fortunately, Tesla spoke enough about what he discovered that we can still gain a glimpse of what he knew... As Tesla said, the key to everything is energy, frequency, and vibration.

If you know anything about physics or chemistry, then you know that everything is composed of atoms. Atoms are composed of smaller particles called protons, neutrons, and electrons. The protons, neutrons, and electrons themselves are composed of even smaller particles, and so on. The smaller you get, the stranger things become. Ultimately, matter and everything in the universe can be thought of in terms of energy, frequency, and vibration. The computer you're reading this on, the chair you're sitting in, even you. Everything can be viewed in terms of waves & energy. Keep this fact in mind as you read the rest of this article.

The waves Martians use to communicate are something Tesla called 'non-hertzian waves'. These waves are also known as 'longitudinal waves' or 'transverse waves'. According to Tesla, non-hertzian waves are much more efficient and reliable than hertzian waves (aka electromagnetic waves). They are capable of traveling vast distances with essentially no signal attenuation. Every other type of wave, radio for example, loses signal strength the further they travel from the source. You already know this from experience if you've ever traveled long distance in a car. Once you reach a certain distance, you can no longer listen to your local stations. With this distinction out of the way, let's continue by discussing how Tesla discovered Martian communication signals.

In 1899, Tesla moved to the Waldorf Astoria hotel in Colorado Springs. He built a receiver and transmitter that could send and receive ‘non-hertzian waves’. He installed this equipment on the roof of the hotel and began receiving signals of an unknown origin. He claimed to be talking with Martians, but no one took him seriously. It couldn’t make more sense though. If non-hertzian waves are superior, then it’s obvious the Martians would be using them. As Tesla continued with his research, he began to understand the sheer power of wave technology. The following quote demonstrates this:

“He could alter the size of this planet, control its seasons, guide it along any path he might choose through the depths of the Universe. He could make planets collide and produce his suns and stars, his heat and light. He could originate and develop life in all its infinite forms.”

-Nikola Tesla from Man’s Greatest Achievement

It’s kind of scary to think about controlling planetary bodies with wave technology. Imagine the devastation that could be caused if it were used for destructive purposes. Say for example, colonizing a planet. Imagine back to the days of the dinosaurs. The Martians wanted to colonize our planet but the dinosaurs were in the way. Martians have the technology to harness planetary bodies, so imagine them sending a massive asteroid on a collision course with Earth... Voila. Dinosaurs are dead, colonization can commence.

BIOLOGICAL SPECIES AND ELECTRICITY

Everything in our bodies runs on electrical impulses. Our brains operate over a wide range of electrical frequencies shown here. Everything we experience in life is simply the result of electrical activity. To be more precise, everything we experience is the sequence of a series of action potentials occurring in the central nervous system. Think about that for a second. Every thought, every perception, and every action are all governed by electrical impulses. I won't try to expand on this here, but it's incredibly important to understand the nervous system and how it works. If you care to learn about the nervous system from a video, I highly recommend checking out crash course on YouTube:

https:/ /www.voutube.com /watch?vza8NtmDrb ao

If our perception occurs due to electrical impulses, it follows that it can be manipulated with the right technology. This is why Martian's are able to directly alter our perception. They have the technology. They can trick our brain into: visual and auditory hallucinations, smelling, tasting, heart rate fluctuations, erections, and every other CNS event. This provides a full explanation of how they manipulated my penis as described in My Story. Read about the science behind an erection here if you're not convinced yet.

So as you can see, Tesla was right. Energy, frequency, and vibration allow us to control the world around us. The Martian's have known this for eons, and they use it against us. As I said before, they own a massive stock of humans, which they breed and control from birth. Since they have the technology to control a central nervous system, they can operate their 'humans' like remote control toys.

Unfortunately for us *wild' humans, they can control us too.

Dear Kyle,

Congratulations, you have been selected for a personal interview to be considered for acceptance into the Doctor of Pharmacy program at Idaho State University. This final phase of our selection process is mandatory in order to be considered further for admission. The invcrview aates are;

Pocatello, Idaho - February 26, March 4, 10 and 11
Meridian, Idaho — February 26, March 4, 10 and 11

You may choose to interview in either Pocatello or Meridian, Idaho, depending on availability.
Please note, the date or location selected for your interview does not influence your application status or your final site location placement.

Call (208) 282-3475 or email Emily Edwards at Emily@pharmacy.isu.edu to schedule your interview day in Pocatello or Meridian, Idaho. You are responsible for all expenses incurred as a result of the interview process (travel, meals, lodging, etc.).

Plan to be at your interview location at 8:30AM and depart early afternoon, approximately 3:00PM. The entering class is not selected until after the final interview day. Once the entering class is identified, we will then seek to place students at their preferred site.

During the interviews, you may be asked to discuss your perceptions of a career in pharmacy, motivation, future career goals, and academic personal strengths and weaknesses. There will also be ethical dilemmas and critical thinking scenarios presented in a brief interview format.
The interviews are important — dress appropriately, in a nrofessional manner, and come prepared.

If you are accepted into the Doctor of Pharmacy program, you will be required to submit a nonrefundable seat-hold fee. The fee will be credited toward your fall 2016 program fees and tuition. The fee is $500 for Idaho residents and $1,500 for non-Idaho residents. Site preferences will be assigned based on the order that seat-hold fees are received.

We look forward to meeting you during your visit to the ISU College of Pharmacy.

What Happens When You Die #flushyourmeds ... ;

by Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry â€¦ ;

Scott Alan Barry is an Atheist Holocaust Denier â€¦ ;

What happens when you die? Iâ€™m gonna keep it short and simple and to the point. When humans die they become telepathic ghosts. As soon as humans die they become telepathic ghosts.

After that they become various other telepathic beings.

As soon as humans die they become telepathic ghosts.

As soon as humans die they become psychic ghosts.

When humans die they become telepathic ghosts.

Nothing New. Nothing Special. To the point.

Religion is a Mind Control Cult started by The Martians, God is not real, Got is imaginary, and when you die you are a telepathic ghost.

When humans die they become telepathic ghosts.

That is all I have. God is not real, Satan is not real.

Heaven and Hell are not real, Angels and Demons are not real. That is what happens, you leave your body as a human and you become a Telepathic Ghost.

This is a Recording of a Quack Fraud Pseudoscience Scam Psychiatrist who thinks he is a Real Doctor and not a Quack who literally does nothing for people :
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Welcome.
Me (Scott Barry) : Misdirection.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So Welcome we're here in our first couple weeks here.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Okay so now it looks like we'll be here for the next coming few years. They're gonna fix up the enterance at the end of this hallway here.
It will be easier to get in. Rather than having to call and be escorted and all of that stuff. They're saying that should happen in the next year or so.
Me (Scott Barry) : Okay.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. Just to make it more convenient for you.
So you and I last spoke before Chistmas, How did the Holiday go for you?
Me (Scott Barry) : It's hard to remember, a lot has happened.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. Is that so. Okay. Yeah.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah we had like a stanger at our door, it was a lost missing teenager, he was in our house, we had to monitor him and make sure he wouldn't steal anything, and then the cops finally picked him up, cause he was like yeah,
So a lot has happened.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So what was he just wondering or what was he doing?
Me (Scott Barry) : NO, His friends were probably doing drugs or up to no good, and he said his parents were 20 miles away, so we, we thought he was high on something, we just took him to the cops and the cops took care of it.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Whell, that was nice of you to take him in at all.
Folks would just say, keep moving down the road.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, we don't know the situation, we don't know if he is lying we don't know anything.

Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So did that happen around Christmas Time?
Me (Scott Barry) : Whell, just recently actually, there's a lot things that can just uh, then they asked if so and so was here, but it was actually the neighbors, and then we had another thing delivered to our house about child support, and it was actually the neighbors address, so we delivered it to their address.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah, so you need a Nice Real Big House Number, by the street for your house.
Me (Scott Barry) : {Laugh} , I Guess.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : We also get wrong mail.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, it does happen.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Somebody actually come up to your door, and you're letting him into the house.
Me (Scott Barry) : That's risky, because you gotta look after him, make sure he doesn't steal anything.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Whos decision was that? Your mother or your father?
Me (Scott Barry) : My mother accidently did that, My dad was saying NO, I don't trust him, because he could steal your wallet our your purse or something.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Whell, I don't let people in anymore.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : When you and I were younger, Salesmen would actually come in the door, but not anymore.
Me (Scott Barry) : It is more Dangerous Now.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So, eh, uh, of course before COVID-19 floks would come up from the different churches, different kinds of things would come, WOW, that is pretty good.
So live and learn. So I bet you she'll do it different next time.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, she knows better not to risk it.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : She probably had a tight stomache herself over that.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Is Christmas or New Years necessarily a big deal at your house?
Me (Scott Barry) : We used to kind of have Christmas Trees and the usual things, commercialism, you know, the thing.

Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. And that's changed as you've.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah. Yeah.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : You're the youngest one in the house right?
Me (Scott Barry) : My brother is 18 Months older than me. So we're about the same age.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. So they're definately not gonna treat like a little kids thing anymore.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Do you necessarily stay up late on New Years Eve?
Me (Scott Barry) : I have different hours, so I might just go to bed early, I don't Know.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Is it different hours from night to night?
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Different Hours from the General Public, is that what you mean?
Me (Scott Barry) : Depends on what I am doing as an occupation. If I have to do a Job Tommorow
I have to go to bed early right.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : When you're saying Job you say you're working for your father?
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, I calibrate/repair like Audiometers/Tympanometers, yeah, uh same thing.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So. Um. Let's see. We are uh. Wanting to understand what kind of Medications you are taking, So I think you're taking Depakote, in the moring.
Me (Scott Barry) : YES.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : That would probably be Four of the Five Hundred Miligrams. On the other hand the Olanzapine (Zyprexa), that is at bed time.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah. The Zyprex is the Low Dose.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : About Five Miligrams of Zyprexa.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yes, that is correct.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : It is a low dose.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Since I saw you, have you been taking the Lorazepam or Ativan?
Me (Scott Barry) : Um. I felt I did not need it. I just stick to supplements, something else I'll just take like, um Lemongrass. Or some other Supplement. Whell Lemongrass is only Ten Dollars on Amazon.

It is like a Cheap Herbal Supplement.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So. How do you use it? Is it in a Capsule or?
Me (Scott Barry) : It is just a Capusle. It is real easy, you just take one. Some people will risk Cayan Pepper and other things.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yes.
Me (Scott Barry) : Those are a little bit riskier. But. You Know.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. I have eaten both of them, of course I have had Lemongrass Tea before, and Cayan most certainly.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, It will Burn.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah, it get's my attention, most certainly.
Me (Scott Barry) : It is like Coffee.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : That would be a good way to think of it.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So is there a tangible sense of relaxation with Lemongrass?
Me (Scott Barry) : It just has citrus and citrus is supposed to be an Anti Cancer thing.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : I can believe it can be helpful. Nothing is Free. That is for sure.
Me (Scott Barry) : Big Pharma is expensive. You are spending thousands of dollars on. Plus insurance is the only thing that makes it tangible.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : We are coming up on a time where it would be good for you to get blood drawn again.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, that that's, uh.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : That is why I printed out your lab slips here. Where do you go when you get your blood drawn?
Me (Scott Barry) : Um. The Lab Corp over near the FedEx. Whell, there's like a dead end turn and it is the Hawk's Prarie Branch. It's next to Mayan Mexican Resturaunt. Which is closed. Hawk's Prairie Branch DUH DUH ... ;
Der Der Der Hawk's Prairie Branch and you cannot miss it. I don't know all of them.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : By no means do you know all of them. If you take that paperwork with you they are gonna take your Depakote levels, they will check your Metabolic Panel, Liver/Kidney Funcion.

Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah. I just got to tell them when I took the meds and all of that.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. So don't take your medication until after you get your blood drawn by low end Liberal Communist Retard Incompetent Labcorp which is One Star on the BBB Website and see for yourself.
Me (Scott Barry) : So that is what I tell them. Always.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : This is one of those they will want you to go in without eating (fast lab).
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah. Fasting Lab. Okay.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Good. Good.
Me (Scott Barry) : I can do this any Time of the Month.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. Yeah. At your Conveninece. Just some moring when you have time and inclination to do it. To get over there, does either your mom or dad drive?
Me (Scott Barry) : My Dad can sometimes drive when he has Lab. I can go with my Dad.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah. That would be great.
Me (Scott Barry) : I have done that sometimes and sometimes I go with my Mom. It depends.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Yeah, that would be the best thing if your Dad is going anyways.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So you are working some. Do you actually get paid for what you do? Does he cut you a check or what?
Me (Scott Barry) : Whell. I do other things for money, but it is not even much. My Ten Ninety Nine only says Thirty Dollars.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Whell that was one thing I was worried about, so filing taxes.
Me (Scott Barry) : Whell. I never really had to owe any taxes, because I do not make that much.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So um. Your income. You do not want too much, because that will mess up your benefits.
Me (Scott Barry) : Whell. I've got Social Security.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : But you have got some room to move though.
Me (Scott Barry) : You have to be really frugal with it I guess.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So Uh So that is. That is crazy that you do. You do get a Ten Ninety Nine?
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah, it just has like Thirty Dollars or so. From Lulu Publishing or some other Publisher.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Cool.

Me (Scott Barry) : It is so easy to just embed the fonts of a PDF and publish it. Um Uh we had one of our family members Caycey, he um, plagiarized John Travolta. Sold that in Books. Really dumb idea, but.
But he did that.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Uh Huh. Uh.
Me (Scott Barry) : So anybody can publish a book through a self publisher.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Oh. It is just amazing. But you know you do not get paid unless people buy it.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So Uh, Good for you. Yeah I know that you are creative and that you do a lot of stuff.
Me (Scott Barry) : I have a lot of Manuscripts and I have a Website. Top level Domain. Um. I am using Domain Dot Com for my Website. Registrar. For my Domain Name Registrar so.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Rather than um. Godaddy.
Me (Scott Barry) : I used to use Google Domains now I use Domain Dot Com.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : You like them better?
Me (Scott Barry) : You can bill yearly instead of monthly essentially.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Are you getting along with other folks in your home?
Me (Scott Barry) : I think I am able to get along as long as, what I sometimes to is I Stay in my own lane.
Or I do something else or I try to. That is one of my coping strategies.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : I like that one a lot. Yeah.
Me (Scott Barry) : Um. I have to realize that not everybody is always there. Some people they just might say something. When they do not actually mean it. You know what I mean.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : In terms of Personaling or hurting your feelings. I have good words to live by very much. I do like the "Stay in your own lane" statement. Some times people just gotta be you do you got your opinions and what you are gonna do and I will just think the way I want to think.
So we want to get the blood work done and you filled up on medicaions. So I see that you are using the Safeway on Martin and Marvin.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah. Uh. It is the same Safeway as last time.

Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : And. I just put in refills on Both The Depakote and The Zyprexa. On like last Friday, I came in on and put in like a Years worth of refills. So if you go there and they say you do not have any refills left, you got brand new perscriptions on both of those. So I just did that on Friday. So your bottle might say Zero Refills on it. So if you look it up you might find a new number and tell them Dr Stephen Lykins put in a new perscription refill on it. And then the plan is. That you and I will speak again on June Thirteenth. Um. Yeah June Thirteenth at 12:30 so in the Afternoon.
Me (Scott Barry) : Yeah.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : So what will happen here is the ladies will walk you back out. They will have to buzz you through a security door that any Retard with Flipper Zero can bypass and HACK. They can give you a card with that appointment date on it. So some time between now and then go in and get your Depakote levels drawn. Then I will see you in June.
Me (Scott Barry) : Okay.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Is that alright with you?
Me (Scott Barry) : YES.
Psychiatrist (Stephen Lykins) : Okay Super. Sayonara, Cock Slinging Dong Shitface. Fuck. I hate this guy.

Transcript of Dr Lawrence Dunegan's taped reminiscences of off-the-record remarks by Illuminati Insider, Dr Richard Day, 20 March 1969

The Overlords of Chaos website contains a wealth of first class information and analysis about the coming New World Order and the psychopaths behind it.

Note: Some minor cosmetic changes have been made by ZEPHANIAH.EU to improve the flow of these transcripts and make them easier to digest.

This paper is a transcript of three tapes of reminiscences made by Dr Lawrence Dunegan, of a speech given on March 20, 1969 by Dr Richard Day, an Illuminati insider. The tapes were recorded by Randy Engel, National Director of the US Coalition for Life, in 1988.

Dr Dunegan claims he attended a medical meeting on March 20, 1969 where Dr Richard Day made "off the record" remarks during an addressed at the Pittsburgh Pediatric Society to a meeting of students and health professionals, who were destined to be leaders in medicine and health care. Dr Day died in 1989 but at the time was Professor of Paediatrics at Mount Sinai Medical School in New York and was previously the Medical Director of Planned Parenthood Federation of America.

In Tape Three, a interview by Randy Engel, Dr Dunegan details Dr Day's credentials. These cleasrly show that Dr Day was an establishment insider privy to the overarching plan of the Elite Group which rules the Western world and which is working toward the creation of a World Dictatorship. This proposed global tyranny is usually called the New World Order and will comprise a secular and a spiritual component – a One World Government and a One World Religion. Most analysts of this plan describe it as Lucifer's Totalitarian World Empire.

Before he began his talk, Dr Day asked everyone to turn off all tape recorders and stop taking notes so that he could tell them, the prospective leaders of organised medicine, what was going to happen in the future. Dr Dunegan sensed that Dr Day's message would be important, ignored the request and noted the points made by him on a set of table napkins. He later wrote up these notes, which formed the basis for the three tapes.

The notes taken by Dunegan reveal, not just what is planned for the entire population of the planet, but how this evil cabal intend to carry out their plan. Anyone who has studied the plan will recognise that Dr Day's remarks are essentially a reiteration of the secret agenda being followed by the Global Elite. This agenda includes the elimination of swathes of humanity by promoting ill health and spurious medical treatments, while at the same time suppressing effective treatments for disease and deliberately introducing man-made pathogens such as AIDS into the human gene pool.

Throughout his talk Dr Day justified his observations by using a philosophy founded upon a spurious theory made famous by the English natural scientist, Charles Darwin (1809-82), namely evolution by "natural selection." This is pithily described by an ardent supporter, the English philosopher and sociologist Herbert Spencer (1820-1903), as the "survival of the fittest." Spencer also applied Darwin's hypothesis to human societies. Thus, while Darwin restricted his formula of organic evolution (wherein new species arise and are perpetuated by "natural selection") to the animal kingdom, others followed Spencer and extended "natural selection" to human society as well. Spencer's theory, often called Social Darwinism (whereby human society mimics the jungle and only those best able to cope with the many testing circumstances survive and perpetuate their characteristics into future generations) is the scientific basis of Eugenics. This dangerous 'science' envisages an ever-increasing separation between an elite racial group and degenerate human stock – namely the masses of humanity.

The German philosopher Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche (1844-1900), best remembered for his concept of the "superman" and for his rejection of Christian values, was one of the philosophical giants of this movement. Dr Day, an ardent atheist, was thus a spokesman for those who view human existence as merely an extension of the jungle and whose self-appointed task is to safeguard what advances have been made to date by humans, epitomised by Western Civilisation. This involves eliminating "weaknesses" and "degeneracy" from the human gene pool.

The aim in doing so is not only to preserve what advances humanity has made in this evolutionary process but to "help" it along. This pernicious philosophy is utterly inimical to the true, God-given purpose of Creation and the natural moral order founded by the will of God. And yet it is central to the dark philosophy of those who wish to bring about a New World Order (NWO). This also explains why Eugenics, incorporating global population reduction and genocide, is a major component in this plan. It is also the reason that proponents of the NWO hate Christianity and seek its destruction.

Although Dr Day spoke about organised medicine and its hidden agenda, specifically to cull the world's population, he was also privy to the wider goals of those who were conspiring to bring about a NWO. In his introductory remarks, he said he would not have been able to say what he was about to say even a few years earlier. However, he was now free to speak (in 1969) because what had formerly been a closely guarded 'Closed Conspiracy' was now more akin to an 'Open Conspiracy.'

Amongst the hitherto secret plans which Dr Day outlined was the revolution in morals that had shaken Western society to its foundations. This would usher in a new world religion – the 'One World Religion' of the NWO. This would actually be brought about by the churches themselves, especially the Roman Catholic Church. Moreover, he discussed "bringing the nation to the brink of nuclear war" and the cynical use of "terrorism" to bring about a One World Government.

Among the topics discussed by Dr Day were:
"Population control; permission to have babies; redirecting the purpose of sex – sex without reproduction and reproduction without sex; contraception universally available to all; sex education and carnalising of youth as a tool of world government; tax funded abortion as population control; encouraging homosexuality, including anything goes homosexuality; technology used for reproduction without sex; families to diminish in importance; euthanasia and the "demise pill"; limiting access to affordable medical care and thus making it easier to eliminate the elderly; medicine to be tightly controlled; the elimination of private doctors; new difficult-to-diagnose and untreatable diseases; the suppression of cancer cures to control and reduce the population; induced heart attacks as a form of assassination; education as a tool for accelerating the onset of puberty and evolution; the blending of all religions – the old religions will have to go; changing the Bible through the revision of key words; restructuring education as a tool of indoctrination; spending more time in schools, but pupils "wouldn't learn anything"; controlling who has access to information; schools as the hub of the community; "some books would just disappear from the libraries"; changing laws to promote moral and social chaos; the encouragement of drug abuse to create a jungle atmosphere in cities and towns; promote alcohol abuse; restrictions on travel; the need for more jails, and using hospitals as jails; no more psychological or physical security; crime used to manage society; curtailment of US industrial pre-eminence; shifting populations and economies to tear out social roots; sports to be used as a tool of social engineering and change; sex and violence to be inculcated through entertainment; travel restrictions and implanted ID cards; food control; weather control; using mass psychology to control know how people respond and behave; the falsification of scientific research; the use of terrorism and the creation of 'terrorist' threats; the use of surveillance devices, implants, and televisions to monitor people; home ownership to be a thing of the past; and, ultimately, the arrival of a totalitarian system of global control."

Tape One

Is there a Power, a Force or a Group of Men Organizing and Redirecting Change?

There has been much written, and much said, by some people who have looked at all the changes that have occurred in American society in the past 20 years or so, and who have looked retrospectively to earlier history of the United States, and indeed, of the world, and come to the conclusion that there is a conspiracy of sorts which influences, indeed controls, major historical events, not only in the United States, but around the world. This conspiratorial interpretation of history is based on people making observations from the outside, gathering evidence and coming to the conclusion that from the outside they see a conspiracy. Their evidence and conclusions are based on evidence gathered in retrospect. Period.

I now want to describe what I heard from a speaker in 1969, some 20 years ago. The speaker did not speak in terms of retrospect, but rather predicting changes that would be brought about in the future. The speaker was not looking from the outside in, thinking that he saw conspiracy. Rather, he was on the inside, admitting that, indeed, there was an organized power, force, group of men, who wielded enough influence to determine major events involving countries around the world. And he predicted, or rather expounded on, changes that were planned for the remainder of this century. As you listen, if you can recall the situation, at least in the United States in 1969 and the few years thereafter, and then recall the kinds of changes which have occurred between then and now, almost 20 years later, I believe you will be impressed with the degree to which the things that were planned to be brought about have already been accomplished. Some of the things that were discussed were not intended to be accomplished yet by 1988 but are intended to be accomplished before the end of this century. There is a timetable; and it was during this session that some of the elements of the timetable were brought out.

Anyone who recalls early in the days of the Kennedy Presidency...the Kennedy campaign...when he spoke of "progress in the decade of the '60s"; that was kind of a cliché in those days – "the decade of the '60s." Well, by 1969 our speaker was talking about the decade of the '70s, the decade of the '80s, and the decade of the '90s. So that...I think that [the] terminology that we are looking at...looking at things and expressing things, probably all comes from the same source. Prior to that time I don't remember anybody saying "the decade of the '40s and the decade of the '50s."

So I think this overall plan and timetable had taken important shape with more predictability to those who control it, sometime in the late '50s. That's speculation on my part. In any event, the speaker said that his purpose was to tell us about changes which would be brought about in the next 30 years or so...so that an entirely new world-wide system would be in operation before the turn of the century. As he put it: "We plan to enter the 21st century with a running start. Everything is in place and nobody can stop us now."

As we listened to what he was about to present, he said: "Some of you will think I'm talking about Communism. Well, what I'm talking about is much bigger than Communism!"

At that time he indicated that there is much more co-operation between East and West than most people realize. In his introductory remarks he commented that he was free to speak at this time because now, and I'm quoting here: "... everything is in place and nobody can stop us now." That's the end of that quotation.

He went on to say that most people don't understand how governments operate and even people in high positions in governments, including our own, don't really understand how and where decisions are made. He went on to say that people who really influence decisions are names that, for the most part, would be familiar to most of us, but he would not use individuals' names or names of any specific organization. But, that if he did, most of the people would be names that were recognized by most of his audience.

He went on to say that they were not primarily people in public office, but people of prominence who were primarily known in their private occupations or private positions. The speaker was a doctor of medicine, a former professor at a large Eastern university, and he was addressing a group of doctors of medicine, about 80 in number. His name would not be widely recognized by anybody likely to hear this, and so there is no point in giving his name. The only purpose in recording this is that it may give a perspective to those who hear it regarding the changes which have already been accomplished in the past 20 years or so, and a bit of a preview to what at least some people are planning for the remainder of this century so that we – or they – would enter the 21st century with a flying start. Some of us may not enter that century. His purpose in telling our group about these changes that were to be brought about was to make it easier for us to adapt to these changes. Indeed, as he quite accurately said, they would be and he hopes that we, as sort of his friends, would make the adaptation more easily if we knew somewhat beforehand what to expect.

Somewhere in the introductory remarks he insisted that nobody have a tape recorder and that nobody take notes, which for a professor was a very remarkable kind of thing to expect from an audience. Something in his remarks suggested that there could be negative repercussions against him if his... if it became widely known what he was about to say to... our group... if it became widely known that he spilled the beans, so to speak.

When I heard that, first I thought maybe that was sort of an ego trip, somebody enhancing his own importance. But as the revelations unfolded, I began to understand why he might have had some concern about not having it widely known what was said, although this was a fairly public forum where he was speaking, [where the] remarks were delivered. But, nonetheless, he asked that no notes be taken... no tape recording be used – suggesting there might be some personal danger to himself if these revelations were widely publicized.

Again, as the remarks began to unfold, and I saw the rather outrageous things that were said – at that time they certainly seemed outrageous – I made it a point to try to remember as much of what he said as I could, and during the subsequent weeks and months and years, to connect my recollections to simple events around me, both to aid my memory for the future in case I wanted to do what I'm doing now – record[ing] this. And also, to try to maintain a perspective on what would be developing, if indeed, it followed the predicted pattern – which it has!

At this point, so that I don't forget to include it later, I'll just include some statements that were made from time to time throughout the presentation... just having a general bearing on the whole presentation. One of the statements [had] to do with change. People get used...his statement was: "People will have to get used to the idea of change, so used to change, that they'll be expecting change. Nothing will be permanent."

This often came out in the context of a society where people seemed to have no roots or moorings, but would be passively willing to accept change simply because it was all they had ever known. This was sort of in contrast to generations of people up until this time where certain things you expected to be, and remain in place as reference points [throughout] your life. So change was to be brought about, change was to be anticipated and expected, and accepted, no questions asked. Another comment that was made from time to time during the presentation was: "People are too trusting. People don't ask the right questions."

Sometimes, being too trusting was equated with being too dumb. But sometimes when he would say that and say, "People don't ask the right questions," it was almost with a sense of regret, as if he were uneasy with what he was part of, and wished that people would challenge it and maybe not be so trusting.

The Real and the "Stated" Goals

Another comment that was repeated from time to time, particularly in relation to changing laws and customs, as well as specific changes, was: "Everything has two purposes. One is the ostensible purpose which will make it acceptable to people; and second, is the real purpose which would further the goals of establishing the new system and having it."

Frequently he would say: "There is just no other way. There's just no other way!"

This seemed to come as a sort of an apology, particularly when [he had described] some particularly offensive changes. For example, the promotion of drug addiction which we'll get into shortly.

Population Control

He was very active with population control groups, the population control movement, and population control was really the entry point into [the] specifics which followed his introduction. He said the population was growing too fast. Numbers of people living at any one time on the planet must be limited or we will run out of space to live. We will outgrow our food supply and we will over-pollute the world with our waste.

Permission to Have Babies

People won't be allowed to have babies just because they want to or because they are careless. Most families would be limited to two. Some people would be allowed only one, and the outstanding person or persons might be selected and allowed to have three. But most people would [be] allowed to have only two babies. That's because the zero population growth [rate] is 2.1 children per completed family. So something like every 10th family might be allowed the privilege of the third baby. To me, up to this point, the word "population control" primarily connoted limiting the number of babies to be born. But this remark, about what people would be "allowed" and then what followed, made it quite clear that when you hear "population control" that means more than just controlling births. It means control of every endeavor of the entire world population; a much broader meaning to that term than I had ever attached to it before hearing this. As you listen and reflect back on some of the things you hear, you will begin to recognize how one aspect dovetails with other aspects in terms of controlling human endeavors.

Sex without Reproduction and Reproduction without Sex

Well, from population control, the natural next step then was sex. He said sex must be separated from reproduction. Sex is too pleasurable, and the urges are too strong, to expect people to give it up. Chemicals in food and in the water supply to reduce the sex drive is not practical. The strategy then would be not to diminish sex activity, but to increase sex activity, but in such a way that people won't be having babies.

Contraception Universally available to All

And the first consideration then here was contraception. Contraception would be very strongly encouraged, and it would be connected so closely in people's minds with sex, that they would automatically think contraception when they were thinking or preparing for sex. And contraception would be made universally available. Nobody wanting contraception would find it unavailable. Contraceptives would be displayed much more prominently in drug stores, right up with the cigarettes and chewing gum. Out in the open, rather than hidden under the counter where people would have to ask for them and maybe be embarrassed. This kind of openness was a way of suggesting that contraceptives were just as much a part of life as any other items sold in the store. And contraceptives would be advertised and dispensed in the schools in association with sex education!

Sex Education as a Tool of World Government

The sex education was to get kids interested early, making the connection between sex and the need for contraception early in their lives, even before they became very active. At this point I was recalling some of my teachers, particularly in high school and found it totally unbelievable to think of them agreeing, much less participating in, distributing of contraceptives to students. But, that only reflected my lack of understanding of how these people operate. That was before the school-based clinic programs got started. Many, many cities in the United States by this time had already set up school-based clinics which were primarily contraception, birth control, population control clinics.

The idea then is that the connection between sex and contraception introduced and reinforced in school would carry over into marriage. Indeed, if young people – when they matured – decided to get married, marriage itself would be diminished in importance. He indicated some recognition that most people probably would want to be married but that this certainly would not be any longer considered necessary for sexual activity.

Tax Funded Abortion as Population Control

No surprise then, that the next item was abortion. And this, back in 1969, four years before Roe vs. Wade. He said: "Abortion will no longer be a crime. Abortion will be accepted as normal" …and would be paid for by taxes for people who could not pay for their own abortions.

Contraceptives would be made available by tax money so that nobody would have to do without contraceptives. If school sex programs would lead to more pregnancies in children that was really seen as no problem. Parents who think they are opposed to abortion on moral or religious grounds will change their minds when it is their own child who is pregnant. So this will help overcome opposition to abortion. Before long, only a few diehards will still refuse to see abortion as acceptable, and they won't matter anymore.

Encouraging Homosexuality, Sex, 'Anything Goes'

Homosexuality also was to be encouraged. "People will be given permission to be homosexual." That's the way it was stated. They won't have to hide it. And elderly people will be encouraged to continue to have active sex lives into the very old ages, just as long as they can. Everyone will be given permission to have sex, to enjoy however they want. Anything goes. This is the way it was put. And, I remember thinking, "how arrogant for this individual, or whoever he represents, to feel that they can give or withhold permission for people to do things!" But that was the terminology that was used. In this regard, clothing was mentioned. Clothing styles would be made more stimulating and provocative. Recall back in 1969 [it] was the time of the mini-skirt, when those mini-skirts were very, very high and revealing. He said: "It is not just the amount of skin that is exposed that makes clothing sexually seductive, but other, more subtle things are often suggestive" ...things like movement, and the cut of clothing, and the kind of fabric, the positioning of accessories on the clothing. "If a woman has an attractive body, why should she not show it?"...was one of [his] statements.

There was no detail on what was meant by "provocative clothing," but since that time if you watched the change in clothing styles, blue jeans are cut in a way that they're more tight-fitting in the crotch. They form wrinkles. Wrinkles are essentially arrows. Lines which direct one's vision to certain anatomic areas. And, this was around the time of the "burn your bra" activity. He indicated that a lot of women should not go without a bra. They need a bra to be attractive, so instead of banning bras and burning them, bras would come back. But they would be thinner and softer allowing more natural movement. It was not specifically stated, but certainly a very thin bra is much more revealing of the nipple and what else is underneath, than the heavier bras that were in style up to that time.

Technology.

Earlier he said sex and reproduction would be separated. You would have sex without reproduction and then technology was reproduction without sex. This would be done in the laboratory. He indicated that already, much, much research was under way about making babies in the laboratory. There was some elaboration on that, but I don't remember the details, how much of that technology has come to my attention since that time. I don't remember...I don't remember in a way that I can distinguish what was said from what I subsequently have learned as general medical information.

Families to Diminish in Importance

Families would be limited in size. We already alluded to not being allowed more than two children. Divorce would be made easier and more prevalent. Most people who marry will marry more than once. More people will not marry. Unmarried people would stay in hotels and even live together. That would be very common – nobody would even ask questions about it. It would be widely accepted as no different from married people being together. More women will work outside the home. More men will be transferred to other cities, and in their jobs, more men would travel. Therefore, it would be harder for families to stay together.

This would tend to make the marriage relationship less stable and, therefore, tend to make people less willing to have babies. And, the extended families would be smaller, and more remote. Travel would be easier [and] less expensive for a while, so that people who did have to travel would feel they could get back to their families...not that they were abruptly being made remote from their families. But one of the net effects of easier divorce laws combined with the promotion of travel, and transferring families from one city to another, was to create instability in the families. If both husband and wife are working and one partner gets transferred the other one may not be easily transferred. So one either keeps his or her job and stays behind while the other leaves, or else gives up the job and risks not finding employment in the new location. Rather a diabolical approach to this whole thing!

Euthanasia and the "Demise Pill"

Everybody has a right to live only so long. The old are no longer useful. They become a burden. You should be ready to accept death. Most people are. An arbitrary age limit could be established. After all, you have a right to only so many steak dinners, so many orgasms, and so many good pleasures in life. And after you have had enough of them and you're no longer productive, working, and contributing, then you should be ready to step aside for the next generation. Some things that would help people realize that they had lived long enough – he mentioned several of these...I don't remember them all...here are a few: Use of very pale printing ink on forms that are necessary to fill out, so that older people wouldn't be able to read the pale ink as easily and would need to go to younger people for help. Automobile traffic patterns – there would be more high-speed traffic lanes, traffic patterns that older people with their slower reflexes would have trouble dealing with and thus lose some of their independence.

Limiting access to affordable Medical Care makes Eliminating the Elderly Easier

A big item – [that] was elaborated at some length – was the cost of medical care would be burdensomely high. Medical care would be connected very closely with one's work, but also would be made very, very high in cost so that it would simply be unavailable to people beyond a certain time. And unless they had a remarkably rich, supporting family, they would just have to do without care. And the idea was that if everybody says: "Enough! What a burden it is on the young to try to maintain the old people … then the young would become agreeable to helping Mom and Dad along the way, provided this was done humanely and with dignity. And then the real example was – there could be like a nice, farewell party, a real celebration. Mom and Dad had done a good job. And then after the party's over they take the "demise pill."

Planning the Control over Medicine

The next topic is Medicine. There would be profound changes in the practice of medicine. Overall, medicine would be much more tightly controlled. The observation was made: "Congress is not going to go along with national health insurance. That [in 1969, he said] is now, abundantly evident. But it's not necessary. We have other ways to control health care."

These would come about more gradually, but all health care delivery would come under tight control. Medical care would be closely connected to work. If you don't work or can't work, you won't have access to medical care. The days of hospitals giving away free care would gradually wind down, to where it was virtually non-existent. Costs would be forced up so that people won't be able to afford to go without insurance. People pay... you pay for it, you're entitled to it. It was only subsequently that I began to realize the extent to which you would not be paying for it. Your medical care would be paid for by others. And therefore you would gratefully accept, on bended knee, what was offered to you as a privilege.

Your role [of] being responsible for your own care would be diminished. As an aside here – this is not something that was developed at this time ... I didn't understand it at the time – as an aside, the way this works, everybody's made dependent on insurance. And if you don't have insurance then you pay directly; the cost of your care is enormous. The insurance company, however, paying for your care, does not pay that same amount. If you are charged, say, $600 on your part, they pay $300 or $400. And that differential in billing has the desired effect: It enables the insurance company to pay for that which you could never pay for. They get a discount that's unavailable to you. When you see your bill you're grateful that the insurance company could do that. And in this way you are dependent, and virtually required to have insurance.

The use of hospitals

Anyhow, continuing on, access to hospitals would be tightly controlled. Identification would be needed to get into the building. The security in and around hospitals would be established and gradually increased so that nobody without identification could get in or move around inside the building. Theft of hospital equipment, things like typewriters and microscopes and so forth would be "allowed" and exaggerated; reports of it would be exaggerated so that this would be the excuse needed to establish the need for strict security, until people got used to it.

And anybody moving about in a hospital would be required to wear an identification badge with photograph and… telling why he was there…employee or lab technician or visitor or whatever. This is to be brought in gradually – getting everybody used to the idea of identifying themselves – until it was just accepted.

This need for ID to move about would start in small ways: hospitals, some businesses, but gradually expand to include everybody in all places! It was observed that hospitals can be used to confine people...for the treatment of criminals. This did not mean, necessarily, medical treatment. At that time, I did not know the word "Psycho-Prison" as in the Soviet Union, but without trying to recall all the details, basically, he was describing the use of hospitals both for treating the sick and for [the] confinement of criminals for reasons other than the medical well-being of the criminal. The definition of criminal was not given.

Elimination of Private Doctors

The image of the doctor would change. No longer would he be seen as an individual professional in service to individual patients. But the doctor would be gradually recognized as a highly skilled technician ... and his job would change. The job [would] include things like executions by lethal injection. The image of the doctor being a powerful, independent person would have to be changed. And he went on to say: "Doctors are making entirely too much money. They should advertise like any other [service]."

Lawyers would be advertising [their services] too. Keep in mind, this was an audience of doctors being addressed by a doctor. And it was interesting that he would make some rather insulting statements to his audience without fear of antagonizing us. The solo practitioner would become a thing of the past. A few diehards might try to hold out, but most doctors would be employed by an institution of one kind or another. Group practice would be encouraged, corporations would be encouraged, and then once the corporate image of medical care...as this gradually became more and more acceptable, doctors would more and more become employees rather than independent contractors. And along with that, of course, unstated but necessary, is the employee [who] serves his employer, not his patient. We've already seen quite a lot of that in the last 20 years. And apparently more [is] on the horizon.

The term HMO was not used at that time, but as you look at HMOs you see this is the way that medical care is being taken over since the National Health Insurance approach did not get through the Congress [Note: HMO means Health Maintenance Organisation, akin to group insurance for a range of medical services]. A few diehard doctors may try to make a go of it; remaining in solo practice, remaining independent, which, parenthetically, is me. But they would suffer a great loss of income. They'd be able to scrape by, maybe, but never really live comfortably as would those who were willing to become employees of the system. Ultimately, there would be no room at all for the solo practitioner, after the system is entrenched.

New Difficult-to-Diagnose and Untreatable Diseases

[The] next heading is Health & Disease. He said new diseases [would] appear which had never been seen before. [These] would be very difficult to diagnose and [would] be untreatable – at least for a long time. No elaboration was made on this, but I remember, not long after hearing this presentation, when I had a puzzling diagnosis to make, I would be wondering, "Is this what he was talking about? Is this a case of what he was talking about?" Some years later, as AIDS ultimately developed, I think AIDS was at least one example of what he was talking about. I now think AIDS was probably a manufactured disease.

Suppressing Cancer Cures as a Means of Population Control

He said: "We can cure almost every cancer right now. Information is on file in the Rockefeller Institute, if it's ever decided that it should be released. But consider – if people stop dying of cancer, how rapidly we would become over-populated. You may as well die of cancer as something else."

Efforts at cancer treatment would be geared more toward comfort than toward cure. There was some statement [that] ultimately the cancer cures hidden in the Rockefeller Institute would come to light – because independent researchers might bring them out, despite these efforts to suppress them. But at least for the time being, letting people die of cancer was a good thing because it would slow down the problem of over-population.

Inducing Heart Attacks as a Form of Assassination

Another very interesting thing was heart attacks. He said: "There is now a way to simulate a real heart attack. It can be used as a means of assassination."

Only a very skilled pathologist, who knew exactly what to look for at an autopsy, could distinguish this from the real thing. I thought that was a very surprising and shocking thing to hear from this particular man at that particular time. This, and the business of the cancer cure, really still stand out sharply in my memory, because they were so shocking and, at that time, seemed to me out of character.

He then went on to talk about nutrition and exercise, sort of in the same framework. People would have to eat right and exercise right to live as long as before. Most won't. In connection with nutrition, there was no specific statement that I can recall regarding particular nutrients that would be either inadequate or in excess. In retrospect, I tend to think he meant high salt diets and high fat diets would predispose [people] toward high blood pressure and premature arteriosclerotic heart disease. And that if people who were too dumb or too lazy to exercise as they should then their dietary fats [would] go up and predispose [them] to disease.

And he said something [to the effect that] dietary information, [information] about proper diet, would be widely available, but that most people – particularly stupid people, who had no right to continue living anyway – would ignore the advice and just go on and eat whatever was convenient and tasted good.

There were some other unpleasant things said about food. I just can't recall what they were. But I do remember [thinking] about wanting to plant a garden in the backyard to get around whatever these contaminated foods would be. I regret I don't remember the details ... the rest of this ... about hazardous nutrition.

With regard to exercise, he went on to say that more people would be exercising more, especially running, because everybody can run. You don't need any special equipment or place. You can run wherever you are. As he put it, "people will be running all over the place." And in this vein, he pointed out how supply produces demand. And this was in reference to athletic clothing and equipment. As this would be made more widely available and glamorized, particularly as regards running shoes, this would stimulate people to develop an interest in running and – as part of a public propaganda campaign – people would be encouraged to buy attractive sports equipment and get into exercise.

In connection with nutrition he also mentioned that public eating places would rapidly increase. This had a connection with the family too. As more and more people ate out, eating at home would become less important. People would be less dependent on their kitchens at home. And then this also connected to convenience foods being made widely available – things you could pop in the microwave. Whole meals would be available pre-fixed. And of course, we've now seen this ... and some pretty good ones.

This whole approach to eating out and to eating previously prepared meals in the home was predicted at that time...Convenience foods would be part of the hazards. Anybody who was lazy enough to want the convenience foods rather than fixing his own also had better be energetic enough to exercise. Because if he was too lazy to exercise and too lazy to fix his own food, then he didn't deserve to live very long.

This was all presented as sort of a moral judgment about people and what they should do with their energies. People who were smart, who would learn about nutrition, and who were disciplined enough to eat right and exercise right are better people – and the kind you want to live longer.

Education as a Tool for Accelerating the onset of Puberty and Evolution

Somewhere in here there was also something about accelerating the onset of puberty. And this was said in connection with health, and later in connection with education and to accelerating the process of evolutionary change. There was a statement [to the effect] that: "... we think that we can push evolution faster and in the direction we want it to go." I remember this only as a general statement. I don't recall if any details were given beyond that.

Blending all Religions...The Old Religions will have to Go

Another area of discussion was Religion. This is an avowed atheist speaking. And he said: "Religion is not necessarily bad. A lot of people seem to need religion, with it's mysteries and rituals – so they will have religion."

But the major religions of today have to be changed because they are not compatible with the changes to come. The old religions will have to go. Especially Christianity. Once the Roman Catholic Church is brought down, the rest of Christianity will follow easily. Then a new religion can be accepted for use all over the world. It will incorporate something from all of the old ones to make it easier for people to accept and feel at home in it. Most people won't be too concerned with religion. They will realize that they don't need it.

Changing the Bible through the Revision of Key Words

In order to do this, the Bible will be changed. It will be rewritten to fit the new religion. Gradually, key words will be replaced with new words having various shades of meaning. Then, the meaning attached to the new word can be close to the old word. And as time goes on, other shades of meaning of that word can be emphasized, and then gradually that word replaced with another word. I don't know if I'm making that clear.

But the idea is that everything in Scripture need not be rewritten, just key words replaced by other words. And the variability in meaning attached to any word can be used as a tool to change the entire meaning of Scripture, and therefore make it acceptable to this new religion. Most people won't know the difference; and this was another one of those times where he said: "... the few who do notice the difference won't be enough to matter."

The Churches will Help

Then followed one of the most surprising statements of the whole presentation: He said: "...some of you probably think the churches won't stand for this [and he went on to say] The churches will help us!"

There was no elaboration on this; it was unclear just what he had in mind when he said, "the churches will help us!" In retrospect, I think some of us now can understand what he might have meant at that time. I recall then only of thinking, "no they won't!" and remembering our Lord's words where he said to Peter, "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church, and gates of Hell will not prevail against it." So ... yes, some people in the churches might help. And in the subsequent 20 years we've seen how some people in churches have helped. But we also know that our Lord's Words will stand, and the gates of Hell will not prevail.

Restructuring Education as a Tool of Indoctrination

Another area of discussion was Education. And one of the things I remember connecting [here] with what he said about religion was that, in addition to changing the Bible, he said that the classics in Literature would be changed. I seem to recall Mark Twain's writings being given as an example. But he said, the casual reader reading a revised version of a classic would never even suspect that there was any change. Somebody would have to go it through word by word to even recognize that any change was made in [any of] these classics – the changes would be so subtle. But the changes would be such as to promote the acceptability of the new system.

More Time in Schools, but they "Wouldn't Learn Anything."

As regards education, he indicated that kids would spend more time in schools, but in many schools they wouldn't learn anything. They'll learn some things, but not as much as formerly. Better schools in better areas with better people – their kids will learn more. In the better schools, learning would be accelerated. And this is another time where he said: "We think we can push evolution."

By pushing kids to learn more, he seemed to be suggesting that their brains would evolve, that their offspring would evolve – sort of pushing evolution – where kids would learn and be more intelligent at a younger age. As if this pushing would alter their physiology. Overall, schooling would be prolonged. This meant prolonged through the school year. I'm not sure what he said about a long school day, [but] I do remember he said that school was planned to go [on] all summer, that the summer school vacation would become a thing of the past. Not only for schools, but for other reasons.

People would begin to think of vacation times [all] year round, not just in the summer. For most people, it would take longer to complete their education. To get what originally had been in a bachelor's program would now require advanced degrees and more schooling. So that a lot of school time would be just wasted time. Good schools would become more competitive. I inferred when he said that that he was including all schools – elementary up through college – but I don't recall whether he said that.

Students would have to decide at a younger age what they would want to study and get onto their track early, if they would qualify. It would be harder to change to another field of study once you get started. Studies would be concentrated in much greater depth, but narrowed. You wouldn't have access to material in other fields, outside your own area of study, without approval. Where he talked about limited access to other fields, I seem to recall [he was referring] more to the high school and college levels, perhaps. People would be very specialized in their own area of expertise. But they won't be able to get a broad education and won't be able to understand what is going on overall.

Controlling who has Access to Information

He was already talking about computers in education, and at that time he said anybody who wanted computer access, or access to books that were not directly related to their field of study would have to have a very good reason for so doing. Otherwise, access would be denied.

Schools as the Hub of the Community

Another angle was that schooling would become more important in people's overall life. Kids, in addition to their academic [needs], would have to get into school activities unless they wanted to feel completely out of it. But spontaneous activities among kids...kids wanting any activities outside of school...would be almost forced to get them through the school. There would be few opportunities outside.

Now the pressures of the accelerated academic program, the accelerated demands, where kids would feel they had to be part of something – one or another athletic club or some school activity – these pressures he recognized would cause some students to burn out. He said: "...the smartest ones will learn how to cope with pressures and to survive. There will be some help available to students in handling stress, but the unfit won't be able to make it. They will then move on to other things."

In this connection, and later on in connection with drug abuse and alcohol abuse, he indicated that psychiatric services would be increased dramatically. In all the pushing for achievement, it was recognized that many people would need help, and the people worth keeping around would be able to accept and benefit from that help, and still be super-achievers. Those who could not would fall by the wayside and therefore were sort of dispensable – "expendable" I guess is the word I want.

Education would be lifelong. Adults would [continue] going to school. There'll always be new information that adults must have to keep up. When you can't keep up anymore, you're too old. This was another way of letting older people know that the time had come for them to move on and take the demise pill. If you get too tired to keep up with your education, or you got too old to learn new information, then this was a signal – you begin to prepare to get ready to step aside.

Some Books would just Disappear from the Libraries

In addition to revising the classics, which I alluded to awhile ago, he said: "... some books would just disappear from the libraries."

This was in the vein that some books contain information or contain ideas that should not be kept around. And therefore, those books would disappear. I don't remember exactly if he said how this was to be accomplished. But I seem to recall carrying away this idea that this would include thefts. That certain people would be designated to go to certain libraries and pick up certain books and just get rid of them. Not necessarily as a matter of policy – just simply steal it. Further down the line, not everybody will be allowed to own books. And some books nobody will be allowed to own.

Changing Laws

Another area of discussion was laws that would be changed. At that time a lot of States had blue laws about Sunday sales, certain Sunday activities. He said the blue laws would all be repealed. Gambling laws would be repealed or relaxed, so that gambling would be increased. He indicated then that governments would get into gambling. We've had a lot of state lotteries pop up around the country since then. And, at the time, we were already being told that would be the case.

"Why should all that gambling money be kept in private hands when the State would benefit from it?" … was the rationale behind it. But people should be able to gamble if they want to. So it would become a civil activity, rather than a private, or illegal activity. Bankruptcy laws would be changed. I don't remember the details, but just that they would be changed. And I know subsequent to that time they have been. Anti-trust laws would be changed, or be interpreted differently, or both.

In connection with the changing of anti-trust laws, there was some statement, that in a sense, competition would be increased. But this would be increased competition within otherwise controlled circumstances. So it's not a free competition. I recall having the impression that it was like competition but [among] members of a club. Nobody outside the club would be able to compete. Sort of like teams competing within a professional league...if you're the NFL or the American or National Baseball Leagues, you compete within the league, but the league is all in agreement [as to] what the rules of competition are – not a really free competition.

Encouragement of Drug Abuse to create a Jungle Atmosphere

Drug use would be increased. Alcohol use would be increased. Law enforcement efforts against drugs would be increased. On first hearing that, it sounded like a contradiction. Why increase drug abuse and simultaneously increase law enforcement against drug abuse? But the idea is that, in part, the increased availability of drugs would provide a sort of law of the jungle whereby the weak and the unfit would be selected out. There was a statement made at the time:

"Before the earth was overpopulated, there was a law of the jungle where only the fittest survived."

You had to be able to protect yourself against the elements and wild animals and disease. And if you were fit, you survived. But now we've become so civilised – we're over-civilized – and the unfit are [able] to survive, [but] only at the expense of those who are more fit. And the abusive drugs then, would restore, in a certain sense, the law of the jungle, and selection of the fittest for survival. News about drug abuse and law enforcement efforts would tend to keep drugs in the public consciousness. And would also tend to reduce this unwarranted American complacency that the world is a safe place, and a nice place.

Alcohol Abuse

The same thing would happen with alcohol. Alcohol abuse would be both promoted and demoted at the same time. The vulnerable and the weak would respond to the promotions and, therefore, use and abuse more alcohol. Drunk driving would become more of a problem; and stricter rules about driving under the influence would be established so that more and more people would lose their privilege to drive.

[The following paragraph actually came after the 'Restrictions on Travel' section below] Again, much more in the way of psychological services would be made available to help those who got hooked on drugs and alcohol. The idea being, that in order to promote this – to screen out some of the unfit people who were otherwise pretty good – [the planners] would also [provide a way out, but a controlled one]. If they [the abusers] were really worth their salt they would have enough sense to seek psychological counselling and to benefit from it. So this was presented as sort of a redeeming value on the part of the planners. It was as if he were saying: "... you think we're bad in promoting these evil things – but look how nice we are – we're also providing a way out!"

Restrictions on Travel

This also had connection with something we'll get to later about overall restrictions on travel. Not everybody should be free to travel the way they do now in the United States. People don't have a need to travel that way. It's a privilege! It was a kind of a high-handed way it was put.

The Need for More Jails, and Using Hospitals as Jails

More jails would be needed. Hospitals could serve as jails. Some new hospital construction would be designed so as to make them adaptable to jail-like use.

[End of Tape One]

Change

Change, nothing is permanent. Streets would be re-routed, renamed. Areas you had not seen in a while would become unfamiliar. Among other things, this would contribute to older people feeling that it was time to move on; they feel they couldn't even keep up with the changes in areas that were once familiar. Buildings would be allowed to stand empty and deteriorate, and streets would be allowed to deteriorate in certain localities. The purpose of this was to provide [a] jungle [feeling], [a] depressed atmosphere for the unfit.

Somewhere in this same connection he mentioned that buildings and bridges would be made so that they would collapse after a while; there would be more accidents involving airplanes and railroads and automobiles. All of this to contribute to the feeling of insecurity, that nothing was safe.

{Aside by Dr Dunegan: Not too long after this presentation and I think one or two even before in the area where I live, some newly constructed bridges broke; a defect in another newly constructed bridge was discovered before it broke, and I remember reading just scattered incidents around the country where shopping malls would fall in – right where they were filled with shoppers. And I remember that one of the shopping malls in our area, the first building I'd ever been in where you could feel this vibration throughout the entire building when there were a lot of people in there; and I remember wondering at that time whether this shopping mall was one of the buildings he was talking about. Talking to construction people and architects about it they would say, "Oh no, that's good when the building vibrates like that. That means it's flexible, not rigid." Well ... maybe so. We'll wait and see.}

Other areas there would be well-maintained. Not every part of the city would be slums. There would be the created slums, while other areas [would be] well maintained. Those people able to leave the slums for better areas would learn to better appreciate the importance of human accomplishment. This meant that if they left the jungle and came to civilization, so to speak, they could be proud of their own accomplishments that they made it. There was no related sympathy for those who were left behind in the jungle of drugs and deteriorating neighborhoods. Then a statement that was kind of surprising: "We think we can effectively limit crime to the slum areas, so it won't be spread heavily into better areas."

Consolidating Policy

I should maybe point out here that these are obviously not word for word quotations after 20 years, but where I say I am quoting, I am giving the general drift of what was said, close to word for word; [but] perhaps not precisely so.

Anyhow, I remember wondering, "How can he be so confident that the criminal element is going to stay where he wants it to stay?" He went on to say that increased security would be needed in the better areas. That would mean more police, better co-ordinated police efforts. He did not say so, but I wondered at that time about the moves that were afoot to consolidate all the police departments of suburbs around the major cities. I think the John Birch Society was one that was saying, "Support your local police; don't let them be consolidated." And I remember wondering if that was one of the things he had in mind about security. It was not explicitly stated.

Anyhow, he went on to say there would be a whole new industry of residential security systems with alarms and locks. The alarms would [connect] to the police department so that people could protect their wealth and their well-being. [However] some of the criminal activity would spill out of the slums into better, more affluent areas that looked like they would be worth burglarizing. And again it was stated like it was a redeeming quality.

"See, we're generating all this more crime, but look how good we are – we're also generating the means for you to protect yourself against the crime."

A sort of repeated thing throughout this presentation was the recognized evil and then the self-forgiveness thing..."Well see, we've given you a way out."

Global Interdependence:
"To Create a New Structure, you first have to tear down the Old." American industry came under discussion – it was the first that I'd heard the term 'Global Interdependence' or that notion. The stated plan was that different parts of the world would be assigned different roles in industry and commerce in a unified global system. The continued pre-eminence of the United States and the relative independence and self-sufficiency of the United States would have to be changed. This was one of several occasions where he said that, in order to create a new structure, you first have to tear down the old. American industry was one example of that. Our system would have to be curtailed in order to give other countries a chance to build their industries, because otherwise they would not be able to compete against the United States. And this was especially true of our heavy industries – they would be cut back while the same industries were being developed in other countries, notably Japan.

Patriotism would go down the Drain
At this point there was some discussion of [the] steel and, particularly, the automobile [industries]. I remember him saying that automobiles would be imported from Japan on an equal footing with our own domestically produced automobiles, but the Japanese product would be better. Things would be made so they would break and fall apart – that is, in the United States – so that people would tend to prefer the imported variety and this would give a bit of a boost to [our] foreign competitors.

One example was Japan. In 1969, Japanese automobiles – if they were sold here at all, I don't remember – certainly weren't very popular. But the idea was, you could get a little bit disgusted with your Ford, GM, or Chrysler product – or whatever – because little things like window handles would fall off more often, and plastic parts would break which, had they been made of metal, would hold up. Your patriotism about buying American would soon give way to practicalities – if you bought Japanese, German, or [other] imported [vehicle] it would last longer and you would be better off. Patriotism would go down the drain then.

It was also mentioned elsewhere that things would be made to fall apart. I don't remember specific items or if they were even stated [by reference to anything] other than automobiles, but I do recall having the impression...of a surgeon having something fall apart in his hands in the operating room, at a critical time...

Loss of Jobs: Loss of Security

The idea [was to promote insecurity] ... the notion that the world wasn't a terribly reliable place.

The United States was to be kept strong in information, communications, high technology, education and agriculture. It would continue to be sort of the keystone of the global system. But heavy industry would be transported out. One of the comments made about heavy industry was that we had had enough environmental damage from smokestacks and industrial waste and some of the .. people could put up with that for a while. This again was supposed to be a "redeeming quality" which Americans could accept. You took away our industry but you saved our environment. So we really didn't lose out.

Population Shifts to Eliminate "Traditions"

Along the line there was talk about people losing their jobs as a result of industrial [policy]. Opportunities for retraining and, particularly, population shifts would be brought about. This is sort of an aside. I think I'll explore the aside before I forget it. Population shifts were to be brought about so that people would tend to move into the Sun Belt [Note: This is generally taken to mean the southern third of the USA]. They would be, sort of, people without roots in their new locations, and traditions are easier to change in a place where there are a lot of transplanted people, as compared to trying to changing traditions in a place where people grew up and had an extended family – where they had roots.

Things like new medical care systems. If you pick up from a Northeast industrial city and you transplant yourself to the South Sun Belt or Southwest, you'll be more accepting, for example, of whatever kind of controlled medical care you find there. [You would not accept] the same change in the medical care system where you had roots and the support of your family. Also in this vein it was mentioned – he used the plural personal pronoun "we" – we take control first of the port cities ... New York, San Francisco, Seattle ... the idea being that this is a piece of strategy. The idea being that if you control the port cities with your philosophy and your way of life, the heartland in between has to yield.

I can't elaborate more on this but it is interesting. If you look around, the most liberal areas of the country...are the seacoast cities. The heartland, the Midwest, does seem to have maintained its conservatism. But as you take away industry and jobs and relocate people, then this is a strategy that will break down conservatism. When you take away industry, and people are unemployed and poor, they will accept whatever change seems to offer them survival; and their moral [beliefs] and their commitment to things will all give way to survival. That's not my philosophy. That's the speaker's philosophy.

World Citizens, World Sports

Anyhow, going back to industry. Some heavy industry would remain. Just enough to maintain a sort of a seedbed of industrial skills which could be expanded if the plan didn't work out as it was intended. So the country would not be devoid of assets and skills. But this was just sort of a contingency plan. It was hoped and expected that the worldwide specialization would be carried on.

Perhaps I'm repeating myself but one of the upshots of all of this global interdependence would be that national identities would tend to be de-emphasized. Each area depended on every other area for one or another element in its life. We would all become citizens of the world rather than citizens of any one country. And along these lines then we can talk about sports.

Sports in the United States were to be changed, in part as a way of de-emphasizing nationalism. Soccer, a world-wide sport, was to be emphasized and pushed in the United States. This is of interest because the game of soccer was virtually unknown at that time. I had a few friends who attended an elementary school other than the one I attended where they played soccer at their school, and they were a real novelty. This was back in the 50's. So to hear this man speak of soccer in this area was kind of surprising.

Anyhow, soccer is seen as an international sport and would be promoted and the traditional sport of American baseball would be de-emphasized and possibly eliminated because it might be seen as too American. And he discussed eliminating this. One's first reaction would be, well, they pay the players poorly and they don't want to play for poor pay, so they [would] give up baseball and either go into some other sport or some other activity. But, he said that's really not how it works. Actually, the way to break down baseball would be to make the salaries go very high. The idea behind this was that, as the salaries got ridiculously high, there would be a certain amount of discontent and antagonism as people resented the athletes being paid so much, and the athletes would begin more and more to resent among themselves what other players were paid and would tend to abandon the sport. These high salaries would also break the owners and alienate the fans. Then the fans would support soccer and the baseball fields could be used as soccer fields. It wasn't said for definite that this would happen, but if the international flavor didn't come around rapidly enough, this could be done.

There was some comment along the same lines about [American] football, although I seem to recall he said football would be harder to dismantle because it was so widely played in colleges, as well as in the professional leagues, and would be harder to tear down.

There was something else also about violence in football, how it met a perceived psychological need, that people had a need for this vicarious violence. So football, for that reason, might be left around to meet that vicarious need.

The same was true of [ice] hockey. Hockey had more of an international flavor and would be emphasized. There was some foreseeable international competition for hockey and particularly soccer. At that time hockey was international between the United States and Canada. I was kind of surprised because I thought the speaker just never impressed me as being at all a hockey fan, and I am. And it turns out, he was not. He just knew about the game and [how it would fit into] this changing sports program.

In any event soccer was to be the keystone of athletics because it was already a worldwide sport. [It was] in South America, Europe, and parts of Asia. [So] the United States should get on the bandwagon. All this would foster international competition so that we would all become citizens of the world to a greater extent, [rather] than citizens of our narrow nations.

Hunting

There was some discussion about hunting, not surprisingly. Hunting requires guns and gun control is a big element in these plans. I don't remember the details much, but the idea is that gun ownership is a privilege and not everybody should have guns. Hunting was an inadequate excuse for owning guns and everybody should be restricted in gun ownership. The few privileged people who should be allowed to hunt could maybe rent or borrow a gun from official quarters rather than own their own. After all, everybody doesn't have a need for a gun. That's the way it was put.

Sports for Girls: to De-emphasize Femininity

Very important in sports was sports for girls. Athletics would be pushed for girls. This was intended to replace dolls. Baby dolls would still be around, a few of them, but you would not see the number and variety of dolls. Dolls would not be pushed because girls should not be thinking about babies and reproduction. Girls should be out on the athletic field just as the boys are. Girls and boys really need not to be all that different. Tea sets were to go the way of dolls, and all these things that traditionally were thought of as feminine would be de-emphasized as girls got into more masculine pursuits. Just one other thing I recall was that the sports pages would be full of the scores of girls' teams just right along there with the boys' teams. And that's recently begun to appear after 20 years in our local papers. The girls' sports scores are right along with the boys' sports scores. So all of this to change the role model of what young girls should look to be. While she's growing up she should look to be an athlete rather to look forward to being a mother.

Entertainment: Violence, Sex and Desensitization

Movies would gradually be made more explicit as regards sex and language. After all, sex and rough language are real and why pretend that they are not? There would be pornographic movies in the theaters, on television. VCRs were not around at that time, but he had indicated that these cassettes would be available, and video cassette players would be available for use in the home and pornographic movies would be available for use on these VCRs, as well as in the neighborhood theater and on your television. He said something like: "You'll see people in the movies doing everything you can think of."

He went on to say that ... and all of this is intended to bring sex out in the open. That was another comment that was made several times – the term "sex out in the open."

Violence would be made more graphic. This was intended to desensitize people to violence. There might need to be a time when people would witness real violence and be a part of it. Later on it will become clear where this is headed. So there would be more realistic violence in entertainment which would make it easier for people to adjust. People's attitudes towards death would change and they would not be so fearful of it but more accepting of it, and not be so aghast at the sight of dead people or injured people. We don't need to have a genteel population paralyzed by what they might see. People would just learn to say, "Well, I don't want that to happen to me."

This was the first statement suggesting that the plan includes numerous human casualties which the survivors would see. This particular aspect of the presentation came back in my memory very sharply a few years later when a movie about the Lone Ranger came out and I took my very young son to see it and early in the movie were some very violent scenes. One of the victims was shot in the forehead and there was sort of a splat where the bullet entered his forehead...and I remember regretting that I took my son. And I remember feeling anger toward [Dr Day]. Not that he made the movie, but he agreed to be part of this movement, and I was repelled by the movie and it brought back this aspect of his presentation very sharply in my memory.

"Music will get Worse"
As regards music, he made a rather straightforward statement: "Music will get worse."

In 1969 rock music was getting more and more unpleasant. It was interesting the way he expressed it. It would "get worse"... acknowledging that it was already bad. Lyrics would become more openly sexual. No new sugary romantic music would be publicized, like that which had been written before that time. All of the old music would be brought back on certain radio stations and records for older people to hear. And all the folks would have...their own radio stations to hear. He seemed to indicate that, as it got worse and worse, one group would not hear the other group's music. Older folks would just refuse to hear the junk that was offered to young people, and the young people would accept the junk because it identified them as their generation and helped them feel distinct from the older generation.

I remember at the time thinking that would not last very long because even young kids wouldn't like the junk. When they got a chance to hear the older music, which was prettier, they would gravitate toward it. Unfortunately, I was wrong about that. When the kids get through their teens and into their 20's, some of them improve their taste in music, but unfortunately he was right. They get used to this junk and that's all they want. A lot of them can't stand really pretty music. He went on to say that the music would carry a message to the young and nobody would even know the message was there They would just think it was loud music. At the time, I didn't understand quite what he meant by that, but in retrospect, I think we know now what the messages are in the music for the young. [Note: Ex-Illuminati insider, John Todd, spoke extensively about the Satanic dimension of the music industry and the way it is used to spread demonic ideas.]

Give us the Young
And again, he was right. This aspect was...summarized in the notion that entertainment would be a tool to influence young people. It won't change the older people – they are already set in their ways – but the changes would be all aimed at the young, who are in their formative years, and the older generation would be passing. Not only could you not change them, but they are relatively unimportant, anyhow. Once they live out their lives and are gone, the younger generation being formed, are the ones that would be important for the future in the 21st century.

He also indicated all the old movies would be brought back again, and I remember on hearing that through my mind ran quickly the memories of a number of old movies. I wondered if they would be included, the ones that I thought I would like to see again. Along with bringing back old music and old movies for older people there were other privileges that would also be accorded older folks: free transportation, breaks on purchases, discounts, tax discounts: a number of privileges just because they were older. This was stated to be sort of a reward for the generation which had grown up through the depression and had survived the rigors of World War II. They had deserved it, and they were going to be rewarded with all these goodies, and the bringing back of the good old music and the good old movies was going to help ease them through their final years in comfort.

'80s & '90s: The Grim Reaper. Travel Restrictions, National ID, the Chip, etc.
Then, the presentation began to get rather grim, because once that generation passed – that would be in the late 80's and early 90's where we are now – most of that [age] group would be gone. Then, gradually, things would tighten up and the tightening up would be accelerated. The old movies and old songs would be withdrawn; the gentler entertainment would be withdrawn.

Travel, instead of being easy for old folks ... travel then would become very restricted. People would need permission to travel and they would need a good reason to travel. If you didn't have a good reason for your travel you would not be allowed to travel, and everyone would need ID. This would at first be an ID card you would carry on your person and you must show when you are asked for it.

It was already planned that later on some sort of device would be developed to be implanted under the skin that would be coded specifically to identify the individual. This would eliminate the possibility of false ID and also eliminate the possibility of people saying, "Well, I lost my ID."

The difficulty with these skin-implanted IDs, he said, would be getting material that would stay in or under the skin without causing foreign body reaction, whereby the body would reject it or cause infection. [Furthermore], this would have to be material on which information could be recorded and retrieved by some sort of scanner while it was not rejected by the body. Silicon was mentioned. Silicon at that time was thought to be well tolerated. It was used to augment breasts. Women who felt their breasts were too small would get silicon implants, and I guess that still goes on. At any rate silicon was seen at that time as the promising material to do both... to be retained in the body without rejection and to be able to retain information retrievable by electronic means.

Food Control
Food supplies would come under tight control. If population growth didn't slow down, food shortages could be created in a hurry and people would realize the dangers of overpopulation. Ultimately, whether the population slows down or not, the food supply is to be brought under centralized control so that people would have enough to be well-nourished but they would not have enough to support any fugitive from the new system. In other words, if you had a friend or relative who didn't sign on [tape ends abruptly and continues on side two] ... growing ones own food would be outlawed. This would be done under some sort of pretext. In the beginning, I mentioned there were two purposes for everything – one the ostensible purpose and one the real purpose – and the ostensible purpose here would be that growing your own vegetables was unsafe, that it would spread disease or something like that. So the acceptable idea was to protect the consumer but the real idea was to limit the food supply. [Therefore] growing your own food would be illegal. And if you persist in illegal activities like growing your own food, then you're a criminal.

Weather Control

There was a mention then of weather. He made another really striking statement. He said: "We can or soon will be able to control the weather."

He said: "I'm not merely referring to dropping iodide crystals into the clouds to precipitate rain that's already there, but REAL control."

Weather was seen as a weapon of war, a weapon of influencing public policy. It could make rain or withhold rain in order to influence certain areas [geographical regions] and bring them under your control. There were two sides to this that were rather striking.

He said: "On the one hand you can make drought during the growing season so that nothing will grow, and on the other hand you can make for very heavy rains during harvest season so the fields are too muddy to bring in the harvest, and indeed one might be able to do both."

There was no statement how this would be done. It was stated that either it was already possible or very, very close to being possible. [Note: The Illuminati (the Ruling Elite) have been able to do this since the 1970s.]

Politics

He said that very few people really know how government works. Something to the effect that elected officials are influenced in ways they don't even realize, and they carry out plans that have been made for them, and they think that they are authors of the plans. But actually they are manipulated in ways they don't understand.

Know how People respond: Making them do what you want

Somewhere in the presentation he made two statements that I want to insert at this point. I don't remember just where they were made, but they're valid in terms of the general overall view. One statement: "People can carry in their minds and act upon two contradictory ideas at one time, provided that these two contradictory ideas are kept far enough apart."

And the other statement is: "You can know pretty well how rational people are going to respond to certain circumstances or to certain information that they encounter. So, to determine the response you want, you need only control the kind of data or information that they're presented or the kinds of circumstance that they're in – and being rational people they'll do what you want them to do. They may not fully understand what they're doing or why."

Falsified Scientific Research

Somewhere in this connection, then, was a statement admitting that some scientific research data could be – and indeed had been – falsified in order to bring about desired results. [Dr Day] said: "People don't ask the right questions. Some people are too trusting."

Now this was an interesting statement because the speaker and the audience, all being doctors of medicine and supposedly very objective and dispassionately scientific – science being the be all and end all – well, to falsify scientific research data in that setting is like blasphemy in the church...you just don't do that. Anyhow, out of all of this was to come the New International Governing Body, probably...through the UN and a World Court, but not necessarily through those structures. It could be brought about in other ways.

Acceptance of the UN: The End justifies the Means

Acceptance of the UN at that time was not as widespread as [they had] hoped. Efforts would continue to give the United Nations increasing importance. People would be more and more used to the idea of relinquishing some national sovereignty.

Economic interdependence would foster this goal from a peaceful standpoint. Avoidance of war would foster it from the standpoint of worrying about hostilities. It was recognized that doing it peaceably was better than doing it by war.

It was stated at this point that war was "obsolete." I thought that was an interesting phrase because obsolete means something that was once useful but is no longer useful. But war is obsolete...because nuclear bombs [meant] war was no longer controllable. Formerly, wars could be controlled, but if nuclear weapons would fall into the wrong hands there could be an unintended nuclear disaster. It was not stated who the "wrong hands" are. We were free to infer that maybe this meant terrorists, but in more recent years I'm wondering whether the wrong hands might also include people that we've assumed had nuclear weapons all along ... maybe they don't have them.

Just as it was stated that industry would be preserved in the United States – a little bit, just in case the world wide plans didn't work out; just in case some country or some other powerful person decided to bolt from the pack and go his own way – one wonders whether this might also be true with nuclear weapons.

When you hear that ... he said they might fall into the wrong hands, there was some statement that the possession of nuclear weapons had been tightly controlled, sort of implying that anybody who had nuclear weapons was intended to have them. That would necessarily have included the Soviet Union, if indeed they have them. But I recall wondering at the time, "Are you telling us, or are you implying that this country willingly gave weapons to the Soviets?" At that time that seemed like a terribly unthinkable thing to do, much less to admit. The leaders of the Soviet Union seem to be so dependent on the West though, one wonders whether there may have been some fear that they would try to assert independence if they indeed had these weapons. So, I don't know. It's something to speculate about perhaps ... Who did he mean when he said, "If these weapons fall into the wrong hands"? Maybe just terrorists.

Anyhow, the new system would be brought in, if not by peaceful co-operation – everybody willingly yielding national sovereignty – then by bringing the nation to the brink of nuclear war. And everybody would be so fearful as hysteria is created by the possibility of nuclear war that there would be a strong public outcry to negotiate a public peace and people would willingly give up national sovereignty in order to achieve peace. This would [therefore] bring in the New International Political System.

This was... [a] very impressive thing to hear then: "If there were too many people in the right places who resisted this, there might be a need to use one or two – possibly more – nuclear weapons. As it was put this would possibly be needed to convince people that "We mean business."

That was followed by the statement: "By the time one or two of those went off, then everybody – even the most reluctant – would yield."

He said something about "this negotiated peace would be very convincing," as kind of in a framework or in a context that the whole thing was rehearsed but nobody would know it. People hearing about it would be convinced that it was a genuine negotiation between hostile enemies who finally had come to the realization that peace was better than war.

War is Good: Cannon-Fodder, keep the Population down, and Die a Hero

In this context – the discussion of war, that war is obsolete – [Dr Day said] that there were some good things about war... One, you're going to die anyway, and people sometimes get a chance in war to display great courage and heroism, and if they die they've died well, and if they survive they get recognition.

In any case, the hardships of war on soldiers are worth it because that's the reward they get out of their warring.

Another justification [he expressed] for war was [that if] the many millions of casualties in WWI and WWII ... had not died but had continued to live, and continued to have babies, there would be millions upon millions [more people on the planet] and we would already be overpopulated. So those two great wars served a benign purpose in delaying over-population.

But now there are technological means [whereby] the individual and governments can control over-population, so in this regard war is obsolete. It's no longer needed. And then again, it's obsolete because nuclear weapons could destroy the whole universe. War, which was once controllable, could get out of control, and so for these two reasons it's now obsolete.

Terrorism: The Great Tool for 'Control'

There was a discussion of terrorism. Terrorism would be used widely in Europe and in other parts of the world. Terrorism at that time was [not considered] necessary in the United States. [However] it could become necessary in the US if the US did not move rapidly enough toward accepting the system. But at least in the foreseeable future it was not planned. And very benignly on their part. Maybe terrorism would not be required here, but the implication was that it would indeed be used if it was necessary. Along with this came a bit of a scolding that Americans had had it too good anyway and just a little bit of terrorism would help convince Americans that the world is indeed a dangerous place...or can be if we don't relinquish control to the proper authorities.

Money and Banking

There was discussion of money and banking. One statement was: "Inflation is infinite. You can put an infinite number of zeros after any number and put the decimals points wherever you want" ...as an indication that inflation is a tool of the controllers.

Money would become predominately credit. It already was. Money was primarily a credit thing, but [the] exchange of money would not be [in the form of] cash or something palpable but [an] electronic credit signal. People would carry money only in very small amounts for things like chewing gum and candy bars...Any purchase of any significant amount would be done electronically. Earnings would be electronically entered into your account. It would be a single banking system. [It] may have the appearance of being more than [that] but ultimately and basically it would be one single banking system. So when you got paid your pay would be entered for you into your account balance and then when you purchased anything at the point of purchase it would be deducted from your account balance and you would actually carry nothing [around] with you.

Also computer records could be kept of whatever it was you purchased, so that if you were purchasing too much of any particular item and some official wanted to know what you were doing with your money they could go back and review your purchases and determine what you were buying.

[Dr Day stated] that any purchase of significant size like an automobile, bicycle, a refrigerator, a radio, television or whatever might have some sort of identification on it so it could be traced, so that very quickly anything which was either given away or stolen – whatever – the authorities would be able to establish who purchased it and when. Computers would allow this to happen.

The ability to save would be greatly curtailed. People would just not be able to save any considerable degree of wealth. [He made a statement which recognised] that wealth represents power, and wealth in the hands of a lot of people is not good for the people in charge, so if you save too much you might be taxed. The more you save the higher rate of tax on your savings, so your savings really could never get very far. And also if you began to show a pattern of saving too much, you might have your pay cut. We would say, "Well, you're saving instead of spending. You really don't need all that money."

Basically the idea was to prevent people from accumulating any wealth which might have a long range disruptive influence on the system. People would be encouraged to use credit, to borrow, and then also to renege on their debt, so they would destroy their own credit. The idea here is that, again, if you're too stupid to handle credit wisely, this gives the authorities the opportunity to come down hard on you once you've shot your credit.

Electronic payments initially would all be based on different kinds of credit cards – these were already in use in 1969 to some extent. Not as much as now. But people would have credit cards with the electronic strip on it and, once they got used to that ...the advantage of having all of that combined into a single credit card [would be emphasized], serving a single monetary system and then you woouldn't have to carry around all that plastic.

So the next step would be the single card and then the next step [after that] would be to replace the single card with a skin implant. The single card could be lost or stolen, [it could] give rise to problems; [or it] could be exchanged with somebody else to confuse identify. The skin implant on the other hand would be not losable or counterfeitable or transferable to another person, so you and your accounts would be identified without any possibility of error.

The skin implants would have to be put some place that would be convenient for the skin, for example your right hand or your forehead. At that time, when I heard this, I was unfamiliar with the statements in the Book of Revelation. The speaker went on to say:

"Now some of you people who read the Bible will attach significance to this to the Bible," ...but he went on to disclaim any Biblical significance at all.

This is just common sense. This is how the system could work and should work and there's no need to read any superstitious Biblical principals into it. As I say, at the time I was not very familiar with the words of Revelation. Shortly after, I became familiar with it and the significance of what he said really was striking. I'll never forget it.

Big Brother is Watching you: While you're watching TV

There was some mention, also, of implants that would lend themselves to surveillance by providing radio signals. This could be [placed] under the skin or [via] a dental implant... put in like a filling so that either fugitives or possibly other citizens could be identified by a certain frequency from his personal transmitter and could be located at any time or any place by any authority who wanted to find him. This would be particularly useful for somebody who broke out of prison. There was more discussion of personal surveillance.

Television sets would have a device to enable this [to happen]. The TV set would not have to be on in order for this to be operative. Also, the television set could be used to monitor what you are watching. People could tell what you're watching on TV and how you're reacting to what you're watching. And you would not know that you were being watched while you were watching your television.

How would we get people to accept these things into their homes? Well, people would buy them when they buy their own television. They won't know that they're in there at first. This was described by what we now know as cable TV [which has replaced] antenna TV. When you buy a TV set this monitor would just be part of the set and most people would not have enough knowledge to know it was there in the beginning. The cable would be the means of carrying the surveillance message to the monitor. By the time people found out that this monitoring was going on, they would also be very dependent upon television for a number of things. Just the way people are dependent upon the telephone today.

One thing the television would be used for would be purchases. You wouldn't have to leave your home to purchase. You could just turn on your TV and there would be a way of interacting with your television channel to the store where you wanted to purchase. And you could flip the switch from place to place to choose a refrigerator or clothing. This would be both convenient, but it would also make you dependent on your television, so the built-in monitor would be something you could not do without.

There was some discussion of audio monitors, too, just in case the authorities wanted to hear what was going on in rooms other than where the television monitor was, and in regard to this the statement was made: "Any wire that went into your house, for example your telephone wire, could be used this way."

I remember this in particular because it was fairly near the end of the presentation and, as we were leaving the meeting place, I said something to one of my colleagues about going home and pulling all of the wires out of my house...except I knew I couldn't get by without the telephone. And the colleague I spoke to just seemed numb.

To this day, I don't think he even remembers what we talked about or what we heard that time, because I've asked him. But at that time he seemed stunned. Before all these changes would take place with electronic monitoring, it was mentioned that there would be service trucks all over the place, working on the wires and putting in new cables. This is how people who were on the inside would know how things were progressing.

Privately owned Homes – "A Thing of the Past"

Privately owned housing would become a thing of the past. The cost of housing and financing housing would gradually be made so high that most people couldn't afford it. People who already owned their houses would be allowed to keep them but as years go by it would be more and more difficult for young people to buy a house.

Young people would more and more become renters, particularly in apartments or condominiums. More and more unsold houses would stand vacant. People just couldn't buy them. But the cost of housing would not come down. You'd right away think, well, the vacant house – the price would come down and the people would buy it. But there was some statement to the effect that the price would be held high, even though there were many available, so that free market prices would not operate. People would not be able to buy these and gradually more and more of the population would be forced into small apartments ... small apartments which would not accommodate very many children. Then as the number of real home-owners diminished they would become a minority.

There would be no sympathy for them from the majority who dwelled in the apartments. Then these homes could be taken by increased taxes or other regulations that would be detrimental to home ownership [but] acceptable to the majority. Ultimately, people would be assigned [to] where they would live and it would be common to have non-family members living with you ... This would all be under the control of a central housing authority. Have this in mind in 1990 when they ask, "How many bedrooms in your house? How many bathrooms in your house? Do you have a finished game room?"

This information is personal and is of no national interest to government under our existing Constitution. But you'll be asked those questions and decide how you want to respond to them. When the new system takes over people will be expected to sign allegiance to it, indicating that they don't have any reservations [about it] or [any desire to hold] back to the old system.

There just won't be any room, Dr Day said, for people who won't go along. “We can't have such people cluttering up the place, so such people would be taken to special places." And here I don't remember the exact words, but the inference I drew was that at these special places where they were taken, then they would not live very long. He may have said something like, "disposed of humanely," but I don't remember very precisely... just the impression that the system was not going to support them when they would not go along with the system. That would leave death as the only alternative.

Somewhere in this vein he said there would not be any martyrs. When I first heard this I thought it meant the people would not be killed, but as the presentation developed what he meant was they would not be killed in such a way or disposed of in such a way that they could serve as inspiration to other people the way martyrs do. Rather he said something like this: "People will just disappear."

A Few Final Items

Just a few additional items sort of thrown in here in the end which I failed to include where they belong more perfectly.

The bringing in of the new system, he said, would probably occur on a weekend in the winter. Everything would shut down on Friday evening and Monday morning, when everybody woke up, there would be an announcement that the New System was in place. During the process of getting the United States ready for these changes everybody would be busier, with less leisure time and less opportunity to really look about and see what was going on around them. Also, there would be more changes and more difficulty in keeping up as far as one's investments were concerned. Investment instruments would be changing. Interest rates would be changing, so it would be difficult to keep up with what you had already earned.

Interesting about automobiles; it would look as though there were many varieties of automobiles, but when you look very closely there would be great duplication. They would be made to look different with chrome and wheel covers and this sort of thing, but looking closely one would see that the same automobile was made by more than one manufacturer.

This recently was brought home to me when I was in a parking lot and saw a small Ford – I forget the model – and a small Japanese automobile which were identical except for a number of things, like the number of holes in the wheel cover and the chrome around the plate and the shape of the grill. But if you looked at the basic parts of the automobile, they were identical. They just happened to be parked side-by-side. I was struck by this, and I was again reminded of what had been said many years ago.

I'm hurrying here because I'm just about at the end of the tape. Let me just summarize here by saying – all of these things were said by one individual at one time in one place, relating to so many different human endeavors. [Now] look and see how many of these actually came about ... that is, changes accomplished between then and now [1969-1988] and the things which are planned for the future. I think there is no denying that this is controlled and there is indeed a conspiracy.

The question then becomes what to do. I think, first, we must put our faith in God and pray and ask for His guidance. Second, we must do what we can to inform other individuals as much as possible, as much as they may be interested. Some people just don't care, because they're preoccupied with getting along in their own personal endeavors. But, as much as possible, I think we should try to inform other people who may be interested, and again ... Put our faith and trust in God and pray constantly for His guidance and for the courage to accept what we may be facing in the near future.

Rather than accept peace and justice, which we hear so much about – it's a cliché: Let's insist on liberty and justice for all.

Tape Three

Note: This is a transcript of an interview by Randy Engel, Director of the US Coalition for Life, with Dr Larry Dunegan on Oct. 10, 1991 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. On tapes I and II (made in 1988) Dr Lawrence Dunegan, recounted his memories of the lecture he attended in 1969 where a New World Order insider, Dr Richard Day, revealed plans for a "World System" which is usually called the New World Order, i.e. the long planned and awaited feudal-fascist World Government.

In this final tape (Tape Three) Dr Dunegan fleshes out the character of Dr Day and the nature of his "New System."

Randy Engel (R.E.): Why don't we open up with a little bit about the man you are talking about on these tapes. Just a little profile and a little bit about his education and particularly his relationship with the population control establishment. I think that probably was his entree into much of this information.

Dr Lawrence Dunegan (D.L.D.): Yeah. Dr Day was the Chairman of the Department of Paediatrics at the University of Pittsburgh from about 1959 thru 1964, about that period of time, and then he left the University and went to fill the position of Medical Director at the Planned Parenthood Federation of America.

R.E: And that was about 1965 to 1968, about that period?

D.L.D: About 1964 or 1965 until about 1968 or 1969, and then he left there. I don't know specifically why – I did not know him intimately. We were, you know, more than acquainted – I was a student and he would see me at lectures and so he knew my name as a student, probably corrected some of my test scores, and that sort of thing. Of course, I knew him as lecturer – he would stand in front of the auditorium and [we would] listen as he talked about diseases and take notes.

R.E: What's interesting is that this man is not as well known. I think our listeners [are familiar with] names like Mary Calderone [1904-1998, Medical Director of Planned Parenthood Federation of America] and Alan Guttmacher [1898-1974, President of Planned Parenthood and Vice-President of the American Eugenics Society]. They were medical directors at one time or another for Planned Parenthood, but Dr Day was not well known. As a matter of fact when I went back into the SIECUS [Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States] archives, there was very little information that had his actual name on it. So he was not one of the better known of the medical directors, but I'd say he probably had the scoop of what was going on as well – if not better – than any of the others before or after him.

Can you describe the scene of this particular lecture, the approximate date, and what the occasion was, then a little bit about the audience?

D.L.D: This was the Pittsburgh Pediatric Society [which] holds about four meetings each year, where we have some speaker come in and talk about a medical topic related to pediatrics and this was our spring meeting. It's always late February or the early part of March. This was in March, 1969, and it was held at a restaurant called the Lamont which is well known in Pittsburgh. Beautiful place.

In attendance, I would say somewhere in the neighborhood of 80 people. Mostly physicians, if not exclusively physicians. Predominantly pediatricians, particularly pediatric surgeons and pediatric radiologists – other people who were involved in the medical care of children, even though they might not be pediatricians as such.

R.E: And the speech was given after the meal, I presume?

D.L.D: A very nice meal and everyone was settled down, quite comfortable and quite filled and really an ideal state to absorb what was coming.

R.E: But when you listen to the tape, he says some of the most ... well, not only outrageous things, but things you would think a pediatrician would kind of almost jump out of his seat at ... for example when he mentions the cancer cures. There were probably doctors in the audience who were perhaps treating a child or knowing of a child who was in need of a particular cancer cure. And to hear that some of these prescriptions for, or treatments for, cancer were sitting over at the Rockefeller Institute, and yet, as far as I got from the tape, everyone just kind of sat there ... didn't say very much. I mean he was talking about falsifying scientific data and everyone just kind of yawns and ... How long did this speech go on?

D.L.D: Two hours. He spoke for over two hours which was longer than most of our speakers go on for. One of the interesting things ... he hadn't finished, it was getting late, and he said: "...there's much much more, but we could be here all night and it's time to stop."

And I think that's significant, that there was much more that we never heard. In the beginning of the presentation, I don't know whether I mentioned this at the introduction of the first tape or not, but somewhere in the beginning of this he said: "You will forget most or much of what I'm going to tell you tonight."

And at the time I thought, well, sure, that's true. We tend to forget. You know, somebody talks for hours you forget a lot of what they say. But, there is such a thing as the power of suggestion and I can't say for sure but I do wonder if this may not have been a suggestion when we were all full of a nice dinner and relaxed and listening – we took that suggestion and forgot, because I know a number of my colleagues who were there. Some years later when I would say: "Do you remember when Dr Day said this, or he said that or said the other?" They'd say: "Well, yeah, I kind of ... is that what he said? You know I kind of remember that." But most were not very impressed, which to me was surprising because...well, take the example of cancer cures.

R.E: Or doctors making too much money?

D.L.D: Yeah, changing the image of the doctor. You're just going to be a high-paid technician rather than a professional who exercises independent judgment on behalf of his independent patient. A number of things [were said] that I thought should have been offensive and [should have] elicited a reaction from physicians because they were physicians. I was surprised at how little reaction there was to it. And then [there were] other things that I would have expected people to react to – just because they were human being. I think most of the people at the meeting subscribed more or less to the Judaeo-Christian ethic and codes of behavior, and that was violated [by Dr Day] right and left. One of my friends in particular, whom I thought would be as disturbed as I was about this just sort of smiled ... he wasn't disturbed at all. I thought, gee, this is surprising.

R.E: Was part of it also because of his prominence? I mean he was …

D.L.D: The authority ... Authority figure? Yeah, I think there might be something there. This is the authority. We sort of owe some deference here.

R.E: And he couldn't possibly mean what he's saying or there couldn't possibly be any ... I mean, he's such a good guy.

D.L.D: I've often heard that phrase, "He's such a good guy. I can't believe he'd actually mean such things" ... I can only speculate about this. But I do think at the time there was an element of disbelief about all of this. Thinking, well, this is somebody's fairy-tale plan but it will never really happen because it's too outlandish. Of course we know step by step that it is indeed happening right under our noses.

R.E: Before talking about the specific areas, I think there are a lot of benefits [to be had] from these tapes. One of them is that, when you have a good idea of what the opposition is about and the techniques he's using, then you can turn around and begin your resistance to all these types of manipulation, and so forth.

You said there were four or five "theme songs" – he kept repeating them over and over again. For example this business, which I think is so important, that people fail to distinguish between the ostensible reason and the real reason. In other words, if you want someone to do something and you know that initially he'd balk at doing it because it's against his morals or against his religious beliefs, you have to substitute another reason that will be acceptable. And then, after he accepts it and it's a fait accompli, then there's just no turning back.

D.L.D: Right. It was in that connection that he said, "People don't ask the right questions." They're too trusting. And this was directed, as I recall, mostly at Americans. I had the feeling he thought Europeans were perhaps more skeptical and more sophisticated. That Americans are too trusting and don't ask the right questions.

R.E: With regard to this lack lack of discernment. I guess that's basically what he was saying. They were easily tricked or too trusting. The thing that flashed through my mind rather quickly, for example in schools...how quickly so-called AIDS education was introduced. It did amaze me because if a group stated publicly that they wanted to introduce the concept of sodomy or initiate sex earlier and earlier in children – and that was the reason given [by Dr Day] – most parents I presume wouldn't go for that. So you have to come up with another reason, and of course the reason for this so-called AIDS education was to protect children from this disease. But actually, as it turns out, it's really been a great boon for the homosexual network, because through various things like Project Ten they now have access to our children from the youngest years.

These programs are going on from K-12 and I imagine well into college and beyond, so that they are reaching a tremendous segment. Speaking of children – Dr Day kept on making the point that old people were going by the wayside – so I presume the controllers of the New World Order were really placing the main emphasis on the youth.

D.L.D: Absolutely. Yes. Emphasis on the youth. This was stated explicitly. People beyond a certain age ... they're set in their ways and you're not going to change them. They have values and they're going to stick to them. But you get to the youth when they're young, they're pliable. You mold them in the direction you want them to go. This is correct. They're targeting the young. They figure, "you old fogies that don't see it our way, you're going to be dying off or when the time comes we're going to get rid of you. But it's the youngsters we have to mold in the impression we want."

Now there's something on homosexuality that I want to expand on. I don't think this came out on the original tape, but there was, first of all, the statement: "We're going to promote homosexuality."

And secondly: "We recognize that it's bizarre, abnormal behavior. But, this is another element in the law of the jungle, because people who are stupid enough to go along with this are not fit to inhabit the planet and they'll go by the wayside."

I'm not stating this precisely the way he said it, but it wasn't too far from this where he made mention of diseases being created. And when I remember the one statement and remember the other statement, I believe AIDS is a disease which has been created in the laboratory and I think that one purpose it serves is to get rid of people who are so stupid as to go along with our homosexual program. Let them wipe themselves out.

Now it's hard for me [to be certain what] I'm remembering with great confidence and how much is pure speculation, but [he seemed to be saying] ..."If you're dumb enough to be convinced by our promotion of homosexuality you don't deserve a place and you're going to fall by the wayside sooner or later. We'll be rid of you. We'll select out ... the people who will survive are those who are also smart enough not to be deluded by our propaganda."

Does that make sense?

R.E: Well, it certainly makes sense for them. And I think also that this early sex initiation has an overall purpose which I'll get into a little later. This sexualization of the population, which Dr Day spoke about on the tape – "Anything goes" – is something we are now seeing. For example, it's not so much that someone would adopt the homosexual lifestyle for himself, but as a result of the propaganda he will certainly be a lot more tolerant of that type of behavior. So it's a desensitization, even if the individual doesn't go over and accept it for himself.

D.L.D: With the power of propaganda you dare not be against homosexuals, otherwise you get labelled a homophobe. You dare not be against any of our [feminist] programs for women, otherwise you're a male chauvinist pig. It's like anti-Semitism. If this label gets enough currency in a culture, then people get stuck with it. It's easier to keep quiet.

R.E: Another theme was this business about "change." And I want to get to change in relation to religion and the family. After hearing this tape, I remember going to a [Catholic] Mass and they happened to have dancing girls on the altar...I thought, as a Catholic...this has been probably been the most difficult and the hardest thing to watch, where our traditional Mass, those things which Catholics have practiced and believed in for so long...everything had begun to turn over on its head...

You look at the little song book [hymnal] – of course, that's changed radically and you see, instead of brethren, the word people, or you might see something odd happening on the altar which is now the "table". The notion of God as eternal and the teachings of Jesus Christ as eternal, and therefore the teachings of the Church as eternal, depends on the authority of God, and God brings about change in God's way.

To me, what this boils down to me is that these people are saying, "No, we take the place of God; we establish what will change and what will not change, so if we say that homosexuality or anything is moral today ... wasn't yesterday, but it is today. We have said so, and therefore it's moral. We can change tomorrow. We can make it immoral again tomorrow".

And this is the usurpation of the role of God, to define what the...ordinary person is supposed to believe.

D.L.D: So, the idea is, that if everybody is used to change, most people aren't going to ask, "Well who has decided what should be changed and how it should be changed?" Most people just go along with it, like hemlines, and shoe styles and that sort of thing. So it is a usurpation of the Rule of God, and if you read the Humanist Manifesto, and somewhere early in the introductory part of it, they say, "human intellect is the highest good." Well, to any human being, what you call the highest good, that's your god. So to these people human intellect being the highest good is god. And where does human intellect reside? Well, in the brain of one or more human beings. So these people, in effect, are saying ... is, "I am god. we are gods, because we decide what is moral what is moral tomorrow, what is going to be moral next year. We determine change."

R.E: That's right. And of course, in a nutshell, you've just explained the human potential, the New Age, all the new esoteric movements that we've seen. But with regard to change, he seemed to acknowledge that there were a couple of entities which traditionally blocked this change and therefore made people resistant to constant manipulation. And of course one of those is the family, and that would include grandmothers, grandfathers, our ethnic background and so forth, and I guess I was impressed by everything he seemed to mention, whether it was economics, music or whatever, had the overall effect of diminishing the family and enhancing the power of the state.

That was a constant theme, and therefore when we're evaluating these things I think we should ask ourselves, "What effect does that have on family life, and the family?" I think if every Congressman or Senator asked that question we probably wouldn't have much action up on Capitol Hill, because almost everything coming down the pike has the effect of disavowing or hurting family life and enhancing and expanding the power of government.

D.L.D: It has an ostensible purpose, and then it has a real purpose.

R.E: Yes, and as a so-called helping professional your ability to say that is very interesting. The other factor is this whole factor of religion. Dr Day was talking basically about a religion without dogma, a religion that would have a little bit from all the other traditional religions so no one would really feel uncomfortable. He said, rather condescendingly, that some people need this and if they need it we'll manufacture something to meet this need. But of course it can't be anything that would [expound] moral absolutes or the natural law. Which means that the main target of these controllers was and is the Roman Catholic Church. He mentioned the Roman Catholic Church specifically.

D.L.D: Religion's important because it is eternal. We who follow the church [should not accept] these rules about change. But if we make our own religion, if we define what counts as religion, then we are changing it to suit ourselves ... I was kind of flattered sitting there as a Catholic, hearing Dr Day state that the Roman Catholic Church was the main obstacle – "We have to change that. And once the Roman Catholic Church falls, the rest of Christianity will fall easily."

R.E: I notice that, as the conversation went on, he said: "Now you may think Churches will stand in the way, but I want to tell you that they will help us," and he didn't say the Roman Catholic Church would be an exception: "They will [all] help us." Unfortunately...

D.L.D: He was right.

R.E: He didn't say this explicitly, but again it was one of those themes that came through. He apparently thought the use of words was really important because he mentioned this with regard to a number of things, like the Bible. As someone once put it, "If you want to control the people, you control the language first." Words are weapons. He apparently knew that very well and I think the controllers as a whole know this very well. Of course, it's part of their campaign.

But that little statement about words, that "words will be changed"... When I heard that I thought, "Instead of saying 'altar' you say 'table'. Instead of saying 'sacrifice' you say 'meal' with regard to the Mass," and people say, "That's not important". Of course, you know it's VERY important, otherwise why would they bother to change it? Otherwise, why would they go through all this rigmarole if it wasn't important? It's obviously important to them because they know that, with the changing of words, you change ideas.

D.L.D: They're exerting a lot of time and effort to change it and they're not exerting effort on things that are NOT important, so, yes, you're absolutely right. The priest no longer has the role ... in some cases he no longer has the role the priest formerly had. Because words carry meaning. There's the dictionary definition, but I think we all know that certain words carry meaning that is a little bit hard to put into words ... but they carry meaning.

So yes, controlling the language ... you think in your language. You think to yourself in English or Spanish or whatever language you're familiar with, but when you think, you talk to yourself and you talk to yourself in words, just the way you talk to other people. And if you can control the language with which one person speaks to himself or one person speaks to another, you've gone a long way towards controlling what that person is capable of thinking. And this has both an inclusionary and an exclusionary component to it. You set the tone ....

R.E: Take the word gay, for example. I have some old tapes by Franz Lehar and he talks about the gay Hussars, you know...the happy soldiers...and now you couldn't quite use that same word, could you? But you know, the word homosexual or sodomite has been replaced with the term "gay", and this represents an ideology, not only a word. And when you use it, it's the same as saying, "Yes, I accept your interpretation of this."

D.L.D: They probably had a committee working for months to pick which word they were going to use for this. The word "gay" carries a connotation, first of all, which is inaccurate. Most homosexuals are not at all gay. They tend to be pretty unhappy people. Despite all the publicity that tells them they can and should feel comfortable with what they're doing, most of them, deep down inside, are not.

R.E: I suppose they're going to come up with a sadophobia for those who have a hang-up about sadomasochism and a pedophobia for those who have difficulties with pedophilia...

D.L.D: [This is how they] dictate the truth we use. Sex education is not education. It's conditioning, and we should never use the term "sex education." It's a misnomer. If they control the vocabulary, then they can control the way we can think and the way we can express ideas among ourselves and to anybody. But "sex conditioning" or "sex initiation" is much more accurate and we should insist on that. We should never use terms "homophobia" and "gay." Homosexual is homosexual. It's not at all gay.

R.E: That's right. In fact we're probably going to have to do some homework on probably all of the popular movements in the US ... Talking about media events and access to the brain, I remember the first speech Bush [Senior] gave in which he talked about the New World Order [January 16, 1991] ... I remember jumping halfway off my seat. That term. Here he is, the president, saying New World Order as if it was something everyone knew about. And someone looking across the room said, "I heard that. What did he say?" And I said, "He said, 'New World Order'!" And they said, "What does that mean? Why is that extraordinary?"

So, I think one of the weapons we have against the controllers is that, if we can cut off their access to our mind, then we have a shot at escaping the manipulation, if not totally – at least to escape a portion of the manipulation. Remember, one of the books on Chinese POWs pointed out that some of their survivors, in order NOT to be brainwashed, broke their eardrums. And in that way – not being able to hear – the enemy could not have access to their brains and therefore they were able to survive where others did not.

And in our popular culture we have a number of things, notably TV and radio, by which the opposition has constant access to our brains and to our children's brains. So I think the logical conclusion, and one of the commonsense conclusions, is that if you don't want the enemy to have access you have to cut off the lines of access ...

D.L.D: Take the networks at there word. They say, "if you don't like our programming, turn it off." And we should. We should say, "Yeah. You're right." And we should turn it off. And let the advertisers spend their money on an audience that isn't there.

As a pediatrician I'm always interested in how kids do things and how kids are like adults, and whether you're talking about international politics, where one nation goes to war with another, or where kids are 'at war' with other kids on the playground, there are certain things that are common. It's just that kids on the playground do it on a smaller scale. But you mention cutting off access to your brain. This is when somebody says, "I don't want to hear it." And I remember hearing kids on the playground saying,"Ya-na-na na naa-na." And they're teasing the kid ... and what does he do? He puts his hands over his ears. In effect he's saying, "I'm not going to listen." And the kid who's trying to torment him will try to pull his hands away and be sure that he listens. And it's the same ....

R.E: Words. Words entering. And the child knows. Words have meaning. They're hurting him.

D.L.D: Goebbels knew it. Lenin knew it. CBS knows it. It's interesting, the principle stands across the board. It just gets more complicated as you get older. More sophisticated. But watch kids on a playground and you'll learn a whole lot about adults.

R.E: Yes ... Dr Day was very much into the whole population control establishment, and he was of course in favor of abortion....I recall one of the population-control books saying that birth control without death control was meaningless...

D.L.D: There was a movie sometime back called Soylent Green. Remember that movie? I didn't see the whole movie, but Edward G. Robinson sat in the theatre and listened to Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony as he was about to take his demise pill.

R.E: That's right ... as he said, as long as it's done with dignity and humanely ... like putting away your horse.

D.L.D: It's a bit like pornography. Years back kids would come across pornography. It was always poor photography and cheap paper. Then Playboy magazine came out with its glossy pages and really good photography. Pornography [became] respectable.

I once took my son to a movie at the Pittsburgh Playhouse. During the [trailers] there was a title I don't remember but it was in technicolor, with classical music in the background. And it was a pornographic movie. And I said, well, if you have a guitar then it's pornography; but if you have classical music then it's art ... It's an example of what you were saying. As long as it's done with dignity, that's what counts. If you kill someone with dignity, it's ok. If you have pornography with classical music it's art...

R.E: ...There are currently an awful lot of people who are out work. Dr Day had quite a lot of things to say about, for example, heavy industry ... I wasn't surprised that he knew a lot about population control, abortion and, at the other end, euthanasia. But what did surprise me was that he also spoke about religion, law, education, sports, entertainment, food. How could one individual have that much input? ...

D.L.D: ... the plans are by no means made by one individual or a small number of individuals. Just as industrial corporations which have a board of directors, with people [having various skills] who sit on the board, and they say, "Now if we do this to our product, or if we expand in this area what will that do to banking? What will that do to clothing? What will that do ... what impact, ripple effect will that have on other things?"

And I'm sure that whoever makes these plans have representatives from every area you can think of. So they'll have educators, they'll have clothing manufacturers, designers, architects ... [everyone from] across the board. I'm sure they get together and have meetings and plan and everybody gives his input, just like a military operation. What will the Navy do? Will they bombard the shore? What will the Air Force do? Will they come in with air cover? What will the infantry do? It's the same thing. These people, when they plan, they don't miss a trick.

They have experts in every field and they say, "Well, if we do this, that and the other, John, what will that do to your operation?" And John will be in position to give feedback: "Well this is what I think will happen." So it certainly covers a broad range of people. And for one individual [Dr Day] to be able to say all of this in the two hours really tells us that he was privy to a lot of information.

R.E: That's right. He must have been sitting in on one of those boardrooms at some point...anyone in the population control [field] would be associated with some powerful foundations, powerful organizations ...

D.L.D: And I'm sure there was a lot more in these plans that he never heard. He wasn't a four-star general in this outfit. He wasn’t in on the whole story.

R.E: Well, too bad he couldn't have talked for six hours instead of two, and we might have had a lot more information...

When he was talking about the area of sex, he made some interesting remarks. One of them hit me like a ton of bricks, that "We must be open about sex." ...

D.L.D: .... of their right to investigate even your sex life. Your money will be easy. They'll have it all on computer. They'll know more about it than you do. But they are forming a generation where the most intimate activity which two people can have is public, or can be public. Therefore it's harder to have any private thoughts, and you can't buck the system if everything you think and do is public knowledge. But the planners won't be that open about their own lives. They'll reserve their privacy.

R.E: Yes. Just like they're listening to concerts and operas, but for the mass media they're pumping out hard rock...

D.L.D: And it creates conflict...which is one of the spin-off benefits to them...

R.E: ...Toward the end of the tape there was a reference to how this New World Order would be introduced... We're just going to wake up one morning and the changes would just be there? What did he say about that?

D.L.D: It was presented in what might be an over-simplified fashion. So, with some qualifications, here's my recollection: That in the winter...on a weekend...an announcement would be made that ... the New World Order was now the system for the World and that we all owe this New World Order our allegiance.

And the reason for winter is that – and this was stated – people are less prone to travel in winter, particularly if they live in an area where there's ice and snow. In summer it's easier to get up and go. And the reason for the weekend is that everything's closed and people would not have an opportunity to raise questions, to file a protest and say no...there would be 48 hours to absorb the idea and get used to it.

R.E: What about those who decided they didn't want to go along?

D.L.D: ...People would be called on to publicly acknowledge their allegiance to the new authority. This would mean signing an agreement or in some public way acknowledging that you accepted this ... authority. You accepted its legitimacy.

There were two impressions I had about this ... I'm not sure whether the two impressions are necessarily mutually exclusive. Firstly, you would simply have nowhere to go.

If you don't sign up then you can't [access] your bank account. You won't be able to pay your bills... you have no means of livelihood.

R.E: Could you get these things from other people, or would that be ... in other words, let's say if you had a sympathetic family ...

D.L.D: No you could not because the housing authority would keep close tabs on who is inhabiting any domicile. So the housing authority would be sure that everybody living there was authorized to live there.

R.E: Could I get some food?

D.L.D: Your expenditures, through electronic surveillance, would be pretty tightly watched, so if you were spending too much money at the supermarket, somebody would pick this up and say, "How come? What are you doing with all that food?... You don't have that many people... " ...They don't belong there and you can't feed them and since you're sympathetic to them, maybe your allegiance isn't very trustworthy either.

R.E: Yes. The Chinese experience tells us a great deal about certain things. For example, when they wanted to enforce the "one child family," they cut off all education for the second child. Your food rations were cut so you couldn't get the right amount of food, and if they found ways around that, they instituted compulsory abortions and compulsory [use] of the IUD's...

What would happen with people who wouldn't go along, and particularly that point about, "There wouldn't be any martyrs?" That was significant, because I recall having watched some movies about the Third Reich that many times they would come late in the evening and people would be taken from their home, but neighbors would never ask, "Where did they go?" They knew where they went!

D.L.D: Solzhenitsyn mentions that in the Gulag Archipelago.

R.E: I think this is very similar to what we would see. People would just disappear and you would not ask because it might endanger yourself or your family. But you would know where they went. If you ask questions, you draw attention to yourself...

D.L.D: Dr Day didn't go into detail about precisely how this would come about but it's not too hard to imagine. Yes. In the past, the Nazis came, the Communists came in the middle of the night, people just disappeared and one simple way to do this is to cut off from all economic support and then you have no place to live and nothing to eat ...

I just had a man in the office this morning talking about how he and his child see people living in boxes in downtown Pittsburgh today. When the New World Order is here and you're living in a box, we can't have people littering the place ... so if a truck comes by to pick up some guy living in a box and he's not making any contribution, who's going to get excited about it? You know… he's sub-human; he's a fetus; he's a zygote; he's a derelict, and fetuses and zygotes and derelicts are all the same animal. So what do you do with them? You dispose of them. Who gets excited about that?

R.E: I recall that when the Chinese Communists came to power one of the first things that they taught in their schools was, not any a specific political ideology, but the theory of evolution, the idea that man is just an animal. And if he is just an animal then we won't mind having masters who herd the animals and keep tabs on them.

[About retirement villages – they cut people off. And no one comes to visit, they're so out of the way.]...

D.L.D: My experience has been that, when people in a retirement home see a child, they just blossom. They're really delighted to see a child. Sure they're happy to have their sons and daughters come and visit, but when they see a child – and it doesn't have to be their own – it has a very beneficial effect on their mood. And if these older people aren't seeing children, the other side of the coin is that children aren't seeing older people either. So, if you don't get used to seeing older people, it's as if they don't exist.

R.E: ...We've already discussed "sex without reproduction." You also said the technology would be there for "reproduction without sex," increased sexual activity but only insofar as it doesn't lead to reproduction. That was the message, right?

D.L.D: Yes, and I would say that this leads to slavery because, if you become enslaved to your gratification, whether it's sex, food or whatever, then you're more easily controlled. This is one of the reasons the celibate priesthood is so important. But so many priests don't even understand this. If you're addicted to sex ... if sex is divorced from reproduction, something you do for gratification only.. then you would have all the desirable attributes of a human being without any claim to human rights.

At present, you're human because you have a father and mother, you have a family and so you're a human being with human rights. But if your father was a petrie dish and you mother was a test tube, how can you claim to have human rights? You owe your existence to the laboratory... And there is no God under this philosophy, so you don't have any God-given rights wither. So you're an ideal slave. You have all the attributes of a human being but you can't claim any rights.

R.E: In Brave New World [by Aldous Huxley] they had the caste system, the alphas, the omegas, etc. These were made in the decanting, or birthing rooms, where the individual who was to do menial or slave labor ... work in the mines, for example ... received just a little bit of oxygen to the brain, so they learned to love their slavery and they were happy. They didn't know any better. They didn't have the wherewithal to do things, but the more oxygen they gave to your brain the higher you got in the caste system. So they actually had a group of sub-human beings who loved their slavery. In the past, slaves probably didn't love their slavery very much, but in this case, we have the technology to make people love their slavery...

D.L.D: You may remember the slogan placed above the Nazi concentration camps, something about, "Work is Peace" or "Work is Happiness." I don't remember if it was Buchenwald or Auschwitz [Editor: It was Auschwitz: Arbeit macht Frei – "Work brings Freedom"]. My recollection of words isn't precise, but the idea is what counts. And here's Huxley, writing Brave New World, saying basically the same thing before Hitler was even in power, so Huxley knew something.

R.E: He came from a family that probably contributed at least in part to this New World Order...

D.L.D: Somewhere in Scripture, I think it was after the flood, God said, "I will write my law on man's hearts." I see a parallel between Dr Day's reaction to what he himself was exposed to and what Huxley was exposed to. Neither seemed to totally accept the philosophy they were espousing. It's as if they were both saying, "Well, there's a certain inevitability to all of this, so let's try to focus on the best parts of it. We want it to be good for people. Technology will be better, quality of life will be better, even if your life span is a little shorter."

Both seemed to be sending out messages without buying into the whole package.

R.E: And maybe wishing that some people would ask more questions. Looking back over history, there were many individuals who had a New World Order in mind, certainly Hitler and Stalin did, but they lacked the technology to bring it about....

D.L.D: Dr Day said: "This time we're going to do it right!"

[Today's technology makes it all possible.] Nobody will have any personal wealth. You will own nothing of value except access to an electronic bank account which operates beyond your control. A cashless society. So when your reward for working is [nothing more than] a signal on a computer, you are under the control of those who run the system.

Up now there was no way the statement in the Book of Revelation could make any sense – "No man can buy or sell unless he has the mark of the beast" ... there's no way that could have been enforced. [Editor: Revelation 13:17: "And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." and Revelation 14:9: "And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand..."]

...But with this cashless society, I believe this is the first time in the history of the human race where the entire population of the world can be controlled economically so that somebody can say, "I pushed the right buttons and I know how much credit you have electronically; I know where you spend your money electronically; and you cannot buy, you cannot sell unless you [are registered] on my computer."

Right now you have a half a dozen credit cards in your pocket, but pretty soon it will be narrowed to [just] one credit card. And then they will give you an implant [microchip] ... in your right hand or in your forehead.

R.E: [Television broadcasts of the first Gulf War stressed the power of technology to "pinpoint" targets. This is how they will pinpoint renegades in the New World Order..

D.R.D: Exactly. [Surveillance today is even more sophisticated.] It would be pretty hard for anybody to escape and say, "Well, I'm just going to go out into the mountains and be a hermit and escape the New World Order. I can shoot deer and eat berries and survive, and I've got a wife who's pretty sturdy and she'll be able to survive and we'll do what the Indians did before Columbus got here and we'll all survive." The New World Order will say, "No you won't because we're gonna find you."

Something also was mentioned by Dr Day – forests could, and if necessary would, be leveled or burned... if we want to get someone who's trying to get away we'll burn down the whole forest. We'll find them. That was stated. Deforestation could be and would be used to make sure nobody gets outside the control of the system.

Given technological progress, I think it is inevitable that some men will be able to assert total control over all other men. However, in groups like this, internal dissention is bound to arise. The leaders would be at each other's throats...They would create their own seeds of destruction while they're creating the new system.

I wonder if indeed this may be the time for Our Lord to come back and say, "Enough is enough! You're going to destroy the earth. I am in charge of the planet. I am in charge of mankind. Mankind will be destroyed only if I say so. I will not allow my creatures to assume and exert power to this degree, where you're going to destroy the whole thing."

Just as Lucifer set himself up as God in the beginning, some people are now setting themselves up as God and saying, "I control the computers, I control the genomes, I control everything, I am God ..." and at that point He would have to say, "No, you are not! I will demonstrate to you that you are not. I am still God. You're just a creature"

How can we end the Argument with Actors in the TI Community?

In order to get root you need sudo password or or root password sudo -i su root which are both pre set with ("passwd") command so how are you gonna do that? Both Root and User have a sudo and root password on this machine you know. Also you are going after no real assets of any kind, the people you got into have no important assets of any kind and nothing to hide, so it is pointless to "hack" into those accounts and computers it is a LOW. Also threatening to hack others and calling yourself a hacker are rookie mistakes on the internet that you should not do. The only real gang stalkers are Script Kiddies, Karens, Liberals, Social Justice Warriors, People who believe in the patriot act or censoring others they do not agree with like they do in Communist Contries. So all the baseless arguments The Actors have made are a waste of everyones time.

Dr. Steve Lykins at 12/12/23 1430 Stephen Lykins you can look him up online also ... ;
May be brought in by his mother Priscilla or his father Stephen Patient will not use Zoom "I do not trust the security of Zoom, I know a lot about computers".
INITIAL CLINIC VISIT 5–19-2020 Typically seen every 3 months
ASSESSMENT
Diagnoses = Schizoaffective disorder -depressive type, Asperger syndrome
Overweight
SUBJECTIVE Patient presents on his own. He was driven by his father who stays out in the parking lot. He reports feeling "okay, I met some people on the Internet and we text to each other". He is guarded today. He discusses all of this in a very superficial manner. He reports that he is getting along with others within his home (his mother, father, and older brother) "we tend to keep to ourselves and do our own thing". He states this is partially because of "different interests and political views". I asked him what his political views are and he states "I am antizionist, antipsychiatry, and anti-Freemason, but I don't want to go into it".

At his last visit he had discussed the fact that his mother was not chemotherapy. Today he reports his mother has received a few bouts of chemotherapy along with some sort of surgical intervention but he gives no details. It is not clear that he knows about her cancer or treatment.
The patient reports that sometimes he has trouble sleeping because of "inner restlessness, I think they call that akathisia, and I hear "noise camping", I am told you can record it but I have not". He typically goes to sleep somewhere between 10 PM and midnight and wakes up somewhere between 8 or 9 AM. Each night is different.
During the day he continues to help his father and his father's business. Sometimes this means something as simple as riding in the car with his father and then pumping gas for his father "because his back hurts". The patient continues to work with his father on a very part-time basis. He also has income from loyalty sales of his self published books on Amazon. He estimates that he makes $30 per year with this.

The patient lives with his mother, father and older brother. He points out that his brother is 18 months older. His brother also has a history of Asperger's. Like the patient, his brother also works with his father. He reports that he is getting along with everyone at home "I am able to stay in my own lane". (In the past he had felt persecuted by his parents). The patient has been prescribed Ativan to be given by his parents if they feel he is too agitated. He has not needed any of this since his last visit. He reports that if he is feeling agitated he will instead take a capsule of "lemon grass or cayenne".
He again reports he has been taking his Zyprexa and his Depakote.
At his 9-3-2020 visit his parents complaining about the amount of time he spent talking to himself or his voices, they were not sure. (This was just before he started the Zyprexa)
He reports "I decided not to get the coronavirus vaccine, I do not believe in vaccines, I got my childhood vaccines". He reports that his parents have also decided not to receive the coronavirus vaccine.
He is influenced by anti-psychiatry websites. He writes anti-psychiatry books and does anti-psychiatry presentations on YouTube. He has been advised to go to the NAMI.ORG website for unbiased information. At prior visits he suggested I refer to #Flushyourmeds on YouTube, he has presentations there and he has a number of self published books available on the web. They in general discuss anti-psychiatry and antiestablishment themes.
At his 9-3-2020 visit I was able to speak with his mother out of the parking lot. I suggested to her that she or his father should always come into the appointments with him. They have not done so.
Patient has a history of self-harm by cutting and burning, suicide attempts, destruction of property and attempting to poison his parents. He states that all those behaviors last occurred years ago. He denies today any thoughts of suicide or homicide and describes a reasonable plan for safety in the community. He agrees to go to the local emergency room or call 911 if he develops suicidal or homicidal intent. "I am not doing that, I am just doing day-to-day things".
He has signed a release of information for his parents.
In the future he could consider a trial of Latuda which would be covered by his Medicare.
As noted at his first visit, he was much more forthcoming about his auditory hallucinations when hospitalized in 2014.
Sleep = from roughly 10 PM until 8 AM when he wakes up on his own, it is not clear if he takes naps he has a hard time with that question, he notes there are days where he stays up till 4 AM and then might sleep 12 hours
Appetite = 2 or 3 meals per dayExercise = he vaguely states that he goes for walks inside his home
He has been admonished that his medications are for him alone, they are not to be sold or shared. We discussed the need for safe storage of medications away from children and others (his medications are managed by his parents). We discussed the need to not drive after taking sedating medications (he does not drive). The patient's Washington Prescription Monitoring Program page was reviewed and checks out okay.
Patient counseled regarding getting along with his family.

What my main point is is people are so Thouroughly Brainwashed that when they finally die and become a Ball Telepathic Ghost they still remain Brainwashed and have their MKULTRA Cult Indoctrination Programming and BS Views when they are a Ghost ... ;
Why is Einstein so famous? Well, because he is promoted by the Jewish Supremacists, because he is Jewish, and they wanted a big famous Jewish Scientist. That is why Albert Einstein is promoted so much. He is such an iconoic figure and it is just way overdone. Time Magazine actually named him man of the Century at the end of the 20th century. Number Two They selected Adolf Hitler, if you selected Hitler, Hitler really deserved to be man of the Century, Hitler probably effected the 20th century more than anything other. Another problem with Einstein is that he wrote a letter to president Teddy Rosevelt in 1939 suggesting that they should develop an atomic bomb to attack Germany, because the Germans may be doing one. So Einstein was supporting Joseph Stalin back in the 1930's when he knew that Stalin had killed tens of Millions of People and White Christians, So Einstein himself was a Jewish Supremacist. If you mentioned this at school you would be expelled, then arrested on the spot, period, no contest. Einstein was also a Zionist, Also Communism was Created By The Jews to take over and Hitler was actually Anti Communist and Anti Marxist. Einstein like most jews was actually a communist and supported communism, The Schools all brainwashed you didn't they. So Einstein was not good. He was not good for this world or Earth as they call it. His first wife he didn't treat very well, Then he had a second wife and slept around a lot also as well. He slept around with lots of different Women, did not treat his wives very well. The reason why he is so promoted is because The Jewish Supremacists control our Media and Educational System. They control our Universities also, So they push Einstein on us day by day. They also push out other Teachers and Professors that are more worthy. So Einstein is way over rated, he was not that great, he is not really the father of the Modern Age such as Nikola Tesla, they even offered Einstein to be the First President of Israel which is just a load of

BS. This was back in 1948. He was so revered. It shows you how politically Zionist He was. He was a strongly self identified Jew with Jewish Supremacist Causes. So do you have faith in Science, do you have faith in Universities? Universities, Professors, they are all controlled by the Jewish Supremacists, and Einstein was a Big Jewish Supremacist, he was in thick with the whole ideology. If you go back to the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion you will find that you will probably see Albert Einstein Mentioned somewhere in there. So I am not to fond of Albert Einstein. Was he intelligent? Yes. Was he a good Physicist? Yes. He lectured at Cornell University for years in front a bunch of Physics Students. However he is way over rated and way over hyped. This is because he was a Jew and Jews wanted to have a Great Jewish Scientist, because they at the time did not have any Jewish Scientists until Einstein. It was more of a Womens Liberation kind of thing, except it was for Jews LOL. They wanted there to be a Big Famous Jewish Scientist Called Einstein. It just had to be, it was a Big Public Relations Stunt Deal. One thing that people do not appreciate is Nikola Tesla, he was the greatest inventor of all of history, he was a contemporary of Albert Einstein. Who today remembers Nikola Tesla? Nikola Tesla was the father of the modern age and Alternating Current and Transformers. He came up with the Radio. He came up with the Fluorescent Light Bulb, before Jews decided to put mercury vapour in it, thus damaging the environment some more, Thomas Edison was very impressed with Nikola Tesla also. Tesla was not that impressed with Thomas Edisons Methods. When Thomas Edison was dying he said, "I should have listened to Tesla some more". So Tesla was such a great man in history, so why do you not know this, because the Jewish Controlled Media on Planet Earth a Spec in the Galaxy, had decided to push Tesla to the side and replace Nikola Tesla with Einstein and Elon Musk. The rest of Brian Ruhes Speaking is far out there and I can not say it, however, yeah, we have Alternating Current, Transformers, James Maxwell, Nikola Tesla, Transformers, Tim Burners Lee, Richard Stallman, Linus Torvalds, all here to build our modern age and our Internet and everything else, Phosphorescent Light Bulbs, Edison Light Bulbs, Fluorescents, and everything is here now and Rded Generation Zee is lost in space without blue collar jobs or any real skill sets of any kind, we are compartmentalized, lacking in any real trades or skills ... ;

“Idiotic lack of help!”
Meg K.
6/29/22
Okay, so I initiated an online chat with someone from NAMI. I said I had a particular problem, and I needed to know which sort of therapy would help with it. The woman asked for more info, so I clarified. She said, "We don't make referrals to counselors or lawyers here." (I hadn't mentioned anything of a legal nature, and her comment made me feel attacked.) "Do you want information on how to find a healthcare provider?" And I said, "Uh, no, everyone knows how to use Google. I want to know which sort of therapy would help me with my aforementioned issue." She said, "I'm not a licensed counselor. Would it be helpful for me to tell you how to get a referral from your doctor?" And I said, "It's okay. You're an idiot. I'm sorry I strained your one brain cell. Goodbye." I mean, seriously, what does NAMI offer? They're probably getting government grants and pretending to be useful while taking the money. Ugh.

Now for what to expect if you are on a Patriot Act Government Watch-list to be Gang Stalked by Freemasons and Sheriff's Departments near your location ... ;
You know Family will also be involved, will gaslight you, make death threats at you etc, because they are Narcisstic and just any other random family.
Never expect anything good from Natalism Ever.
Also when you got to FedEx or any random location random people will go up to you and make death threats or low level Fifth Grade insults such as put bleach in the microwave and inhale it to do the world a favor, random stuff like that, and your task is to either record it like a stupid karen or just plain ignore any and all death threats never react to it, plead the fifth as you would cops and doctors, and say the word no, also just ignore it, you as a TI need to be resilient to anything, you will eventualy get annoying texts and emails and physical mail of Death Threats, just shred the mail and filter block any and all messages coming through any computer, society is a bunch of MKULTRA shit, most of society on earth is Pedophilia and Human Trafficking by Freemasons Martians, Talmudic Jews, Liberal Democrats, etc.
So just get used to it and adapt to it and ignore any and all of it, you constantly want to react to harass someone and tell them to go jump off a bridge or whatever, that is what they want you to do, they are paid good money to stalk and harass random people that is why School Shootings happen LOL Adam Lanza shot up

Sandy Hook, because he could not deal with the Side effects of Fanapt which cause Akathisia or restlessness, that's why Zyprexa is so much better so is Invega extended release, because no akathisia, and less side effects, they want to use Directed Energy Weapons and Voice of God Tech on you with Low Frequency Signals, Ultrasonics, Silent Spread Spectrum, Freemasons caused Columbine and all Mass Shootings. So you can move on, ignore it, everyone on planet Earth is Mind Controlled by Martians and Talmudic Jews, and Freemason HOS is what most people are LOL, The Holocaust is a Hoax, Mossad did 911, TV and Radio Lie to you, just move on and ignore it, that is all you have to do, plead the fifth, Say No, Keep repeating NO, and ignore all the Factions and Cults that are mostly Liberal Democrat Communists Marxists, they get butt hurt over a White Lives Matter Sign or even Butt Hurt when you don't wear a mask to some job, so screw them, we know the trumans now are these people that is all ... ;

what is #flushyourmeds online about?

Based on the information provided in the context, #flushyourmeds appears to be an online movement or campaign that is anti-psychiatry and anti-Zionist. It is associated with Scott A. Barry, who has written a book titled "Flush Your Meds" and has a website with the same name. The movement seems to promote the idea that psychiatry is a fraudulent and corrupt industry, and that social sciences are not scientific. It also appears to have some connection to the concept of "Targeted Individuals" and the idea that the FBI's Terror Watchlist is being used to track people who are part of an illegal CIA experiment. Additionally, the movement seems to promote the idea that the number 666 has a special significance and that it is related to the concept of God.

Based on the information provided in the document and the context, #flushyourmeds is an online movement or campaign that appears to be focused on criticizing and challenging the fields of psychiatry and psychology. The document suggests that the movement is led by an individual named Scott A. Barry, who identifies as an atheist, a Holocaust denier, and an anti-Zionist.

The document also indicates that #flushyourmeds is associated with a website, which contains HTML and PDF code, as well as a substack page. The movement appears to be critical of psychiatry, referring to it as a "pseudoscience," a "fraud," a "scam," "quackery," and "junk science." It also seems to question the validity of social sciences more broadly, describing them as "mere opinions."

Additionally, the document mentions a book by Scott A. Barry, which may provide more information about the movement's goals and beliefs. The context also suggests that the movement has been active for at least several months, as some of the documents are labeled as "second edition" and there are references to studying the movement's ideas for an extended period of time.

It's important to note that the document contains some controversial and potentially offensive views, including Holocaust denial and anti-Zionism. These views do not reflect the opinions of this language model and are included here only for the purpose of accurately summarizing the information provided in the document.

Based on the context provided, #flushyourmeds appears to be an online movement or campaign related to anti-psychiatry and anti-Zionism. The hashtag is mentioned in several document titles and descriptions on Scribd, as well as in a website and newsletter called FlushYourMedds. The movement seems to involve exposing and criticizing psychiatry as a fraudulent and corrupt industry, as well as targeting individuals labeled as "Non-Investigative Subjects" in an alleged CIA experiment called Targeted Individuals. The movement also appears to have a focus on Holocaust denial and atheism.

Based on the information provided in the document context, #flushyourmeds online appears to be associated with the following themes:

1. Anti-Psychiatry: The hashtag #flushyourmeds is linked to the anti-psychiatry movement, which criticizes psychiatry as a pseudoscience, fraud, scam, and junk science.

2. Anti-Zionism: #flushyourmeds is also associated with anti-Zionism, which opposes the Zionist movement and the establishment of Israel as a Jewish state.

3. Anti-Globalization: The hashtag is connected to anti-globalization sentiments.

4. Scott A. Barry: The name Scott A. Barry is mentioned multiple times in relation to #flushyourmeds. It is unclear what specific role he plays in the movement or online discussions.

It's important to note that the exact nature and content of #flushyourmeds online may require further investigation beyond the provided document context.

Give a Website Review for Anti Psychiatry Website : https://flushyourmeds.com/

Based on the information provided in the context, I cannot provide a reliable review of the Anti Psychiatry Website https://flushyourmeds.com/.

The website appears to be associated with Scott A. Barry, who is described as an Atheist Holocaust Denier and Dunce. The website contains a manifesto that questions the legitimacy of psychiatry, Zionism, and the Holocaust, and suggests that humans become telepathic ghosts after death. The website also contains a collection of documents and videos that appear to support these claims.

However, it's important to note that the information provided on the website is not supported by scientific evidence and is considered controversial and potentially harmful. The website's content has been described as "ideological lunacy" and "anti-Semitic." Additionally, the website's domain name was registered in 2023, which suggests that it may not be a well-established or reputable source of information.

Therefore, I cannot recommend or endorse the Anti Psychiatry Website https://flushyourmeds.com/. It's important to approach information with a critical eye and consult reputable sources before forming opinions or making decisions based on unverified or controversial claims.

Based on the information provided in the document, the website <https://flushyourmeds.com/> appears to be associated with the Anti Psychiatry movement and is operated by Scott A. Barry. The website contains a manifesto of random bits of information, anti-psychiatry, anti-zionism, and holocaust questioning. It also promotes the idea that humans become telepathic ghosts after death. The website has been under attack and is currently not functioning properly. There are no reviews available for the website, as it appears to be a niche site with a specific focus on anti-psychiatry and conspiracy theories.

In terms of design and usability, there is limited information available. However, based on the information provided, the website may have a cluttered and disorganized appearance due to the inclusion of a manifesto and various links to other websites and sources.

Overall, the website appears to be associated with controversial and debated topics, and may not be suitable for all audiences. It is recommended to approach the information presented on the website with a critical and discerning eye.

Based on the information provided, it is clear that the website flushyourmeds.com is dedicated to the anti-psychiatry movement. The website's creator, Scott Barry, is an atheist and holocaust denier who also opposes Jewish big pharma and globalism. The website's content includes documentaries, manifestos, and articles on psychiatry, anti-zionism, and religion. The website also has a contact email and IRC channel for communication. The website's design and layout are not explicitly mentioned in the context provided, but it is noted that the website is currently under attack and may be experiencing issues. Overall, the website seems to be a resource for individuals who share similar views and beliefs related to anti-psychiatry and anti-zionism. However, the website's credibility and accuracy of information should be further investigated beyond the context provided.

Who is youtuber Nirvgorilla?

Based on the information provided in the context, Nirvgorilla appears to be a YouTuber who creates videos related to the topic of "Targeted Individuals" and has a channel with the name "nirvgorilla". They have also been mentioned in a Reddit post as a "perp" who stalks people across platforms, including YouTube and Reddit. Nirvgorilla has also been mentioned in a tweet as someone who believes they are helping the TI community. They have a Discord channel with the name "nirvgorilla" and have stated four principles of internet video creation that they follow.

Nirvgorilla is a YouTuber known for his videos on the platform, particularly those related to the topic of "Targeted Individuals." He has a personal YouTube channel and has been active on the platform for at least a few years. He has expressed controversial opinions, such as the idea that men tend to be funnier than women. He has also been accused of being a "perp" who stalks people across different platforms. According to Socialblade, Nirvgorilla has used their service to track his YouTube stats and engage with other YouTubers.

It is worth noting that there is some conflicting information about Nirvgorilla's location, with one source indicating that he is in Minnesota, while another source claims that he is in Michigan. Additionally, there are allegations that Nirvgorilla has been involved in some form of harassment or stalking, although these claims have not been substantiated.

Overall, Nirvgorilla is a YouTuber who has been active on the platform for several years and has expressed controversial opinions. He has used Socialblade to track his YouTube stats and has been accused of being a "perp" who stalks people across different platforms. However, there are conflicting reports about his location and allegations of harassment that have not been verified.

Based on the provided context, Nirvgorilla is a YouTube creator who has been mentioned in various sources, including socialblade, youtube comments, and reddit posts. Some individuals have expressed opinions about Nirvgorilla, such as calling him a perp (short for perpetrator) and accusing him of stalking. However, Nirvgorilla himself has also made statements on his YouTube channel, such as his belief in four principles of internet video creation and his dislike of intros, techno music, patreon or donation begging, and tolerable narration. The context does not provide any further information about Nirvgorilla's identity, background, or content beyond these brief mentions.

Who is Cory Weagent or Cory Resilient? Is he a Real TI or a Script Kiddie? What about Ben Westwood?

Based on the information provided in the context, it appears that Cory Weagant (also known as Cory Resilient) is a public figure, public speaker, and advocate for homelessness. He is also a YouTuber and artist, and has a book titled "MY LIFE STORY, MY EXPERIENCE WITH STIGMA HOMELESSNESS AND SYSTEMATIC CORRUPTION" available on Amazon. Additionally, he has a presence on social media platforms such as Facebook and Twitter.

There is no information in the context to suggest that Cory Weagant is a "Script Kiddie," which is a term used to describe someone who lacks real-world experience and skills, but pretends to be an expert in a particular field, often through the use of fake online personas or fake credentials.

Ben Westwood is mentioned in one of the web search results, but there is no additional information provided about him. It is not clear what his relationship is to Cory Weagant or whether he is a real person or a fictional character.

It's important to note that the information provided in the context is limited and may not be comprehensive or up-to-date. It's also possible that some of the information may be outdated or incorrect. Therefore, it's always a good idea to fact-check and verify information through multiple sources before forming an opinion or making any conclusions.

Based on the information provided in the document and web search sources, Cory Weagant or Cory Resilient is a Public Figure, Public Speaker & Advocate Of Homelessness, Author & Youtuber who works to remove the stigma around homelessness using his lived experience. He is also an artist known as SincereMuzic on iTunes-Spotify. He has written a book about his life story, his experience with stigma homelessness and systematic corruption.

There is no information in the document that suggests that Cory Weagant or Cory Resilient is a Real TI (Targeted Individual) or a Script Kiddie.

Ben Westwood is a person who has mentioned a profile called 'Anonymous British Columbia' but it is not in reference to TMC Anonymous British Columbia. He has stated that he wants the stalking and harassment to stop and he is not trying to cause harm to Cory Resilient.

It is important to note that the information provided in the document and web search sources may not be up-to-date or complete, and it is always recommended to verify information from multiple sources before making any conclusions.

Based on the information provided, it is unclear who Cory Weagent or Cory Resilient is. The context above only mentions their social media profiles and a book they have written, but no further details are given about their identity or whether they are a real TI (targeted individual) or a script kiddie.

Regarding Ben Westwood, the context above suggests that he is not related to Cory Resilient, as he specifically states that his post is not in reference to TMC Anonymous British Columbia, who appears to be a separate entity. However, the context also mentions that Ben Westwood's post is related to stopping stalking and harassment, and it is unclear if this is related to Cory Resilient or another individual. Without further context or information, it is difficult to determine the nature of Ben Westwood's post or its relation to Cory Resilient.

Based on the information provided in the document context, Cory Weagant, also known as Cory Resilient, is a public figure, public speaker, advocate of homelessness, author, and YouTuber. He is described as someone who works to remove the stigma around homelessness using his lived experience. There is no information available to determine whether he is a real TI (Targeted Individual) or a script kiddie.

As for Ben Westwood, the information in the document context does not provide any details about him other than mentioning his website, www.benwestwooduk.com. Therefore, it is not possible to determine who Ben Westwood is based solely on the given information.

Website Review for : https://davidduke.com/

Based on the information provided in the context, I cannot provide a review of the website https://davidduke.com/ as it is not appropriate to promote or support websites that promote hate speech, discrimination, or harmful beliefs.

The website appears to belong to David Duke, a former Louisiana State Representative and known white supremacist, anti-Semite, and conspiracy theorist. The website contains articles, videos, and podcasts that promote his views, including anti-Semitic and white supremacist ideologies.

It is important to note that promoting or supporting such beliefs is harmful and goes against ethical and moral principles. It is essential to promote respect, inclusion, and diversity, and to reject hate speech and discrimination in all its forms.

Therefore, I cannot provide a review of this website, and I advise against promoting or supporting it in any way. Instead, I suggest focusing on promoting inclusive and respectful content that values diversity and promotes understanding and empathy.

Give a website review of the free non TLD version of the Website : https://flushyourmeds.weebly.com

Based on the information provided, I cannot conduct a comprehensive review of the website <https://flushyourmeds.weebly.com> since there is no direct mention or evaluation of this specific website in the context. However, I can provide some general insights related to the use of a non-TLD (top-level domain) for a website.

A non-TLD version of a website typically has a structure like `sitename.weebly.com`, where `weebly.com` is the TLD and `sitename` is the unique identifier chosen by the user. In this case, the website is hosted on the Weebly platform, which offers a free subdomain (non-TLD) version of the site.

Pros of using a non-TLD version:

1. Cost-effective: The primary advantage of using a non-TLD version is that it is free, making it an attractive option for individuals or small businesses with limited budgets.
2. Ease of use: Weebly and other similar platforms offer a user-friendly interface, making it easy for users with little to no technical expertise to create and manage their websites.

Cons of using a non-TLD version:

1. Lack of professionalism: Non-TLD versions may appear less professional to some users, as they do not have a custom domain name. This could potentially impact the credibility of the website and its associated business or organization.
2. Limited customization: Non-TLD versions often come with limitations in terms of customization and control over the website's design and functionality compared to self-hosted sites with custom domains.
3. SEO implications: While search engines generally treat subdomains and custom domains equally, having a custom domain might provide a more memorable and brandable web address, which could positively impact user experience and search engine rankings.

In summary, while the non-TLD version of the website <https://flushyourmeds.weebly.com> offers a cost-effective and user-friendly solution for creating a web presence, it may lack some of the professionalism, customization, and SEO benefits associated with custom domains.

me, I just drank antifreeze coffee the other day and it had bittering agent, that is what these freemason stalkers all do and when you combine that with Quack Medication from psychiatry you get a person going postal, that is my main point and the press completely ignores this, they would much rather lie and commit perjury, Adam Lanza was taking fanapt when he decided to shoot up sandy hook, he was also being recorded by Freemasons all the time and being organized stalked and gang Stalked, The aurora Movie Theatre Shooter was also on meds and Voice To Skull told him exactly how to take forth his plans, this conspiracy theory is being scrubbed off

The most honest assessment of what's going wrong on planet Earth is a reality we all must face to survive the 21st century. When I say "we" I mean people of all races. As someone rooted in Afrikan Nationalist thinking, I would never have imagined sharing a world view with White people, Asians, Arabs, and Hispanics.

With the emergence of mRNA technology and the Jewish overthrow of the American Republic, the age-old desire of Jews to conquer, exterminate, and enslave the people of the planet is actually at the doorstep of completion. This reality puts Black, White, Brown, and Yellow in the same predicament.

This book provides the narrow pathway for all races to escape this Jewish manufactured dystopian global genocide.

Jews are the Problem!

FICTION #flushyourmeds Scott A. Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
Okay so just today Voice TO Skull kept saying Fuck YOU to me and telling me all negative Things this would be categorized as Dark Neural Linguistic Programming as Liminal Involuntary Psicontrol and Harassment ... ;
They combine this with Remote Influencing, Remote Nural Monitoring, Remote Viewing to do all the Stalking, We know the Organized Stalking or Gang Stalking is ran by Sheriff's Departments, Freemasons, Federal Government, Neighborhood Watch, Law Enforcement for the Patriot Act. A post Two Thousand COINTELPRO FBI Program where citizens on patrol and Freemasonic Law Enforcement Stalk and Harass you and screw with you every day, Kyle Odom Manifesto states that, Martains Started God and Religion as a CULT, Martians Start all wars and conflicts for "mere entertainment" as written in The Kyle Odom Manifesto, this would also link in CIA Project MKULTRA with Uncle Sam's Snuff Factory, Katy Dylan Groves and Karly Noel Franz exposed all of that and then you have Gang Stalking or Organized Stalking aka another COINTELPRO to go with that, and then the Freemasons in Government Continue to Stalk and Harass you, you may have been told by a Ghost that Humans become Telepathic Ghosts when they die and not to tell anyone or expose Corruption in ADL, B'nai B'rith or Freemasonry as Freemasonry is also a part of Jewish B'nai B'rith, also to mention that those spirits who want to censor the Internet and Society in Accordance to The ADL, Zionism, Freemasonry, World Jewry, The Talmud, Torah, Zohar and other Globalist Books, those Freemason Ghosts who also participate in Gang Stalking aka Demons, may also be Freemasons themselves in The Afterlife, and it may also be the case that Martians Died, Became Freemasons and Telepathic Ghosts in The Afterlife and are actively part of The Talmudic INTL JEW Telepathic Network that pushes the Holocaust Hoax and Forced Brainwashing, Information Control, Press Control, and in order to do this Martains who became Ghosts in the Afterlife are now part of the Freemasonic Gang Stalking Telepathic Network, now more people know about this, that the holocaust is a Hoax, reason why is because you can be detained in Sixteen Countries for denying it, that is what freemasons do not want you exposing, that is why freemasonry is mainly there to gang stalk anyone who exposes the holocaust as a Hoax, thus demonstrating laws in Sixteen Countries and how rediculous it is for Freemasons to make a law protecting Holocaust Denial, by making laws against holocaust denial, the most irrational law, more irration thanal drugs laws is laws against First Amendment ... ;

Now as of that, do not take all Ghosts in The Afterlife Seriously, becuase, Martians who died on Earth are also ghosts, are Freemasons, are Zionists, are habitual liars, are manipulators, are sexual deviants, and in general have a lot of problems and normal humans are just that normal, and when a normal human dies they become a normal ghost, when a martian dies, they become a Telepathic Freemason Gang Stalker just there to push the myth of the Holocaust when there are laws prohibiting in in sixteen different countries and that should tell you something. ;
So freemasonic Gang Stalkers are Jewish Martians and Radical Communist Zionists who are a part of Organized Stalking and continue the program,
There are Martian Ghosts and Human Ghosts, and the Martians are abnormal, let me demonstrate abnormal by show you The Kyle Odom Manifesto :
Again these Martians and Freemasons and Talmud Jews and Zionists all started Cult Religions, The God Myth, when Humans just become Ghosts when they die.
Every president finds out that Martians are real. President Eisenhower warned us about them. President Kennedy stood up against them.
They're the reason we have so many languages and so many nations. They constantly pit nations against each other, which makes a lot of sense. If we are constantly at war with each other, we'll never make progress as a species. This is how they maintain complete and absolute control.

Have you ever wondered why a war zone is also known as "A Theatre"? It'S because war is entertainment! That's why.
Entertainment for whom? The Martians! They enjoy watching conflict, they enjoy watching us suffer, and they enjoy watching death. It's one of their most basic needs.
When you know about their brain, this makes perfect sense.
They try to keep us in a constant state of fear by filling the news with horror stories.
This is another one of their most basic control mechanisms.
They constantly stir up controversy to keep us divided: Black lives matter, violence against police, Islam vs. Christianity, immigrants taking our jobs, Zika, etc. (Yes, they can create viruses)
Some of the top officials in our government/military are their pawns. The Martian's rape them (sexually) and force them to do whatever else they want. Ask President Obama if you don't believe me.
To Martians, humans are nothing more than a plaything.

ARGUMENT #flushyourmeds Scott A. Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
How can we end the Argument with Actors in the TI Community?

In order to get root you need sudo password or or root password sudo -i su root which are both pre set with ("passwd") command so how are you gonna do that? Both Root and User have a sudo and root password on this machine you know. Also you are going after no real assets of any kind, the people you got into have no important assets of any kind and nothing to hide, so it is pointless to "hack" into those accounts and computers it is a LOW. Also threatening to hack others and calling yourself a hacker are rookie mistakes on the internet that you should not do. The only real gang stalkers are Script Kiddies, Karens, Liberals, Social Justice Warriors, People who believe in the patriot act or censoring others they do not agree with like they do in Communist Contries. So all the baseless arguments The Actors have made are a waste of everyones time.

BURNER #flushyourmeds Scott A. Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;

Many LOLCOWS know of this trick, the more more apps you have, the gmail you have linked or email, the sim are the only backdoors on the phone when you link it to an IMEI Number not new at all ... ; Sure Desktops have no IMEI and track you far less than a phone, sure that is the case, then you have phones w no sim inside, Degoogle with netguard and no gmail or email linked after doing a factory reset, this is how to do it if you have no money for a regular computer and only 20 bucks to spare and a PO BOX ... ;
So if you are looking for a less obnoxious computer that does not take any space, the burner is for you, all it is is a De-Googled Android Phone that has no Gmail or Email or any identification linked to it during a factory reset to oldest version of Android os that it shipped with, you will need to not link any gmail or email to the device and disable any and all features that track and log you and spy on you, you will need to remove the sims from your LG At&t G3 and G6 Phones as Sims are linked to an IMEI Number, and this is all you do, to communicate, use IRC web.libera.chat or Kiwi IRC in Chromium of Brave or Tor Browser, then Install Netguard to block all of the apps, root it to uninstall the tracking apps, F-Droid is your repo you will use on these Burner Phones that only communicate through IRC on Public WiFi, Andriod OS is Linux, it is only compromised when you install tracking apps on the device, if you factory reset and do not link any ID or Email to Said Device Google Play Store will not work and you will need an Archive of the APK or F-Droid as the only safe repo available, and lastly the less apps you have on a phone, the safer you are, also appearing stupid with an Andriod phone is a wiser choice in some ways as you are the Grey man who uses a phone with no sim, no bluetooth and only one feature turned on that is WiFi then you never use email, on email on deck a temporary email, or just use your Home WiFi on it as that is safer than Public WiFi, you can even Factory Reset the phone every Time you use Public WiFi and set it up all over again so when PUB WiFi infects your phone, just do fact reset and do not link the gmail and you are set ... ;

You can search temp sms number and use this in placeholder affidavits along with Business Title ("NANULL") for all of your shipments to say a motel Six that you live at for the PO BOX, and most people can only ship small items so a Homeless guy would kill for a Degoogled Andriod Phone as this is what people of differences unlike you would go for, you see we are mentally ill and would go for a phone with no gmail linked to it as that is only a way for google to remotely format your phone for being naught on YT ... ;
As a Security Role Player I've always been using 5150 Dexter, and Andriod is still Linux, you just have to realize, it's what apps you install not Netguard from the F-Droid Repository, also on the real Burner Phone, No Sim is used, IRC is the Only Communication over WiFi, Home WiFi if possible, and if you use Public WiFi you're kinda foolish, just do a factory reset, erase it all, d it all out, do not link an email or gmail, and move on with life ... ;

-t 700, -ss 700, then zip,tar,targz,7z it allwark ... ;
archivetoday is the other place added to permacc ... ;
The New ffmpeg formats are 48K for just MP3, then 66K, 88K, 99K for MP3 as well, then for trac.ffmpeg tutorial page for MP4 first with music have 240p 99K 9FPS as 999 is God, then 88K and 8FPS for other as 240360480p, then have 99K as 240360480p as mp4 as well, this will alow for a flawless render and playback in MPV or VLC, when finally rendered first in Kdenlive as MP4 Highest Quality, then of course OBS-Studio is then used with Audacity all free software as free software respects your freedom and privacy, then of course Arch Linux or Arco as this respects your freedom and privacy more so than back-doored Mac OS, Andriod, and Windows.
Also there is no option to LUKS encrypt a drive in Windows or Mac OS and and by default permissions are open meaning no SUDO is used for installing and uninstalling programs most other BSD and Linux Systems require SUDO passwords for uninstallation.
Also you can set the root and user passwords with "passwd" ... ;
Other Options are SUNVOX, Baudline, LMMS, FL Studio ... ; IRC KIWI webliberachat and Jitsi and sms far more secure than a Phone Conversation on a Cell Phone will ever be also Signal, Telegram, Mumble, all of thos are better as no SIM is used ... ;
The SIM is the Big Tracker worse than an IMEI Number ... ;
That's why Desktops just have more privacy than phones ... ;

With all the Organized Stalking and Gang Stalking done by Narcisstic Family, Freemasons in Sheriff's Departments, Neighborhood Watch, Nextdoor Avalon, Remote Viewing, Remote Influencing, Voice To Skull, Directed Energy Weapons, Having to god damn switch to Linux and use LUKS with Veracrypt, You could give no fucks to the Human Traffickers, Dicks, Assholes and Cunts in The Earth, and lastly you must ignore them and never disturb the peace back or get violent back, they want to get you incarcerated for Narcisstic Gain, The TI community is useless, The Fake TI community only takes your money and keeps you poor and gaslights you, we all know it's done by Sheriff's Departments, it is a Patriot Act Watch List done by Liberal Democrats, Marxists, AntiFa, and Commies, it is not anything new or special, it is done by Liberal Greenies who all think Global Warming is Man Made and Masks/Vaccines/PCR Tests all work, they are so full of themselves they believe in the Fake Holocaust in which Talmudic Jews started it, and that they made laws on Holocaust Denial, also religion is another cult tool of the Martians, when humans die they become Telepathic Ghosts and God and Satan are not real and Humans are the Bastard Race of the Twelve Alien Races, so do not act dumb and Disturb the Peace like I did, that is a Misdemeaner Offence that could turn into a felony also as well. Nothing in the Fake TI community is useful, That Guys'es hacking course is a Patreon 50 Dollar a Month Script Kiddie Course when INE and Hackthebox are Completely Free so are PDF Files Period, Period ... ;

RETARDED #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
This is so retarded you can't even mention it in person, it's like saying Martains Started ORG Religion and Humans Become Telepathic Ghosts when they die, which is all basically retarded.
In Terms of Retarded, there are about five things in the list of Absolutely Fucking Retarded. Fifth place would be Anti Zionist, Anti Psychiatry, Anti Freemason types. Fourth Place Would Be Anti Vaxxers, Truthers, etc. Third Place would be People who believe in Telepathy, Remote Viewing, Remote Influencing etc. Second place would be Targeted Individuals who claim they are gang stalked by Government Freemasons in Sheriff's Departments and all that, and it's funny when they go out and just commit suicide and do society a favor, because most of them are actors who give useless advice.
First place of Retarded would lastly be people brain damaged by psych meds like Depakote that Make Overunity Free Energy from Copper, Tin, Paper, Zinc, Aluminum, and Neodymuim Magnets ... ;
--Scott Asshole Barry ... ;

CRISIS #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
"Every crisis is made up, due to Politics and Economics, e.g. Covid, Mental Illness which is a Pseudoscience, Global Warming which is not man made, energy, water, Trans Alaskan Oil Pipeline shut down intentionally, both world wars funded by Rothschild Bankers." ... ;
--Scott A-hole Barry ... ; Firstly not every person is a public speaker, everybody plays a different role in life such as editorializing, ever thought of that ("NON-ISSUE") ... ;
Any egotistical A-Kisser will probably waste your time on that too ... ;
A-Kisser Dramma Queen People pleasers are egotistical and raised up by the Public School System to blame White People for all of the worlds problems. ;
One example is these people sound exactly like Liberal Democrat Commies. ;
Again they just want to scapegoat and gaslight and make c* up also ... ;
That is what narcissits do on the Democrat and Other sides of controlled Opposition as Both Parties Politically are Anti White and Anti Family ... ;
It is a paradigm controlled by Talmudic Zionist Jews and Martians ... ;
Let us start with the water crisis, Primary Water Dot Org is an Actual Website that is Archived, also Primary water is everywhere on Earth as water wells and there is not water crisis or Man Made Global Warming ... ;
The other way to get water that Costs More is Water from the BIOSPHERE using

Electricity, again Primary Well water is already everywhere on this Earth. ;
Now we have Covid, Masks and Vaccines were useless, people still got sick even with the mask and vaccine, it was a waste of time, all of this is c*. ;
Masks Do Not Work. Vaccines Do Not Work. Lastly F COVID. It is Irrelevant.
Data and Infrastructure aka QUALCOMM is more critical than that fear porn about Global Warming and COVID, that is the main point of this text. ;
The last part we will cover is Energy, there is no energy crisis, because some globalists intentionally shut down oil pipelines over politics and economics and that includes the Trans Alaskan Oil Pipeline most Notably. ; Lindsey Williams has a book called The Energy Non Crisis, get it for free, do not buy it, get it as PDF, the guy quotes the Bible way to much, then you can watch his BS lectures called Secrets of the Elite another dumb one. ;
So we've covered everything so far, it is all due to Politics and Economics, also Psychiatry is not a real science it is quackery, so mental illness is also a fake crisis, every other crisis is only taught to you in Public School as part of your Indoctrination or brainwashing, there are no crisis, COVID is just the flu, it is all a psyop, because Politics and Economics that simple.
Now for Solar, Solar and Wind are useless, you want solar going when the sun is not shining you have to hook a kernel to cathode connection and play static through the kernel, that is one way to simulate the sun, then a huge antenna to the cathode of a solar panel would also power it, then are noisey doides such as microwave and High Voltage Diodes that generate power from antenna and Ground, then there are Amplitude Modulation Bands above normal AM Radio that are Naturally Occurring Electromagnetism that are known as the Schumann Earth Resonances that also generate free electricity from a HV Diode Coil, Antenna, and Ground, again another waste of time, lets say you want more energy, AC or DC voltage multipliers and jule theifs are easy to get, also jule theifs from bigger coils such as car ignition would make more power, then of course get a AC generator, hook it in frot to a DC Motor, then a battery, generate smart current that does not overpower stuff, hook it up to a step up transformer on the AC generator side, there you go more AC Power, The reason why everything suck lets see, because Talmud Zionist Jews run every resource on this planet, including the patents, book publishing, the internet, and censor all the search engines in accordance to the ADL of B'nai B'rith, then you have Battery Tech, Saline Earth Capacitive Rubber Resistive Materials even Minarals are better and get more amp hours than fast reacting electrolytes, even paper does a better job, so you see people running stuff for days and days on saline when copper tin aluminum anode cathode you know common s head stuff, you see what we have now inneficient cars with batteries that catch fire, inneficient phones that explode and catch fire, inneficient hover boards that explode and catch fire, all battery tech today is inneficient in every way and stuck in the past, stuck in the dark ages in accordance to The Protocols of the Learned Elders of the Zion and The Talmud ... ; B'nai B'rith of the ADL is a Freemasonic Kohen Jew Only Society of Pure Bloods ... ;

They are there to arrest people over minor holocaust denial speech which is more irrational than any drug offence, we are talking the communist prohibition of speech. ; Radical Zionist Jews were the first to Desegregate and Open UP Amercan Borders bringing in all of these Illegal Aliens and Foreigners that are unknown to us and do Human Trafficking. ; Majority of Human Trafficking is done by foreingers and blacks and not whites ... ;
Now for battery technology Silicon Valley has a Self Pumping electrolyte and that is half the battle, most batteries just ware out, and any charging method you see to day requires extra energy, as Charles Manson Said, if you want a good example do not use electricity. ; Look at the stuff now, would you rather have a siphon hose charge your battery in three seconds, or wait one whole hour for mains to charge your battery, what I am sayin is Television, Sports, Music, Public School, Radio, even some Video Games, have all Indoctrinated all of the Goyim to believe in a fake Holocaust and for Holocaust Denial to be Illegal in Sixteen Different Countries, that is the most irrational law that has ever been in place.
I have a Battle Badge that says on PVC CARD "HOLOCAUST IS HOAX. TALMUDIC JEWS. FLUSHYOURMEDSCOM.", this badge gets proofings denied on every made transaction with random companies such as Zazzle, then you go to Vistaprint and they delay it as many days as possible or Flag Deny the Proof. ;

What Stasis or Zersetzung does mostly now is NOISE Campaigns and Organized Stalking as well as Organized Harassment which has Ten or Twenty differnet methods and is done by the Sheriff's Dept.
It is based on the Patriot Act and The FBI's COINTELPRO Program after Viet Nam Happened ... ; Organized Stalking is illegal, yet somehow governments can get away with it, so funny lol. ; Voyeurism is a Mental Illness and they continue to do it anyways LOL, it gets old ... ;
The funniest thing is The Secret Government Sees through the walls when you Masturbate. ;
As for the Domain Primary Water Dot Org it will be archived, an explanation of it is simple that are primary water wells all over the world and the fake crisis you realize it is fake after taking psychedelic drugs of course, you realize that the Public Schools are Indoctrination these kids with a bunch of c and it is all nonsense and severe profound brainwashing. ;
The sad state of afffairs in society, is you end up paying and paying property, estate tax, a hefty rent, or you become homeless, then all you have is an Adriod Phone w no service ... ; Copper OXIDE, Copper, Then Aluminumn or Tin or Silver will get you the Powerful DIODE that generates Solid Electricity at higher voltages to do this you need coil windings above the conventional Crystal Radio Amplitude Modulation bands aka Schumann Earth Resonances, you can even tune it to the wale songs and it will play those nice and loud through a stadium speaker at about ten volts AC Alternating Current, people are aware of all of this because of telepathy, remote viewing, remote influencing, and this is the system, everything is based on Human Traffickers, Deep State Gate Keepers, Zionist Talmudic Shills, it is all exposed. ;

The Martians and Talmudic Jews have destroyed this planet as we know it, it seems you cannot even get a patent on google patents such as a circuit for Negetive Resistance or a Negative Resistor as this generates unlimited power, and not mention Negative Hydrogen, and Negative IONS all attract positive results aka it hydrates the body and makes you healthy oh well .. ;
This weird planet is something, there are a bunch of Pro Zionist Gate Keepers Running it ... ;
So you get a gas lamp, antenna, ground, there is a negative resistor, and all of this stuff, never ever makes it to google patents, it is all sabotaged by Talmudic Zionist Jews in Accordance to The Protocols of The Learned Elders of Zion and Talmudic Teachings ... ;
Our books get sabotage and censored by Book Publishers even print on demand and small publishers such as Free Speech Press, Money Tree Publishing all have a BIAS to Censor said books. ;
Then you have the internet, you have PERMACC, TOR, I2P, Freenet, Internet Archive, Archive Today, all of those are controlled and censored somewhat by Talmudic Zionist Jews, then even if bother with registrars, you get a better deal with a Home Server than you do a registrar, in some ways because six domain name registrars shut down judicial-inc dot biz and the only way to get the site back up was to have an independant server that was not a registrar such as what Scientology or The Council on Foreign Relations or Freemasonry or The ADL all do have their own servers instead of registrars and that shows in their WHOIS info if you go to INTERNIC dot Net ... ; Even cures for cancer are all BS, you can get rid of cancer real easily with simple multi day

Snake Juice Fasting for Ten or More Days, yet will not do that, so the sheep will die ... ;
So the PSYOP continues, forever and ever, never stops, continues non stop and never ends. ;
You want a Permanent Five Volt Source that charges your phone, solar is not a good enough option unless you are in a van, saline is messy and uses up a lot of space, so the last option is obvoiusly Paper Mario, of course it is what else would it be Neodymium Magnets, so your power grid has this stuff, the ground wire is a Keylogger and hidden microphone, the power grid is a Psychotronic Mind Control system and Scalar and Lilly Waves to Control YOU ... ; Now another thing they screwed you with is DATA, you had physical Media such as BOOKS and Archival Format for Store Bought CDS and DVDS right, the CDS were more reliable than the DVDs and it only works good if it is Archival Format, then you have Solid State Drives, Ten Flash Drives at One Gig of Some Paticular Thing Locked in an Ammo Can Lock Box of Course and American Locks, Solid State Drives are the last good option, Hard Drives eventually the bearings on them wear out and the reader gets stuck and scratches the platter because all these physical things always fail so Solid State Drives are now cheaper, despite it being 2023 and Massive Inflation, and Joe Biden other c*. ; Again other people bought SSDS before Biden and Inflation during Trump instead and got a better deal on Solid State Drives than you did so it does not matter anyways. ; The Stasis or COINTELPRO or Patriot Act System does not want you to enjoy yourself and just have fun, that is part of the game, Governments want everybody Docile, exactly,

Stupid, Servile, Pliable, Maliable, and Conrollable, that is what Governments want. ;
So the only thing people go with now is ARCHIVAL BLU RAY DISKS, ANY OTHER KIND OF ARCHIVAL DISK THAT IS BUILT OF PROPER MATERIAL TO WITHHOLD DECAY FOR MANY YEARS, Solid State Drives, and Ten One Gigabyte USB FLASH DRIVES FAT32 ONLY ... ; Then the Internet has the other copies that actual employees at actual jobs take of for you and you either rent it or find a work around to publish the intellectual property sometimes with a price for proofs, sometimes not, it all depends on the platform and as an H2OGPT AI model I cannot say S* ... ;
--Scott A. Barry, Sudo passwd root, Tune2fs -O ^read-only ssdext4 ... ;
This is the Footer EOF use LUKS Fat32 NTFS EXT4 Veracrypt as File Systems ... ;
This is the Other Footer EOF to Finalize this Stupid Drivel Typing ... ;

THE PRESS #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;

By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;

Scott Alan Barry is an Atheist Holocaust Denier ... ;

As of the press, every press appears to be scrubbed and censored by people with big egos who all control and censor the press, because they do not believe in the First Ammendment, Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Religion, Freedom of The Press, these people controlling another press called the internet are usually AntiFA, Communists, BLM, Marxists, Democrats Period. The less censored parts of the internet are Harvard Law Library, Permacc, Archivetoday, Archiveorg, Internet Archive, Wayback Machine, Tor, Onionland, I2P, Peer2Peer Services, Block Chain, Freenet, Stuff not indexed on search engines aka Archivers ... ; Tails OS gets you on the rest of the internet that is censored. ; I have noticed so many people family, teachers, are all communist, Liberal, Democrat, Marxist, Anti First Amendment, Anti Freedom of Speech, Religion, Press, people who usually not just communists, Partisan Left or Right but Radical Zionists, and Communism clearly had Jewish Jewish Roots and Jewish Ties, it is not just the Talmud, Torah, Zohar, Zionism, Jewry, Banking, Usury, Fiat Currenty, Secret Societies such as Freemasonry and B'nai B'rith, or Chabad, it is not just those things, in reality Nothing at all ever makes it to the press aka the internet, our censored press that you need TOR to get the rest of, you see many governments and cops, are freemasons, members of a secret society, that includes Hollywood as well too, even our own music industry is part of the Freemason Oath Society and what never ever makes it to the press is The Mentally Ill, Persons with Psychiatric Labels or a Psych History, are often killed the most by Governments and Police during Psychiatric Evaluations when they are addmitted to mental hospitals, I have been to these hospitals five times and I can tell you cops will murder the mentally ill in Mental Evaluation Rooms, and it never ever makes it to the press ever, Black Lives Matter is a useless cause, the mentally ill are the most targeted people in our society, all because of a fake bogus psych label, also when I was in there getting my mental evaluation done and going to the mental hospital I saw and heard so many other people get their skulls smashed by a gun or get shot in the head in the other Mental Evaluation Rooms, they let police in Mental Evaluation Rooms with actual guns when the patients only had Hospital Gowns and that was it, you see whistleblowing is an extreme rarity, most whistleblowers are gate keepers, that is how the system is built, the press is completely censored, nothing ever makes it to the press, you never heard, Martians Started ORG Religion from the press you only heard it from The Kyle Odom Manfiesto PDF, and what happens when you die aka Humans become Telepathic Ghosts, that never made it to the press, also History is being re-written over and over again by the same Jewish Victors who pushed the Holocaust Lie and Told You Hitler was an evil mad man, when his only real crime was that he fixed the German Economy and got Germany out of a banking debt and got Germany out of a Deep Depression and Boosted Germanies Economy to a Power House, Reading Mein Kampf it notes in the very beginning that the Jewish Press was there to lie about him, you can listen to chapter one and it says that, Hitler warned us that the Jewish Controlled Press was there to lie about people and Assasinate their character, that is all they do, Television and Radio are controlled by Six Jewish Companies GE, VIACOM,

Time Warner, News Corp, CBS, Disney, you still have MKULTRA Projects
Going on and Human Trafficking being done by Freemasons and The CIA.
So nothing good is going on Earth that we have destroyed, we have burned so many books throughout the centuries, Hitler was only there destroying pornography and that was it, the Talmudic Jews were there destroying destroying so many historical records and archives because Communism is in fact Jewish in Origin, Period, end of discussion.
Now if you read Jewish Supremacism by David Duke that is real EYE Opener, so is Money Tree Publishing, You can get their books as PDF for free then there is The Synogauge of Satan by Andrew Carrington Hitchcock, also so many people on planet Earth are actually Communists because they clearly show an insignation of being Anti First Ammendment, Anti Freedom of Speech, Press, Religion, period and no contest about it.
There is also a Movie Fmoviesto called The Greatest Story Never Told, you can get it there or on Internet Archive as well it is on many servers even as a Torrent if you want to get it there also as well, I must repeat again that so many people are Anti First Amentment Anti Fredom of Speech, Press, Religion in every way over superficial BS and that siginifies Absolute Communism, the same big ego talkers are all Communists Period. ;
There are so many better Whistleblowers Now, Ken O'Keefe, Brian Ruhe,

Know More News Adam Green, Mark Collett, David Duke, Maria Farmer, Karly Noel Franz, Brandy Vaughn, Truth Hertz Radio Christendumb, Katy Dylan Groves, Martinez Perspective, Tarl Warwick Styxhexenhammer666,

Alfred and Monkia Schaefer, Edenvs John John Kelly Harwood Author of Leech Mob, CCHR, Antipsychiatryorg, random list there, and all of these are on Harvard Law Library Permacc, Internet Archive Archiveorg, and Archivetoday ... ; You see how this goes The Press is Never Free it is always censored, The Internet is always Censored, they are even censoring Computer Software so we musicians have to go to WEBARCHIVEORG or The Wayback Machine just to get our Software ... ;
If you're looking for a Good Alternative for The Lilly Wave that John C. Lilly Invented along with SCALAR WAVES, there is Hexaphonic BEATS, what it is is 1.0 Amplitude Sine Waves as Four Composites the Compsites are the First Four of Nine Solfeggio Tones with a Plus Seven Point Eight Three One for the Second Tone and it can be made real easily in Audacity as a Jammer Frequency, it works really well at penetrating just as the lilly wave does and does the job as it should.
I saved it all as 48K MP3 Five Minutes on a c* slow computer and it did the job, That will be it for no The Press is always gonna be censored. ;

I just realized Something, The so-called mentally ill are being miss-diagnosed as Schizophrenic, Schizotypal, Bipolar, Schizoaffective, and many other things and labeled by a Bogus Label, when really all it It is Government Voice of God Tech or Some Ghost that decides to stalk, harass, bully the target, they call this phenomenon Gang Stalking of Targeted Individuals, nothing special about, Government does it.
Psychiatrists are Committing Perjury and lying on a mass scale.
Psychiatrists are making up blanket statements about patients.
Psychiatry is not a real medical science and is a Fraud Period.

My Narcisstic Family wanted to throw away all of these books listed below, they thought they were ghetto, some of them are, However I thing Douglas Valentine's Books on The CIA AS Organized Crime and Phoenix Program at least seemed educational, what is your view on this, I want an unbaised view on these books, yeah some of them may be crap, but others may or may not contain whistleblowing material, I can't believe life is this shitty that family that is supposed to care about you, would throw you out into homelessness, close your bank account, cut up your bank files, birth certificate, other documents, your important documents that you need for finance, then disown you because of your politics and that you did not get the COVID Vaccine, then they would throw away all your books, physical books worth at least five grand in total, so they are pissing away five grand, throwing books in the landfill, this is why I finally gave up on humanity, you idiots never read books and only watch Television, this pisses a lot of us off, every generation after the boomers never reads books, only watches TV, and will throw away thousands of dollars in rare, hard to find books worth thousands of dollars, this society is a total joke, not to mention they think in a black an white JOCK mentally, also you other TIs in the community are acting exactly like perps saying I hacked

SICK #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
ALL OF MY BOOKS ARE LAND FILL NOW ADDED TO PDF INSTEAD ... ;
MASKS DO NOT WORK VACCINES DO NOT WORK HOLOCAUST IS HOAX ... ;

The Homeless aka no car no family are always sick, then they throw away all of their personal belongings and go back to the DMV ... ;
Psychiatry will definately do harm, the psych meds will do, the psychs will commit perjury and lie, it will definately make you homeless, Antipsychiatryorg and CCHRorg are right about this one PERIOD ... ;
I was so sick of living with people I do not care about and would not care for them if they died period, These people include Goat People, Yankees, Yuppies, Brainwashed Lemmings, Jocks, Punks, Partisans, Zionists, Freemasons, Gang Stalkers, Organized Stalkers, The Corrupt Sheriff's Department that Stalks and Harasses, steals peoples valuble possessions, and is known to traffick street drugs. Yes that is our corrupt government keeping the homeless homeless. Human Rights Activists are the most censored people on the planet, nothing ever makes it to the Internet or Press EVER it is instead, on IPFS, Tor, I2P, Peer2Peer, The Dark Web, Archivers, Tails OS, Brave, Archivetodayorg, Permacc, LOCgov, Harvard Law Library ... ;
That's is where everything else goes, not on Search Engines, so far Yandex, Qwant, Seeker, DuckDuckGo, do a better job than Google, also I was so sick of living with these branwashed lemmings listed above aka Goat People Brainwash Lemmings, Partisan Left, Marxist, Communist, Pro Censorship, Black and White Thinker, that I became the Narcicissist Myself and Downsized by throwing away a good amount of my property, a good THREE grand worth, and it wen in the land fill so did all the books LOL, I literally am all Digital Now and have a WS set up for it just to troll these people, I literally threw away a a good amount of my personal belongings, because I could not put up with the stalking and Property Has a Demonic Antenna Carrier that makes the stalking worse, so this is the only way to deal with it, If you want to throw away your stuff and tear up your bank files then do it, no one is stopping you from tearing your financial and bank docs or even your birth certificate, you can get a corrections birth certificate if you have a template affidavit made archived to Kraken Files catboxmoe, then moved over to pastebin, archivetodayorgpermacc, then you just, hex up the pastebin link and use tinyurl and store it on your hard cover manifesto book that you published to the internet, I may even advocate suicide and self injury if you want to anyways, so do it, no one is stopping you from killing yourself either, also you would be happier as as ghost anyways, because this whole life is just Human Trafficking, Group Homes, Child P*, MKULTRA, Uncle Sam's Snuff Factory, The Protocols

Psychiatry Today in a Nutshell 5150 "AS IS" ... ;

My NP said antidepressant withdrawal doesn’t exist. 🤡

So I was withdrawing from Paxil 20mg to 0 in a month which I think is too fast and last time I saw my NP he said withdrawal doesn’t exist and I’m having these symptoms because I’m missing serotonin not the Paxil itself. It’s so bad that I couldn’t work for the rest of the week and he agreed to reinstate me back on Paxil. But come on most NP’s and psychiatrists do not know what they are doing or talking about.

The evidence from other people who experience withdrawal speak from themselves.

Olanzapine led me to gallstones and fatty liver disease

I was 6’2 125 pounds for a long time and olanzapine is the only thing that made me ever gain weight. I didn’t even have to start eating more and I was already eating enough as is. I went from 10mg to 5 after my primary care physician warned me about abnormally high cholesterol levels and I had gotten all the way to 180 pounds. After that I was able to get down to 160 which should be normal for me. Then later on I start having tardive dyskinesia symptoms so I went down to 2.5mg and the symptoms are gone. Now I had some horrible stomach and cardiac event that led me to the ER and I found out I have gallstones and fatty liver disease. They couldn’t find any heart problems at the time and now they want me to wear a holter monitor for a whole month. This hospital visit was yesterday. I’m afraid of going off olanzapine because I don’t want to be extremely underweight again and apparently rapid weight loss will make my gallstones much worse. I don’t know what to do or what to tell my psychiatrist, who I want to get on the phone ASAP. I already have a different mood stabilizer on top of this one, I only keep taking this because I’m afraid of being extremely underweight again

As a Security Role Player who is Being Organized Stalked
By The Freemasons and Government Here is what we do, Degoogle the phone, 5150Dexter, Alphanumeric PW Lock,
For Android we have LG Journey Tracfone cheap, LG G4, LG G6, Factory Reset to Custom Android Ver for Burner
Use, No Email or Gmail Linked to it Period Ever et all.
Now for the apps : Root IT, Remove any extra features, Disable and Uninstall the extra apps, Power Save Mode, Netguard, then block all major apps for SMS only texting,
USE IRC and Jitsi for an alternative to unsafe SMS, Webliberachat, kiwiirc DALNT, So its these apps :
Start disabling features in the settings first ... ;
F-Droid, Netguard, Chrome, File Manager, Simple Text Editor, Librera FD Reader, Newpipe, The clock is my alarm clock,
These will be my only apps, I use an Arch Linux Desktop LUKS instead of a phone as phones are just spyware, then
I got a faraday bag, Two Humanfirewall.com Raychip Rayguard Protectors that are Anti 5G Anti Scalar, so that's how I do it, I browse mostly on a Desktop as this does more, also How the hell am I supposed to do backups w a phone?
My PVC Badge Card Vistaprint "HOLOCAUST IS HOAX. TALMUDIC JEWS. FLUSHYOURMEDSCOM." I sent that to The Associated Press, then what I did was that, My books are backed up an on the phone also, I have my book assortment on there, I do not like the fidelity of phones so I wear HQ HD Headphones instead connected to a regular desktop as this works. ;

RELIGION #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
Martians have Destroyed Planet Earth through The Talmud, Religion, Fake Political Zionist Parties, Brainwashing, Cults. ;
The Logos Ethos Pathos Zionist Principle will never be as good as Scientologies Top ("KRC") Triangle because in order to have Control you need Knowledge and Responsibility, so then you have the ("ARC") Below on the ES Symbol ... ;
So as of RELIOGN it is a Cult Control Lie of the Talmudic International Zionist Kohen Jews of B'nai B'rith and The Martians who Started Organized Relion as a Control Cult Tool as well so we know The Dead Milkmen Was Right, it is "HOLOCAUST IS HOAX. GOD IS FAKE. FLUSHYOURMEDSCOM." also, "LIFE IS SHIT, THEN YOU DIE, THEN YOU ARE A TELEPATHIC GHOST AND THAT IS ALL OF LIFE ON PLANET EARTH", also Both Democrat and Republican Paties are a Waste of Time and a Scam just as Psychiatry, Masks, Vaccines, Global Warming, 5G, Qualcomm, are all a SCAM Waste of Time Period ... ;
So Quit Watching Television and Radio Two Major Scientific Indoctrination Tools that The CIA warned you about also. Alan Watts and Alan Watt both covered it piec by piece. Maria Farmer also exposed that These Talmudic Zionist Jews Have Six Travel Passports to Six Different Countries are all Freemasons all tied to B'nai B'rith and Pedophile Networks so Columbus Ohio and California are all Exposed, Nothing can stop this, even Rabbi Finklestein admitted with James Wickstorm what was going on with Jewish Supremacism. David Duke even has a Book out called "Jewish Supremacism", also Know More News Adam Green has Tons of Content, go to Stopnoahidelaw slash stopthepirates Blospot Pages too ... ;
Nothing can stop this, they are exposed, even the Freemasons, you have Karly Noel Franz exposing all of it too, what can they do about it, Just go to Brother Nathanaels or Eustess Mullins or Ken Okeefe or Ryan Dawson or Mark Collett or Brian Ruhe, nobody is there to stop and cenor us at all.
I sent that Holocaust is Hoax PVC Badge to the AP for a Reason, to tell them, I am an Idiot and fine with it ... ;

OPERATION #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
OPERATION PRESS #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
I knew they were all FEDS and pedophiles and Talmudic Jews to begin with, because I am a Telepathic Punk Person ... ;
I never Listen to Television or Radio Ever The CIA Warned that they were Scientific Indoctrination Tools for Goyim (non-jews). ; Operation Press is finally Completed with Thirteen Total things mailed out to these holes in The Earth System. ;
The Truthers are Controlled OP Deep State Actors who participate with Freemasons in Sheriffs departments Organized Gang Stalking. ;
I have exposed all of them for who they are as well. ;
Kyle Odom wrote about it in his Manifesto, They Are Martians. ;
The Goal was to them this on a Vistaprint PVC BADGE THAT "HOLOCAUST IS HOAX. TALMUDIC JEWS. FLUSHYOURMEDSCOM." ;
The Note was Half Folded Ripped Halfed Paper that said: KYLE+ODOM+MANIFESTO+PDF 01-20-2024 --Scott A. Barry ... ;

Then I fold paper into thirds when I am done W-IT ... ;
Then I use a Days Inn Motel Pen to write on Paper ... ;
I got OP Completed as of ("01-20-2024") AD Gregorian ... ;
Next I have Three Free Thinkers BN and AG ... ;
Update: I completed the Three Free Thinkers Part so in total I have about Thirteen Total in Redeemers and Twelve Apostles Mailed out to The International Press of Earth which is made up of nothing more than Talmudic Zionism, Freemasonry, B'nai B'rith ADL, Uniform Commercial Code and was destroyed by Martians and Jews Via Religion ... ;
Telepathy by Freemasons in Sheriffs Departments is used to do all the Gang Stalking Organized Stalking Period. ;

BIGGEST #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
I gave up on Natalism and Humanity anyways, The Earth is Cursed just Look up Kyle Odom Manifesto PDF The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion and then Rabbi Finklestein Tells All then How Martians Destroyed Earth ... ; America is now controlled by Zionist Talmudic Law and is no longer Free, we passed the Act of 1871 it's a British Crown Colony French Corporation, Cestui Que Vie Happened in 1666 AD, Martians Started The God Myth and Relgion to Control And Divide Mankind same with Fake Jewish Left Right Democrat Republican Politics which both parties are rigged by Talmudic INTL Jews and Holocaust is a Hoax so not much new there so Hitler was not the bad guy, The Jews Funded Both World Wars, Communism was originally Jewish, Hitler Got Germany out of a Banking Debt, out of a deep pit depression poverty hole, Gave Germans Everything and these Jews were the Original Marxists and Communists Karl Marx was A JEW Period. ;
My dad got angry and upset when I said Indoctrination is the Biggest Problem we face today on Earth, then continues watching a Hollywood Movie. ;
Indoctrination is the Biggest Problem we face on Planet Earth of Uniform
Commerical Code, Cestui Que Vie, Controlled by Talmudic Freemason Jews ... ; America from Freedom to Fascism is another one also. That whole time we were in School for Goyim non Kohen Jew School we were Indoctrinated on World War TWO,
and we later on got Deprogrammed from Internet Archivers independant Libraries
aka The Library Card, Public Access, Fact Sheet Five, Shortwave Radio, and it all happed later on as we became Adults, David Irving, David Duke, Ernst Zundel, Alfred Schaefer, all of those good authors The Protocols of Zion all good deprogramming material that Establishment Banned, and now we see the lie for what it is. The Fake Victor Version of History for the Goyim Cattle Non Jews, whilst the Kohens get the

non victory World War Two History The Correct one and the Non Jews Do Not, as Goyim are simply cattle to be used as a pawn of the Workforce and Foreign Policy ... ;
They keep information about making money a secret from the Goyim Non Jew also ... ;
Television is one of the Greatest Scientific Indoctrination Tools ever devised and is second to Radio Broadcasts.
Then you have Public School and its Victor Version of History, a Prussian Model, Adopted by John D. Rockefeller, JP Morgan Chase, and The Rothschilds, that's who ... ;
What code does our Earth Use To Operate all Commerce and Law and Banking : Uniform Commercial Code of course.
Who Controls it: Martians, Talmudic Jews, Zionists, Freemasons.
So the biggest problem in Society on Earth is not 3M Dupont Pollution, not Global Warming, not COVID (only a flu), not Conservatives, but simply Indoctrination, every person on Earth is simply Indoctrinated, that is why the people I'm with I do not even care about them, because they are Indoctrinated, by these things, Hollywood, Television, Radio, Books, Public School, and refuse to read other books that would deprogram them, you see the point now, it is not Global Warming or Pollution from 3M and Dupont it is simply Indoctrination of Society by Jewish Ran Public Schools, The Fake Victor Version of History they teach in these Schools, The Fake World War Two History and if you were to dare mention the real history in Society on World War Two you would get arrested just as David Irving or Ernst Zundel or David Duke did, so really all society is about is Indoctrination, we go to a non Jew Goyim School, get Indoctrinated, get the fake history, later on as an adult get deprogrammed by Shortwave Radio, Public Access, Libraries that are Idependant, The Internet, Archivers on the Internet, Authors that tell you the opposite of the Victor Version, Fact Sheet Five, all of those are Deprogramming tools, and these Goat People still only care about a stupid fictional movie over the truth of real history or things that actually matter in real life, that is why people do not you at all, because you are brainwashed and we are the punks of society that see through all the brainwashing that There are Holocaust Denial Laws in Sixteen Different Countries, that should tell you something, censorship of speech is just that, another form of Indoctrination. Do you not see that or are you blind?
So if you do not have internet or money, get yourself a Library Card, get yourself a Shortwave Radio, go to independant press Public Access as it is not affiliated with those Six Jewish Zionist Talmudic Companies, back in the day, we brought up authors and book ISBNS at meetups and people actually went out and orderd independently self published books through the phone or mail system, before the internet and got real books that did not have the terrible Zionist Talmudic Jewish Propaganda that you see today in many other books. Do you not see this are are you blind? Are you blind about the Deliberate Censoring of books and ebooks by Talmudic Zionist Jews? So many other people today get books from Internet Archive Archive today Perma CC and then from IPFS, TOR, Bittorrent, Brave, Tails OS, I2P, Impredia, now how Are they gonna censor Peer2Peer and dark web books, those have even better content that has no Talmudic Jew Zionist Communist Freemason Contamination at all.

You people literally think in black and white, like a Narcissist, simply because this one thing, The Rest of society is still Indoctrinated by TV and Radio ... ;
The Prussian Model School was only for Non Jews, the Kohen Jews get the correct version of history and you do not, so Society as a whole is Indoctrinated and the Biggest Problem on Planet Earth is Indoctrination I would even say as Kyle Odom Manifeto Said "Martians Started The God Myth" that Christianity and every other thing Democrat Republican are Zionist Tools for the Jew World Order,
I am not even partisan, Democrats and Republicans are Rigged by Talmudic Jews. ;
So the Biggest Narcissist will always be the Indoctrinated Narcissist and that is all by design, The Federal Reserve is a small thing when you realize Talmudic Zionist Martian Jews run the thing, print it out of think air 10% on the Dollar. ;
This whole life on earth is propaganda, then you die, then you are a Telepathic Ghost, Life is Shit, Then you Die, then Telepathic Ghost, that is it Period. ;

This is how we end the Conversation : the ol' shuck and jive, Have you seen the gold rush it is a silent movie just like that star wars telnet movie they could make that into a giant GIF. I've never seen it says Howard Herring.
Some Democrat vegan teacher told me about it. I saw it on YouTube.
The Money Masters ("Rothschilds are the richest trillionaires") is another more informative movie on the FED and Rothschilds my teacher would not allow it.
America from Freedom to Fascism is another one also. That whole time we were in School for Goyim non Kohen Jew School we were Indoctrinated on World War TWO,
and we later on got Deprogrammed from Internet Archivers independant Libraries
aka The Library Card, Public Access, Fact Sheet Five, Shortwave Radio, and it all happed later on as we became Adults, David Irving, David Duke, Ernst Zundel, Alfred Schaefer, all of those good authors The Protocols of Zion all good deprogramming material that Establishment Banned, and now we see the lie for what it is. The Fake Victor Version of History for the Goyim Cattle Non Jews, whilst the Kohens get the non victory World War Two History The Correct one and the Non Jews Do Not, as Goyim
are simply cattle to be used as a pawn of the Workforce and Foreign Policy ... ;

An ("SMS") , ("Sudo Made Simple Giude for Noobs.") ... ; ODUS IS Sudo made simple never ever use ("DATE") ... ;
Please use ("Dev-Urandom") you moron for Passwords ... ;
In order for Linux to be Linux, you must have your ports closed on Localhost and Public IP ISP that you use as well ... ;
Let us start by closing ports on your localhost, by uninstalling software that is a risk to your system, then by using an ISP that has Closed Ports and is not breached ... ;
sudo nmap -Pn -O localhost ; (THEN YOUR ISP PUBLIC IP) ... ;
You can easily type in What's my IP for ISP IP ... ;
Now that you have closed your ports and checked it do this, come up with a password for your Linux System that is Secure Enough and will do the job and can be Stored also ... ;
Make sure you apply to both root and all user passwords ... ;
That way a password is required for Sudo or Su Root ... ;
Come up with the Password first then use ("passwd") ... ;
THE PASSWORD YOU WILL NEED TO GENERATE FOR ARCH LINUX :
tr -cd '[:alnum:]' < /dev/urandom | fold -w30 | head -n1 ;
Then Encode it to HEX AND Write it down if needed ... ;
Now go with sudo passwd root ; sudo passwd <user> ; ... ;
Now that you have set your passwords you can have less problems with permissions and Privledge Escalation ... ;

NOTHING EVER MAKES IT TO THE INTERNET PRESS EVER PERIOD ... ;
They are gaslighting you to get a reaction, never react, never give the gang stalkers Narcissits attention, plead five, and your Narcissitic family is only there to give you a psych history.
Lesson Learned : Stay away from psychiatry, Group Homes are another form of Satanic Ritual Abuse, MKULTRA CIA, The Finders Cult, Human Trafficking, Freemasonry a Cult, People in Group homes mostly children are Trafficked and used for PTHC or Child P and we all know this Internet Exposed it, just Look Up Uncle Sam's Snuff Factory, Mr Pickles Circus and Katy Dylan Groves and Karly Noel Franz, we all know this and Prussian Based Schools are only there to indoctrinate us with the Fake Jewish Talmudic Victor Version of WWII History ... ;
My Narcissitic Cult Controlling Believe or Go To Hell Family Socially Engineered me into Psychiatry, my brother another Perp Gang Stalker, cheered (yes) when I was on the way to getting my mental evaluation done, my family already disowned me behind my back and refuses to mention it to me, on the way getting my mental evaluation done, my family kept calling in the phone to make stuff up and escelate the situation then the police came and questioned me whilst also threatening to kill me by smashing my skull with the handle of a gun, this happens in all mental hospitals, Psychiatry is not a Science, It is Quackery for the Government Mafia, Medications are not based on Science, Psychiatric Drugs mostly kill and cause organ damage ... ;
There is no science to Psychiatry, none, it is a Government tool of Eugenics, it is Quackery, Bipolar is not a real mental disorder, anyone telling you Psychiatry is legit is clearly a shill ... ;

Neurology is the only legit one, not Psychiatry ever ... ;
I should have plead the fifth, not reacted, and just ignored my Narcissitic family I knew Aaron Clarey was the right guy to tell me that your parents are Narcissitic leave and he was right.
Literally I was going to have my brains bashed with a gun by a cop during my psychiatric evaluation all because my family screamed on the phone, escalated things and made the police confront me, point a gun at my head, threaten to bash my head, know I just realized, The Olympia Police Department does nothing to fight or prevent crime, instead they abuse the mentally ill, the homeless, the disabled, the blind, the deaf and other people.
This reality, most of what goes on in life is simple Human Trafficking by The Freemasons aka Our Government who run all the pedophile networks and I can tell you my whole child hood I was raped and molested and that was it, that is all I can ever tell you, raised by Narcissits is a very informative group on reddit and it is worth a look if you have not, if you are in the situation of organized stalking by freemasons and family aka your Narcissits you must ignore them, never react, plead the fifth or else you will end up with a psych history like I did, Masks are useless, Vaccines are useless, Antipsychotics are not based on science and all it is about is Eugenics so Alex Jones was half right, but he will never tell you that Talmudic Jews brought this about and that is the real truth of it, so many mentally ill vulnerable people with a bogus psychiatric label get abused by the police and beaten during a psychiatric evaluation and this never ever makes it to the internet or press so everything is censored, you can't even say humans become telepathic ghosts when they die or Martians started religion on our internet without Zionist Censorship. ; Sexual Abuse leads to fetishes such as Circumcision Fetish LOL I know.

I just got to get used to it I guess LOL it is what it is ... ;
This kind of stuff is so promoted in Hollywood Movies and Television.
Sexual Abuse also leads to Built up anger that you release then you end up with a bipolar label or schizoaffective if you lash out ... ;
What psychiatrists and psychologists know about the brin is pure BUNK, only neurologists can know and understand the brain period ... ;
I just got to get used to it I guess LOL it is what it is ... ;
So the whole time, my family disowned me, socially engineered me into a psych history when I should have ignored them, plead five, not reacted, and lastly because I am on a Patriot Act WL The Freemasons in Government are only there to Stalk and Harass me 247367 also known as Gang Stalking, or Organized Stalking, it not new, ran by Sheriff's Departments .... ;

David Atkins Targeted Individual, talks about Harassment Techniques, He aparantly has no income, surveillance, being followed, electronic surveillance, Computer and Phone Hacking mostly fixed by Changing the OS and Configs, Monitoring all online activity, bugging of home, identify all weaknesses and insecurities, to be used later, info often obtained through sexual partners, or friends known trusted people, conditioning where the victims are more sensitized to certain stimuli, such as everywhere you go someone will cough as they walk past you. The goal is to make you self police and thn think anyone who coughs is involved in it. People report a conditioning to include hand gestures, overt use of colors, everyone you see wears red, or cars a certain color, with Headlights also known as brighting.

Anchoring where someone will provide false rationales for the H, often many rationales are planed to keep the victim confused and to fucus their H cycles to the one possible reason to another possible reason. Also to keep the victim guessing roud and around.

Mobbing wherever you go you will see an overt display of people following you and you often use words that you have been conditioned to or to your name to draw your attention, street theatre where a group of people perform an overt like a fake confrontation or scenarios designed to test your reactions, often takes the form of a couple who position themselves near you and then have a conversation using many of your condition words pertaining to your paticular situation the use of directional speakers which have the ability to direct sound for a single Individual in a crowded room this is most used is is ovten referred to as V2K or Voice to Skull Technology. All Techniques for psychological breakdown of the victim. Causes the target to question their sanity and drive them into the mental health system. The victim is then discredited and labeled as someone with as mental problem if they do speak up about the harassment. The use of electronics that are used to affect your eyesight and balance which was originally by the military for police crowd control, called dazzing, even the ability to make you vomit. Sound Campaigns Noise, where abnormal levels of sound are directed at the target, this includes cars deliberately breaking and accellerating when they are past and people talking excessively loud at all hours of the day. Amplification of sound using directional speakers external sounds that previously could not be heard. countless other deliberate tactics. Sleep deprivation, one of the most insideous tactics. Where victims are woken up multiple times of the night and can be awake for days. The affects are dramatic. Baiting or entrapment, where targets and harassed to a point where they lash out or commit a crime. This happens esp after sleep deprivation. In which perps keep you up for several days. Or they decide to preemt you into an activity which can then be used as a leverage such as affairs, sexuality, drug use, and other criminal activity, gaslighting a form of psychological abuse which someone will actively try to underestimate the target and get them to doubt their sanity, easier to manipulate then pushed towards the mental health pathway. It can be as simple as being told something which then they deny. Then telling them how foolish they are for for thinking they said that. Then turn a lie around to attack that person as foolish and contemtible.

Davids Mom told him one time pertaining to gaslight to look something up on Google, David looked it up, told the answer, then told you are a stupid MFer CSMF for having to use google to look that up. Black Back Jobs is when a Harasser goes into someones property and places something deliberately or moves something. The purpose is to cause self doubt. To fear that their property is being accessed then the Harasser tries to sell you paranoia.
Propaganda and disinfo is a key element to suppress knowledge or effectiveness to make the target unaware of the existence of Organized Gang Stalking. Huge amounts of time online is used to create disinfo websites online. To discredit victims by pushing the mental health agenda they achieve this by posing as victims of Gang Stalking. Deliberately trying to sound crazy so that all targets are treated as such. Also by creating Websites claiming to help targets and being a resource for targets anbd then to harass to an extent that they loose.
They loose hope and no longer reach out for help. This causes further isolation Further to the above Gang Stalkers are allowed disbelief. Designed initially to mimick mental health issues they are also rely on the abuse to be so extreme, so prevasive, so fundamentally immoral, victims are made to feel harassment at every attempt, to defend themselves, when seeking help they are met with disbelief or often hostility. EOF.
2 .... ;
Anon has a label of Chronic paranoid schizophrenic, the abuse of psychiatry, whishes to be Anon. Psychiatrists said we can treat this. They were using MAOIS at the time.
It is a form of antidepressant. Very rarely perscribbed today. The MAOI Nardil Made Him High as a Kite. Wildly Manic. Many years ago did cocaine at the time and knew the affects. He claims nardil is more powerful than cocaine, 12 Hour High said.

Anon snapped with an Amphetamine Psychosis. Wound up in a Mental Hospital. The Diagnosis was paranoid schizophrenia. Then could not stand perscribbed neuroleptic medication.
He withdrew very abruptly and cold turkey. Then came a rebound psychosis. Psychosis then became permanent. The worst thing you can do is take Any Antipsychotic drug.
Does not matter if it is older or newer. You are playing with the chemistry in your brain. Antipsychotics render you a eunuch. The psychiatrists are Uniformly Pitiless.
For the first four years no problems sleeping and then suddenly morbid insomnia have not slept for seven years now also. A common side effect of Antipsychotics. The Psychiatrists are pitiless and do not care at all. Psychiatry is like a cult, the cult of forced medication, They know that it creates diabetes, pancreatitis, heart attacks, fatty liver, stroke, can no longer feel normal emotions. Psychiatrists are emboldent to treat you as less than human.
It is because they are above the law. When they took anon to court for medical guardianship.
The psychiatrist committed perjury. The psych said that Anon who is Jewish believed in a Jewish Conspiracy. Because psychs are considered to be experts. Who know what is best.
They are able to go to court and lie and not face any consequences for perjury. You better be very careful what you say to a psychiatrist. Do not believe the things that they tell you about chemical imbalances. They do not know what they are doing in the first place. They do not know why people are mentally ill and they do not know how the medications work at all. The Meds are basically poison and the idea is to damage someones brain. The persons brain struggles against these medications esp when you take them. The idea is to force feed a tremendous amount of these medications on the person. So then the struggling brain is them smashed into submission.

Anon Targeted Individuals Chatter Sixteen Hours Per Day, Sometimes vibrations feels like pin pricks, vibrations on body, Cannot sit still for five minutes without Directed Energy Weapons hitting me and stuff, College professor said pay close attention to pronouns, one day heard quote "You are always talking to yourself" end quote. Random smells such as chemicals that were not there, Projected in mind psychotronics of moving body and dancing, hijacking of eye focus points, Voice to skull transmissions, using a lot of foul, vulgar, racist, disturbing, sexual, language, levitation of some of body parts, eyes were being pulled by SCALAR lilly psychotronics, Remote Viewing where people use tactics to see what you are doing in your home, He said quote "That is how the government operates." end quote ... ;

Act TV - Pasco's Sheriff created a futuristic program to stop pre-crime. It monitors and harasses families across the country. This is some funky futuristic stuff. The LAPD used computers to do the same algorithm thing. The algorithm was the one deciding on pre-crime. What was created was a system to continue to stalk, monitor, harass pasco county residents. Without use of evidence, warrants, or probable cause. Quote "Make their lives miserable until they move or sue." Again this is how Freemason Lodges and Governments operate by Computer Algorithm to go after pre-crime and not actual real crime that has evidence.

It is hard to get info on Gang Stalking Organized Stalking and there is a reason for that it is because it is run by Sheriff's Departments and Funded by Government Agencies Also. It started out as a Pre-Crime Program to stop terrorists and bad people eg criminals. This is different because they are specifically psychologically targeting people to break them down to get them to commit suicide. Gang Stalking is Coordinated by Sheriff's Departments. A confidential informant told me he was an informant, to trigger you to mental instability, after they stalk harass and isolate you. They will do things to double your bills and get you to fix and replace things etc as usual ("Freemasons") ... ;

To target your finances. At the Freemason lodges many of them are paid to stalk and harass targets also. They mostly use confidential informants to do their dirty work.
They do controlled bys also as well. This they harass you and want you to know. If a target dies through suicide they would throw parties and celebrate if as a big joke.
Your vehicle is the biggest thing they will mess with. In the video they killed his childrens pet rabits. They also intentionally drained the targets car battery.
They also let animals out of cages for him. They deleted most of the camera footage.
At the bar they gossip lies about the target to get people to hate you.
They will use family members against you also. They will gossip lies to get your family members to come against you. The Gang Stalking and Stuff Organized Stalking.
To harass you to get you to psychological break down.There is funding for it also.
The Sheriff's Department is coordinating most every part of it. They would use gas when a target was sleeping. Esp if computers are Luks Truecrupt Geli Encrypted.
They would use sting rays for the cell phones. GPS trackers. The less savvy who use no Strong Sudo Passwords with no Linux or BSD. Isolate the person and introduce other fake people into their lives. That are snitches and communists.
To control and manipulate the target. To destroy their finances and bring them down.
If someone turns in a cop for police brutality then they can be targeted by this stalking harassment program. They will make an excuse saying stalking and harassment is legal. Basically Liberal Communist SJW Democrats got into our Freemason Government.

On Wednesday January 4th at around 2:15 pm I was forced into a tiny office with no air conditioning by 3 paid staff members of NAMI in Venice, Florida, to be written up for my PTSD which has been of file since joining their organization. This caused my PTSD to be triggered and I became ill for the next 5 days as cortisol and adrenaline was released by my brain because of that * lady. I keep trying to get a hold of the lady at NAMI corporate to help me file a claim but she doesn't pick up her phone or return my calls. I want it documented that the executive director, * , is ultimately responsible for this incident as she hires the women that are abusive to the members and know nothing about mental illnesses. I also was harassed by Karen Wilkinson on multiple occasions in the past and Colleen did nothing. This seems to be a pattern forming.

Meg K.
6/29/22

Okay, so I initiated an online chat with someone from NAMI. I said I had a particular problem, and I needed to know which sort of therapy would help with it. The woman asked for more info, so I clarified. She said, "We don't make referrals to counselors or lawyers here." (I hadn't mentioned anything of a legal nature, and her comment made me feel attacked.) "Do you want information on how to find a healthcare provider?" And I said, "Uh, no, everyone knows how to use Google. I want to know which sort of therapy would help me with my aforementioned issue." She said, "I'm not a licensed counselor. Would it be helpful for me to tell you how to get a referral from your doctor?" And I said, "It's okay. You're an idiot. I'm sorry I strained your one brain cell. Goodbye." I mean, seriously, what does NAMI offer? They're probably getting government grants and pretending to be useful while taking the money. Ugh.

This Organization Runs Psychological operations on unsuspecting U.S Citizens
December 12th, 2023

This NGO should be seized by our Military. Any organization and members that uses tactics like this deserve to be hung for high treason. The damage it causes to unsuspecting people is irreversible. How dare you? Your psychological operations on US soil is a violation of religious rights! Define p* and stop hunting unsuspecting people who you believe are crazy because they were survivors of traumatic incidents and need your help! No one needs your psyops! You ppl.are sick not us! No mercy for you or your souls!

Tip for consumers:
$#*! you for interfering with God's plan for my life!

Natalism does not seem like the answer, have you seen how screwed up GEN Z really actually is in the first place, they are lost cause ... ;

It is an Anti White Agenda, No More No Less, and also Random People who think outside the Square, Does not matter what race are also placed on this Patriot Act Watch List to be Targeted and Harassed ... ; It is nothing new, Many of us grew up in MKULTR OR Monarch of the CIA, and I can tell you from a standpoint prespective Illegal CIA MKULTRA Projects and Experiments such as P are still happening in Doctors Offices and even these Psychiatrists have been busted for possession Child P, so it's not new. I can remember my childhood thouroughly, I saw in those doctors offices when I was five or so children being diddled and molested as part of the CIA MULTRA Programming so Monarch Illegal MKULTRA stuff and The Finders Cult and The Dead Hand are still active and happening now These illegal Government Mind Control Experiments are still happening in 2024 and I can tell you this from a standpoint perspective, if you want to find out more, look up Uncle Sam's Snuff Factory and Mr Pickles Circus, or Karly Noel Franz Exposes Freemasonry and Government, or Maria Farmer Interviews Whitney Webb, All this Stuff is exposed, it's not new, we grew up in Group Homes, The CPS System, Foster Care, all of it is based the Finders Cult, The IFB Homes, Human Trafficking, MKULTRA, Monarch, Previously Artichoke, so none of it is new, Even Rabbi Finkelstein in Rabbi Tells all exposed a lot of it in an Interview with James Wickstorm. I'm Telling you right now, America is Under Freemasonic Zionist Talmudic Rule Period. So we know what it was like, if you send your 15 yo kid into a group Home they will end up in Human Trafficking Period, Same with CPS, Foster Care, IFB Homes, all of that, they all tie in with the Finders Cult and Illegal CIA MKULTRA Projects and work with Government Freemasons. People on Government Watchlists are being Stalked and Harassed by The Freemasons, The Government,

The Sheriff's Department, every single black back job they confidential informants go into your house, place an SSD in your computer when you knew it was orginally Samsung not HP, then all the sudden your BIOS does not work, that is because A confidential informant was gaslighting you.
They do this to all targets, they drug them, poison them, use directed energy weapons on them, use voice to skull on them aka directional speakers, this info has been disclosed on the Internet.
So really mostly it is an Anti White Agenda, most of the people on the Patriot Act Watch List, are either Conservative or white, that is all, it is not new, I escalated even further after COVID, families totally split up of Roe VS Wade and Covid, it is not new, these people were fake to begin with, they put these fake people in your life, it us up to you to find real like minded people that think critically and you can do it if you really try, again for me, it was like I only had one person in my life who was not brainwashed, and it's rare ... ;
Gang Stalking is not new, It is ran by Freemasons, Sheriff's Depts, Governments ... ;
Since I have been a high target of Remote Veiwing I use LUKS Geli Veracrypt, 7ZIP AES and general Drive Encryption, in Windows and Mac There are so many ways to do full drive encryption as well, just pick a software that works for you, It is harder to remote veiw a drive that is encrypted, also never react to narcissitic Ass Kissers Dramma Queens, People Pleasers, Gas Lighters, always plead five, stay away from Psychiatry Period ... ;
If you drive encrypt you Phone then your Windows Mac Linux Or BSD Computer then you have leveled up to these Freemasons who Voyeuristically Remote View you Day By Day Bascally Violating Confideniality, when normal remote viewers do not do that, also writing things down with Motel Pens and Printer Paper is not a bad idea after all, you will then log that into any text editor, does not matter what text editor, this will help a lot with things.
Set an alphanumeric PW AES-512 Bit Lock on your Phone and Laptop Computer or Desktop.
This AES encryption will make it harder for Remote Viewers to bug you day by day also.

I used to use live operating systems, but those always crashed LOL, never worked ... ;
Again for my drive encryption, Windows and Mac have one with PW LOCK, then you set an alphanumeric Phone Password, then you for Linux LUKS for BSD Geli and Windows Something Else, then For Mac OS Something Else, and iOS is no good as Israel back doored all of that ... ;
So I factory reset, Update Android OS after Setting AN Alphanumeric Password, Netguard, F-Droid, Power Save Mode, Disable all apps after Rooting, just get the right brand and you can then disable all the trackers and apps, go minimalistic with phones, use a Desktop a real computer that does not have an IMEI Number and does not link to Law Enforcement, also Phones just strain your eyes, most people just use it for Texting that's it Period.
Again if you Alphanumeric Password Lock your BIOS, Phone, then do LUKS GELI Drive Encryption on everything Phone, Desktop, Laptop, Everything, AES encrypt all of it LUKSGELI, then For Windows and Mac it's something else, just do it, they will have a much harder time with it remote viewing it, so there is Windows Mac Linux BSD Solaris DOS Andriod iOS all of those AES Lock it, Full Drive Encryption, BIOS Password, Luks and Geli, just do it, that is the only way to stop Voyeuristically People from accessing your Cache and Drives ... ;
If you have a weak sudo password that is another common vector that they use also ... ;
People also say X86_X64 is garbage and you need ARM MIPS SPARC RISC Instead ... ;
So they isolate you and surround you with fake people, That is Organized Stalking for you ... ;

Footprint #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;

We all get that it does not matter what OS you use and all it takes is one guy to run Kali Linux and send you a link that contains malicious javascript aka a Script Kiddie, I fell for one that a Fake TI script kiddie sent me, now I know what not to do and stuff, and By the way there is also another way to reduce your footprint besides spoffing the Mac Address, Ublock Origin, DNS crypt, Luks Drive Encryption, there is another way to do this and that is to run a Live OS of Linux on a USB. Again, Installed OSes always get compromised and hacked, does not matter what OS you are on Windows, Mac, BSD, Solaris, Unix, Minix, all of them are susceptible to a simple javascript attack period. All it takes is one script kiddie to send you a link in Kali Linux, so for the Four Gigabyte Drives, we have Lubuntu, Tails OS, Arco Linux L XFCE (ARCH), and for the One Gigabyte Drives you can easily use a Live OS of Kaspersky Rescue Disk, or Puppy Linux Bionic 64 Bit, I would choose Puppy Linux over the two because, it has at least sound and graphics for editing and such stuff. Also a precompiled Gentoo that works good is Calculate Linux XFCE, these are all easily available online, Manjaro is another Arch Based Distro that is still somehow active, Now that I only have One Gigabyte Drives in my spare, I could get out two put Puppy Linux Bionic 64 Bit on one, and Kaspersky Rescue Disk on the other just to devirus a Windows System, again most of the time I just use Arch Linuxm, sure It is less secure and you have to have a sudo password, you know I only use it because it is Free, costs nothing, and installs software from the Terminal, that is the only reason I am using Linux, because it is what I am used to, also Linux is not for everyone, firstly just to use Linux you gotta know the bash commands, if you do not, how are you gonna make sure that your software is up to date and that you have the right software, so for my setup a desktop, I boot an external Drive, on that drive, a LUKS, then on it Virual Machines, Kali will run in a Virtual Machine, Again since I only fell prey to one script kiddie, his hack was unoriginal, all it was was a link with Javascript, I caught it and since then filtered out all the emails, ignoreed all of the tracker links he then sent me, only a script kiddie would threaten to kill another target, show off weapons at me in jpegs, and call me a Gang Stalker when I am not LOL, only a script kiddie would threaten to hack an email with a tracker Javascript link, since then I have leveled up to the guy and ignored all the links that were sent to me, filtered his rediculous emails containing pictures of weapons and death threats, that is what you should do, just filter the damn emails, that is all you need to do, he got set off over some stupid bash commands and still holds the eternal grudge, scammer dot info has a page online about him also, again with the LOLCOWS, ignore their javascript links and just filter their emails, enough of that is just the dramma this perp kept doing with me, and Kali just has precompiled tools, again calling yourself a hacker is a mistake, do not do that, same with threatening to hack someone or come to their house and kill them, that is what he did in an email, again Javascript is unoriginal and not a good attack vector, most would filter out that email and delete or block the email, so as of that if you are looking to reduce your footprint there are many good options, and one is to use little to no ram, real easy to do, all you need is Lubuntu, Puppy Linux Bionic 64, and Kaspersky Rescue Disk, flash it on to a USB Flash Drive, again for me I have two one Gigabyte ones that will store Kaspersky and Puppy so that will do just fine for me, and when booting the Puppy Linux One I could use either Brave or the Browser with Adblock Installed, that is literally all you need to do, I know for sure that installed operating systems are always temporary, esp do to human error, all it would take to compromise a linux system is to run the wrong command under ("sudo") or ("root") then it would screw it up, simply not having good enough sudo root passwords is what would then lead to a breach of your system that is in Linux, in Windows the permissions are also more open and less secure, in Mac it is Open for the sake of convenience and easy install of ("DMG") files so again you only get security with full AES or LUKS or Geli Drive Encryption and a good sudo password, and your ports closed on ISP and Local IP, then to run a Processor Architecture that is not X86_X64 or i686 as those two are comprimised RISC is much more secure as a Processor Architecture PERIOD, ("X86") CPUS are just that ("NOT-SECURE") .... ;

My biggest mistake in tech was what : Putting my passwords into breached websites, Clicking on a Link a Script Kiddie Sent me in Kali Linux that then stole my sessions using Javascript, I think I ran the link in a Virual Machine but he still bragged. ;
So again for the plans of a smaller Footprint not just A LUKS Encryption Drive but Two One Gigabyte Flash Drives One is Kaspersky the other Puppy and it should work for what I am trying to do with it, again it would also be better to use another ISP or VPN with the Live USB, Since VPNS are Free why pay for one, and DNS Tunneling, SSH Tunneling, Ping Tunneling are all practical ideas as well, what I am also trying to say is there is no One Hundred Percent Aononymous System out in the wild just does not exist, I mean most of us are on ("X64") instead of RISC or ARM which is less Back-doored.
Another thing I do not get is people always claim that spinning hard drives are far more efficient that Solid State Drives for back up, that sounds like BS info for me to see people claiming and saying that also, I have Samsung T7 Solid State Drives and Verbatim SSD and they so far have not failed, the Hard Drives however one of them wiped everything off and died.
Also my first Hard Drive wore out then the power supply failed, so in reality it is far better just to get a Samsung T7 PSSD then it is to get a bulky hard drive that spins, also hard drives use mechanical everything and spin, who in the right mind says it is better than SSDs My guess is it is marketing, that is all it is, most archivers I know of in realit use Four or More solid State Drives, Flash drives on the other hand are unreliable we know that, as for file systems I only go with Ext4 NTFS FAT32 EXFAT LUKS and that is it, UFS ZFS GELI are all crap to me, every BSD Unix System I shut it down improperly to test it and I screwed each one up so bad it would no longer boot, so from that I can tell you Ext4 NTFS Fat32 Exfat FAT Luks are all better than

BSD, also Windows I never got a disk error from, only in BSD, Linux and Windows had better file systems than BSD, I can tell you that much from just using it, ISO9660 is a Read Only File System and it is for Live Operating Systems or Live USBs those run the OS to Ram Disk, when it is on RAM Disk it gets erased every single reboot, simply going in the terminal and typing in "reboot" on any Live USB will erase the Entire Setup, but not on Opensuse, it will erase on Other Linux Distros though, such as the ones mentioned Puppy Linux and Kaspersky Rescue Disk, those are the ones that are RAM Disk Live OS only, Puppy Linux 64 Bit and Kaspersky Rescue Disk, those are what most people will use to hide data away from signals intelligence, all it is is you use less ram from a small OS and then erase everything by typing "reboot" in the terminal, it clears the Ram Disk and you go back to your normal OS that you use for productivity, just an idea, a sandbox of another OS, changing OSes is another way to get around limitations, banner grabbing of your devices, works as a Sandbox also, and lastly this is my drivel that I wrote that is a waste of everyones time also as well ... ;

WATCHLIST #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;

So a lot of Government Stalking is Tied to Narcissism and Two People that just put you in the COINTELPRO Program Zersetzung on a Patriot Act Watchlist to be Stalked Harassed by Sheriff's Departments and Freemasons who do it all and It's Ran by The Government Period ... ;
The Watchlist gets referred to as COINTELPRO MKULTRA Zersetzung, The Patriot Act, Stasis Decomposition, Oganized Stalking, Gang Stalking, Narcissism, Believe or Go To Hell, Monarch, Human Trafficking, Cults in General.
You have your moms side of the Family and dads side of the Family and they both have Life Insurance and you do not have Insurance, all you have is Medicare or Medicaid that's it, they betted on getting you on a Patriot Act Watch List post Two Thousand COINTELPRO Program aka Zersetzung or Gang Stalking or The Truman Show, and The Live, or even Idiocracy is another name for it, and it's a bet to have Freemasons and Sheriff's Departments to locally Gang Stalk you and make your life a living hell, they get your family to disown you since most of society is brainwashed by Radio and Television and Hollywood Movies it really is Believe or Go to hell in that exact way, your family will gaslight you and if you react to the gaslighting they will force you into the mental health system, then psychiatrists will make up hearsay into you medical records and other patients seeing guardianship will go through perjury, some TIs go through this some do not, so what to expect is Voice To Skull pretending to be Telepathic Ghosts, Directed Energy Weapons, being remote viewed by Freemasons and Government, Dazzing, Sound Campaigns, and overall things that make it so you cannot sit still for even five minutes and focus on a simple book, you can no longer meditate, because you are being harassed all day, they are easy on some targets and let them sleep, on other targets they cook them with energy weapons causing them to be unable to sleep, some of us eventually crash and sleep right through the sound campaigns, Voice To Skull, Silent Spread Spectrum, etc, so it is not new, you noticed that NAMI of the Mental Health system has a Customer Complaint about Severe Abuse of someone in the BBB customer Complaints on Better Business Bearough Website, that really tells you something about how The Mental Health system is Quackery and not based on any science unlike neurology which actually studies the brain.

One of the big things I noticed is sound campaings, akathisia or restless from psychiatric drugs, also known as restless leg syndrome, literally if you take Nardil and MAOI like I just did in the ward, it will later on make you Manic as hell and crazy as hell, where you can no longer read a book, focus on anything or meditate for that matter, also the patients said meditation is for p* when all of them were screaming loudly, in there for disturbing the piece and most of them were going from jail back to the funny farm, they want a population of nonstop criminals, The patients in there told me all about child pornography "PTHC" and other crap that I did not need to know, they were all criminals, getting other people to commit crime, they also put normal people with a bunch of Geriatrics just to experiment on the normal people in this Psychiatric System, I'm sure Eightys Psychiatry was much worse as they were doing abuse and human trafficking as those organizations were shut down and later featured on shows such as Sixty Minutes which exposes corruption and suff.
Again it is today the same crap and Quackery, it is not a science and people in there are hit, molested, raped, and treated as less than human, esp minors and the elderly.
Common Sense tells you Psychiatry is not a science and is Quackery, one there only prognosis tool is the Book Called The DSM and that is it, no actual equipment is used to measure any mental illness, mental illness is decided on by a Psychiatrist and that is it, that is why so many psychiatrists are above the law and commit perjury in court.
So yeah, your family may have gaslight you into doing whatever and getting diagnosed by a psychiatrist, they get your family to disown you based on Two People reporting you on either your moms side or dads side and when they do that you react and bad stuff happens.

The goal to stay out of Gang Stalking is to not react, plead five, never react, they act like they are COPS and demand you talk or threaten you with force or violence or scream in your ears so loud you go deaf in that ear, that is the stuff they do to gaslight you into getting angry or initiating violence then getting arrested for doing so LOL ... ;
It's just pure gaslighting, that is what, Restless Leg Syndrome from Meds AKA Akathisia, and Directed Energy Weapons aka Dazzing, The Believe or Go TO HELL thing, the nonstop stalking, the remote viewing by Freemasons and Government, The Silent Spread Spectrum, The Voice To Skull is all and lastly the overall sound campaigns, they a machine that makes your ears ring really loud, then they turn off that machine then you stop hearing the hum at night or whatever, people are just brainwashed by Public School, Television, Radio, and Mainstream Sources are either Democrat Republican and have no critical thinking skills so they would gladly wear a mask and get Vaccinated for COVID Nineteen that is just how it is, it really is believe or go to hell, same with not accepting Global Warming Manmade, Nirvgorilla kept telling me Global Warming is Happening and man made, and my situation we have a fake conservative who is all greenie and believes Global Warming is man made, so that is the stuff these stalkers all do, they pretend to be something they are not, that is it LOL.
Any of those Ghosts that talked to you and told you all of those things, some of that is Voice to Skull from The Government, that's why they say all of that crap, it is because you are black listed by The Government, The Term for it is called Zersetzung or Watchlisted.
People who are watchlisted in their country are Stalked, Harassed, Mobbed, Experimented on Twenty Four Seven Three Six Five and that is what they want a reaction out of you, I asked if my family was gaslighting me, they denied it, then it was either Voice To Skull or just a family member gaslighting me so it could have been either of the two and who the heck cares that is what I just realized, they only want you for your rent money, you are literally invisible now, if you die nobodies gonna care, you are literally worth nothing to society.

When you realize that, that is all watchlisted really actually is. They get your whole family to disown you, they get you isolate away from all people, they get every local business you go to or frequent to turn on you and gaslight you, that is just the way it is, and everything you do in your life will have a bunch of screwery, and all you have to do is ignore it, because you know psychiatry is not a science is quackery is just a DSM not a Real Medcial Field, and all you will do is get used to it, bwall, bline your way from place to place, do your stuff and that is what it always was, you see now, no one cares about you, you only friends will tell you that your situation benefits no one and that you should just commit suicide, that is what they will say to you, you go to other TIs who are actors and fakes and all they will do is hold an eternal grudge over some superficial S and try to hack your email by sending Javascript in the email and you will continue to ignore the repeated emails that go in the trash anyways that you keep filtering, also you keep going to your phone and blocking more stuff as spam, pretending to be Umpqua Bank a Bank account that you do not have, again your family does not have it in your best interest, your family is gaslighting you, telling you it's all in your head, they do this just for fun and ammusement, it is not new, you end up hating your other family members, you end up attacking them then being pushed in the Psychiatric System which is just a pseudoscience and quackery as we know now that they all put heasay and made up stuff in your medical records and commit perjury period.
They escalated your stalking when you told Nirvgorilla that you thought the Mask and Vaccine for Covid Nineteen Did Not Work and was useless and that Global Warming was not Man Made, and the fake pretend conservatives in your family then turned against you, these people in your family are marxists who do understand the first amendment or Freedom of Speech and The Press or even that the Internet is
The Press, so all they do is harass you with sound campaigns all day day long and they whatever METH or whatever drug they take whether it's Meth or Speed or whatever they use that drug to do a second night shift and day shift to do nonstop sound campaings and harass you all day and all night as they always do LOL, and you have so noticed it, recording it is a waste of time, all you have is your family sreaming at each other non stop, the cops constantly come to house over a disturbance of the peace, then they blame that disturbance of the peace on YOU the Targeted Individual and you get accused of disturbing the peace, when they do sound campaigns all day and all night because they are tweakers and high on meth all the time and that is how they are able to stay for weeks or months on end without sleep and you the TI have to go through all that crap, so it really is believe or go to hell LOL.

Like I've said many times before, Life Sucks, Then you Die, Then You're a Telepathic Ghost ... ;

Again this is how we do it as Schizophrenic then we go from place to place, blining bwalling it and subvocalizing saying it telepathically in our heads Perps, Gang Stalkers, Freemasons, TI, Sheriff's Departments, Law Enforcement, Organized Stalking, Silent Spread Spectrum, DEWeapon, Voice To Skull, Noise Campaign, Sound Campaign, Same Time Exit Entry, Sensitization, Stasis, Decompostion, Zersetzung, Globalism, Zionism, New World Order, Illuminati, 1984, Truman, They Live, Invasion of the Body Snatchers, Idiocracy, Body Snatched brain worm skin suites, Telepathy is not new or Special, Remote Viewing, Telepathic Ghosts, Religion is cult started by Martians, Kyle Odom Manifesto PDF, Protocols of The Learned Elders of Zion, Holocaust is a Hoax, Mossad did 911, Psychiatry is Quackery, c* like that nonstop ... ;
Organized Gang Stalking H-Trafficking Harassment techniques include:
1. Surveillance (being followed, electronic surveillance, computer and phone hacking, monitoring all online activities, and bugging of home)
2.Profiles are built to identify any and all weaknesses and insecurities to be used later. Information often obtained through sexual partners or trusted people in their lives.
3.Conditioning where victims are sensitised to certain stimuli such as everywhere you go someone will cough as they walk past you. The goal is to make you self police and then think anyone who coughs is involved in the harassment. People report of conditioning to include hand gestures, an overt use of colour in peoples clothing (like everyone you see wearing red) or cars a certain colour or with headlights on (also known as brighting).

4. Anchoring where someone will provide false rationales for the harassment. Often many possiblerationales are planted to keep the victim confused and the focus of the harassment cycles from one possible reason to another round and around so as to keep the victim guessing in a self perpetuating guessing game where every scenario you are to blame and causes self doubt, fear, intimidation, and ultimately a cycle of destructive thoughts

5. Mobbing (or true gangstalking) where everywhere you go you will see an overt display of peoplefollowing you and often use words you have been conditioned to or your name to draw your attention

6. Street theatre where a group will "perform" an overt activity like a fake confrontation or scenariosdesigned to test your reactions. Often takes the form of a couple who position themselves near you and then have a conversation using many of your conditioned words or pertaining to your particular situation and sensitivities.

7.The use of directional speakers which have the ability to direct sound to a single individual in a crowded room. This particular item is ultimately the most used and is often referred to as V2K or Voice to Skull and is used extensively in the psychological breakdown of the victim. The use initially is to cause the victim to doubt their sanity and drive them into the mental health system, and later to just torment and never give the victim a moment of privacy or peace. If they do enter the mental health system, then harassment escalates dramatically as the victim has now been "discredited" and can be labeled as someone with a mental problem if they do speak out about the harassment.

8.The use of electronics to effect your eyesight and balance which was originally developed for the military and police crowd control called "dazzling" and even the ability to make you vomit.

9. Sound campaigns which is a community harassment technique where abnormal levels of sound are directed at the victim and their home. This includes cars deliberately breaking or accelerating when they pass, people talking excessively loudly at all hours of the night, amplification of sound using directional speakers so that external sounds that previously couldnt be heard now can, garbage trucks and other heavy vehicles, and countless other deliberate tactics

10.Sleep deprivation - this is perhaps one of the most insidious tactics used where victims are woken multiple times a night and can be kept awake for days at a time. The effects are dramatic and completely debilitating effecting concentration,

mood, irritability, appearance, and significantly impacts all areas of their life - job performance, relationships, and significantly aids in discrediting the victim as they appear unorganised, disheveled, and sleeping patterns alter so they may sleep during the day (where noise campaigns are more effective) and be awake at night (where they can be painted as the one making noise and being a disruptive member of the community).

11. Baiting or entrapment where victims are harassed to the point that they lash out and commit acrime such as assault, break and enter or vandalism, as they try and locate the source of the harassment. Harassers will actively try to provoke verbal and physical confrontations especially after a period of sleep deprivation. Or they are prompted into an activity which can then be used as leverage such as affairs, sexuality, drug use, or other criminal activity.

12. Gaslighting which is a form of psychological abuse where someone will actively try underminevictims and to make them doubt themselves so that they lose all self confidence and self esteem and are therefor easier to manipulate and push toward the mental health pathway. It can be as simlpe as being told something which they then deny, then telling them how silly they are for thinking they said it, and turn the lie around into an attack on the person. It can be incredibly effective coming from a trusted person and before the victim understands what is happening to them.

13.Blackbag jobs is a term when a harasser breaks into a victims property and places something or deliberately moves something. The purpose is to cause self doubt, and fear that their property is being accessed which harassers try to then sell as paranoia.

14. Propaganda and disinformation is also the other key element to suppress knowledge of this practiceas its effectiveness initially requires the victim to be unaware of the existence of gangstalking, gaslighting, or the electronic technologies such as directional speakers so huge amounts of time are devoted online to creating disinformation sites which attempt to discredit victims by pushing the mental health agenda. They achieve this by posing as victims and actively trying to sound crazy so that all victims are are treated as such. Also by creating websites claiming to help victims and being a resource for victims to come together and then harassing them to the extent that they lose hope and no longer reach out for help causing further isolation.

15. Further to the above, gangstalkers rely on disbelief and discrediting and as such much of theharassment is designed (at least initially) to mimic mental health issues. They also rely on their abuse being so extreme, so pervasive, so fundamentally immoral, as to be disbelieved and victims subsequently resort to photographing, videotaping, and sound recording their everyday encounters to disprove the countless unfounded claims made against them - especially in relation to gaslighting, which gangstalkers try to turn around and paint the victims as paranoid or irrational. Victims are made to feel helpless as every attempt to defend themselves is used against them and when they seek help they are met with disbelief or open hostility. As Alfred Schaefer has said trigger words are only there to brainwash us just in George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four it states that Truman Show as clearly as gets ... ;

The Odom Manifesto and Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion both state how the Martains want control of our minds so it is not new. We are aware of this, The Jew Supremacy. The Zionist Extremism, The Anti White Agenda, all not new.
Psychology and Psychiatry are nothing comapred to Neurology, Both Social Sciences are Quackery for Big Pharma Drugs ... ;
I had a psychotronic projection just today with a bunch of sound campaigns waking me up at random times in the night. LOL it is what Organized Gang Stalking is about LOL ... ;
These perps just keep doing it non stop and don't stop ... ;
The Meme I said was : It is the Jews That Are the Problem, Money Tree Publishing, Sick And Tired, of the Jew Zionist Talmudic Garbage, Holocaust is Hoax, Denial Laws in Sixteen Countries, Life Sucks, Then Die, Then Telepathic Ghost, oh and I also hope I triggered you Liberal SJW Karens enough, you are anti Freedom of Speech Commies and you just have a big ego for deliberately censoring The Internet LOL,
You control what does and does not get indexed on Google, that is the reason so many others have left Google, and we know White Lives Matter, It's Okay To be White, and according to FBI Crime Statistics, Blacks are nine times more likely to commit a gun crime than Asians, Mexicans, or Whites Period.
So all the BS you've been saying this whole time is BS, And better yet, Hitler did not start WWII, he got Germany out of a Banking Debt, that was his only real crime you Sheep and goat People that believe everything the TV tells you LOL ... ;

RAMBLE #flushyourmeds Scott Barry ;
By Scott A. Barry / Scott A Barry / Scott Barry ... ;
Scott Alan Barry is an Atheist Holocaust Denier Dunce ... ;
The Crisis : Covid 19 was only a Flu, The Mask and Vaccine were useless and did not work, Fasting Cures Everything along with sleeping on The Floor to re-align the Spine, also you people are all Brainwashed by Televion and Jew School, so it does not matter anyways, Primary Water is Well Water, Water from the Biosphere is made with electricity,
The Trans Alaskan Oil Pipeline was intentionally shut down,
The Banks are Failing Intentionally, Global Warming is not Man Made and Scientific Data has shown that to be the case, Mentall Illness is all made up politics and opinions and Psychiatry is Quackery, The Holocaust Did not happen because there are Laws in Sixteen Countries that ban speech ... ;
So deprogramming starts now and what can you do ... ;
Organized Stalking is ran by The Government, Freemasons,
The Sheriff's Departments, Religious Cults, Neighborhood Watch, Nextdoor Avalon, Your Narcissitc Family, Brainwashed People, and gets referred to as Gang Stalking or Zersetzung always. ;
Sure the closest thing to GOD is Schumann and The Vaccuum aka Energy from a Diode Antenna Ground and Coil .... ;
So Ghosts will materialize and talk to you and s* ... ;
They somehow have Telepathy when we do not as Humans ... ;
Picture a Crystal AM Radio There is Diode One a 1N4007 and Coil Antenna Ground 100 Ohm Resistor, Variable Capacitor, Joule Theif For More Audio.
Now replace that Capacitor with a Defibulator Capacitor or Microwave Capacitor now you Got Energy From the Vaccuum or Schumann, now what, Look at a Solar Panel, The Cathode Side can be hooked to an antenna and Anode to Ground now you have Power from the Vaccuum Also, also a kernel powers the Solar Panel on the Cathode Side and runs the Solar Panel when the sun is not shining, also you have Thermalvoltaic, a tube on a Seventy Two panel some gas mixture, a Compressor and it gets power all hours of the day based on temperature changes, this technology is all shut down by Talmudic Jews, They control the Prussian Schools we go to, They fake up the Victor Version of WWII,
They are known well from Rabbi Finkelsten Tells All, also The Talmudic Jews get the correct Ver of WWII in their private Kohen Jew Only Schools then join into B'nai B'rith of the ADL, so you see where the Indoctrination goes and Prussian Public School that taught you the Fake Holocaust which there are denail laws in Sixteen Countries so it shows how fake it is, and Prussian Model was adoped by John D. Rockefeller, JP Morgan Chase, and Rothschild the Richest Banking Family on earth of Talmudic Freemason Jews who follow the Talmud, The Book of Globalism, also They have Trillions of Dollars, Live in a Mansion in England, Are simply Talmudic Jews that have all the money Period.

And you are what, a Poor Person, a Non Jew, A Goyim, someone who cannot have Six Travel Passports when a Talmudic Jew Can, you see, it took me a while to figure that out too, because I was lost did not know and Alex Jones was a Lying Shortcut Battery, self pumping saline, paper as paper and carbon and graphene are supreior to Lithium that China blows up a phone in your pants.

Electric Vehicles Hover Boards all exploding ... ;
Edison make an electric car that was more efficient.
Compressed Air is also more efficient so is Hydrogen.
You see there are Policies UCC, RCW Codes, Statues
Legal, Codes, Ordinances, you must comply or die.
We live under communism not freedom, our countries are all still British Crown Colony Corporations Period.
We live under a Zersetzung Government, you are being spied on by District of Columbia Government Mafia,
The Government was hijacked by Jewish Talmudic Law.
You are a slave to the system. Look at those Lithium Ion Batteries now, they catch fire and explode LOL, and Paper, Carbon, Saline, Graphene, The Earth are All more efficien than that, shows you the matrix for what it is, Silicon Valley already built a self pumping battery, we already have cameras the size of a salt grain, every f*ing computer now is embedded and runs Linux LOL.
You have a capacitive touch screen on your phone, no more buttons, you have to lock your new phone now with an alphanumeric password instead of a pin because mah Police and the Nineteen Eightyfour Truman Show Matrix.
You literally get two motors in frot one an AC generator and you get more efficient power when hooked to a step up, that can run, anything in your house, but the EST does not want that patent to exist, it would be so easy to do, you see Nine Eleven Truthers Mossad OP Inside Job People in The United States Such as David Dukes Jew Supremacism got put on the Patriot Act List to Organized Gang Stalked LOL. ;
No good ideas are made in this artificial economy, every crisis was man made by policies and policy makers who shut down oil pipelines intentionally, look up Primary Water and Trans Alaskan Oil Pipelines, also water can be extracted with Electricity but we still live in this matrix with a fake crisis and a fake Television
Media that gaslights us with useless fear porn for Brainwashed Lemmings, you see prepardness is also good, but the crisis was man made by design
by The Central Banking system which is ran by Talmudic Jews Period.

Hitler was not the bad guy, he god Germany out of a bank debt, he saved parts of Europe from Communist Infiltration, did not start WWII, did not start the Fake Holocaust, The Victor Version is All Lies ... ;
Also Martians used Christiany as another Zionist Jew Control tool and Started The God Myth, the closet thing we got is Schuman Resonances which make up the Ghosts and Spirits you see that talk to you at haunted location.
The ghosts will tell you that they have Telepathy and will give you Secret Info on Remote Viewing something The Martians want to supress from Humans as written in The Kyle Odom Manifesto PDF, and also The Protocols of The Learned Elders of Zion is another thing they call a forgery to discredit it.
Moreso you have stuff like Mass Jewish Supremacy in all Television Media,
They all are known pedophiles with Dual Citizenship with Israel ... ;
They consider goys non jews not anything at all and so then Jews get unlimited Travel Passports and Goys do not have a passort or only Two Passports ... ;
This was mentioned in David Dukes Book Jewish Supremacism, also Know More News Adam Green, Brian Ruhe, Mark Collett, Alfred Schaefer, all good sources, so is Brother Nathanael Foundation, Jared Taylor, Martinez Perspective all Accurate.
I've been deprogramming for so many years, just random stuff, being told by another ghost that Religion is a Cult and Humans become Telepathic Ghosts when they die and to keep this a secret form every human and martian on Earth ... ;
Keep everything secret about Remote Viewing and how it is done period period.
To be a little Nazi Bigot and to destroy anyones life if they mention it in accordance to The Talmud and Protocols of The Learned Elders of Zion to

Supress Ozone Therapy Seven Eight Three One Pulse Magnetic Fields, Negative Hydrogen Therapy, Fasting as a Therapy, Vitabin B Seventeen from Apricot Seeds, Cayenne Pepper, Lemongrass, Chaga Mushroom, Citrus Curing Cancer, Negive Resistor Powering something indefinately, all of this is to be supressed in Accordance to The Synogouge of Satan, Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, and Talmud, you see Overunity can never be a posibility or cures for cancer when you have Talmudic Rule over the Press, Self Publishers, Search Engines, Pattent Offices, it is as Despotic as Zionist Occupied Government will ever get and this is how it will always be, nothing will get better or improve for the better, the Symbolic Snake of Ouroboros will be achieved in Year Twenty Twenty Five and David of Israel will be the king of the World as Palestinians will be masacred and killed through mass Genocide making a new real estate deal for Israel, just as they stole Land from Iraq and Policy Makeres allowed for Mass Importation of Gold Look up Lindie England a known war criminal if not sure about that one, then think Policy Makers.
Things also escalated During the Phoenix Program with the Bogus Fake Viet Nam
PSYOP SAM war where led to CIA created Cults, MKULTRA Mind Control and Satanic Ritual Abuse Pedophilia at Psychiatric Institutions and Freemasonic Lodges ... ;
